TUESDAY EVENING.

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH

DECEMBER 5, 1916.

Karrisburg's Leading Glove Department

-"A Big Scoop" — Several hundred pairs of Kayser's Famous Leatherette Washable Gloves. (Made in Germany).

The last lot of these well known gloves to be had in this country. White -- Black -- Tan -- Gray -- Sand -- Biscuit -- Chamois and Pearl. size

Sale Starts Wednesday, To-morrow, $1.00 Pair

Ground ASTRICH'S 4th & Market Floor ASTRICH'S Streets

AT OUR PRICES ARE POSITIVELY LOWEST IN THE CITY

Kayser's Gloves

$1.00 Pair

We are not gong to ask you to wait until after the holidays. We're going to give you the advantage of "after Christmas" prices right now. From a recent huge consignment of ultra stylish Coats, Suits and Dresses we have left . the following-

Fifty-five Ladies' Suits, in all the fashionable shades and materials, valued at $25 to $35. Specially priced at$12.50 to $20.00

In this handsome assortment you'll surely find the Coat, Suit or Dress that you've been looking for.

CHRISTMAS CHAT The whole world is on short ra-tions," the papers tell us, and grocers are reporting an alarming searcity of such needed foods as peas, corn and tomatoes. The Studebaker Store, Second street at the crossing of State is fortunate however in having a large numply of these canned goods on hand, which they are still able to sell at the unexcelled Ferndell branch which they are still able to sell at tory of the Ferndell cornal fucult it is to get Maine corn this year to course, everyone knows how dif-fucult it is to get Maine corn this year the ferndell tomatoes are free from acid and almost entirely free from seeds, packed in lacquered cans, and the timy size or in the big sweet tele brance and the Ferndell products. The delicious peas may be had in either the timy size or in the big sweet tele brance may be main in the source of Christmas, — the source of Christmas, — the tells the story of Christmas, — the source of Christmas, — the source

BRILLIANT JEWELS

BRILLIANT JEWELS When I saw the gorgeous jewels displayed by the H. C. Claster Jewelry shop, 302 Market street, I felt as though I had taken a trip to a fairy-land of brilliance for the exquisite availieres, bracelets, rings and pins, are a delight to the eye. I noticed particularly one pin with a row of diamonds of graduated size extending along horizontally, while a net work of platinum lavishly set with small diamonds, makes a brilliant back-ground. The new dull finish of the platinum, combined with the radiance of perfect white diamonds makes a pin of rare distinction, and while it is quite natural to expect to find jewelry of this character at Claster's, the moderate prices asked are a delight-tul surprise for this class of jewelry. CHRISTMAS FOR THE BOYS

THOSE "LADIES IN GRAY" It may be because popular novelists like to speak of the heroine as "the lady in gray" or say that "a dainty shoe of gray suede peeped from beneath the skirt of the charming lady in the Puliman across the way." but some-how there is an indescribable and somewhat romantic charm about gray suede shoes, and the stunning pair just shown in the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, are sufficient to create their own romance. They are a lace boot, cut on smartest lines, extra high with a graceful curve at the top, and finished with the daint-lest of French heels. They are just the sort of shoes to give distinction to any costume, and they sell for just $10.00. THE GIFT FOR A DOLLAR CHRISTMAS FOR THE BOYS Of course the boys will want Santa laus to stop at the boys' department f Doutrichs, 304 Market street, for Claus to stop at the boys department of Doutrichs, 304 Market street, for there are so many things shown there that boys will want for Christ-mas, — overcoats, mackinaws, shirt-waists, neckwear, underwear, hand-kerchiefs, gloves — and especially those big fringed boy scout gloves. This department of Doutrichs is com-paratively new, but it seems to be a very popular retreat for boys and their mothers, for it is certainly most conveniently located, and is so quiet and restful that it is always a pleas-aut place in which to select all kinds of clothes for boys. The boys like it too, because they can always find just what they want at the price mother can best afford to pay, and Doutrich clothes are just what all the other "good fellows" are wearing. DAINTY GIET APRONS

DAINTY GIFT APRONS

DAINTY GIFT APRONS Nothing gave me more pleasure last Christmas than the 'dear little white apron that Katharine gave me, and she told me that it came from the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Herr, so I went there this year in search of some like it to give my friends, and I was delighted with the assortment of new and dainty aprons that I found there. There were dozens of different styles, and prices range from 25c to $1.25, each seeming prettler than the last. There are clean-looking barred materials with thust a bit of embroider, — the kind that come out of the tub looking just as fresh and pretty as new, — others with fine lace, and pert little bows of with fine lace, and pretty as new, — others with fine lace, and pert little bows of pink or blue ribbon, and besides these, there are most attractive stamped aprons to be embroidered with hand work.

TO SOLVE A DOUBTFUL

PERSONAL ---- SOCIAL

MR.AND MRS JOSEPH GRADY

Mrs. Hannah Owen, of 428 Cumber- | wore a traveling suit of blue serge Miss Emma Flickinger, to Joseph Grady, of this city, Monday, Novem-ber 27, at Carlisle. The young couple left last Monday

Ambulance Work

Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of

Mrs. Hannah Owen, of 428 Cumper-land street, has sent out cards an-nouncing the marriage of her sister, Miss Emma Flickinger, to Joseph Grady, of this city, Monday, Novem-the Dride, who resided with her sis-ter, Mrs. Owen, at 428 Cumberland street, has a wide circle of friends in the circ.

The young couple left last Monday, for what their families thought a little for what their families thought a little wist in that place and were much sur-prised upon their return to learn of their marriage. The ceremony, which took place at nocn in the parsonage of the Methodist Church, was performed by the Rev. oJhn Bowman, pastor. The bride, who was unattended,

INVITATIONS OUT

ter to Society

Meets Bride Here and

Elopes to Hagerstown

Has Resumed Publication The publication of The Cricket, the chool paper of the Seller School, has een resumed for the coming year dith the election of the new editorial taff. The first issue of the paper will robably appear at the Christmas holi-av time. HELPING FRANCE TO TEA AND DANCE

Seiler School Cricket

Jackson Boyd Will Tell Harris- Mrs. George E. Etter Will Pre-

burg D. A. R. of American _ nt Her Pretty Young Daugh-Mrs. George Edgar Etter, of 209

John L. L. Kunn, of 2112 North Third street. Miss Elizabeth Hilleary, of Hill Crest, New Cumberland, has returned home after a visit in Lewistown over the Thanksgiving holidays. Mrs. George W. Heaps and daugh-ter, Miss Laura Heaps, of the Etter Apartments, 1515 Dery street, are home from Reading, where they vis-ited relatives. Mrs. Davis Honor Guest at Delightful Functions

Elopes to Hagerstown,
Hagerstown, Md., Dec. 5. — An-out of the west meeting his sweet-heart in Harrisburg and eloping to day. Harry M. Kockenkerfer and source with the manksgiving holidays.
Miss Marion G. Wagner of near Lewis-town, were the bride and groom. The Thartment, 1515 Derry street, are were married on Sunday at the Wash-ington Square Methodist parsonage by the Rev. W. L. Lynn. Miss Wagner came to Harrisburg supposedly to visit relatives and was met here by Mr. Kockenkerfer.
Miss Miriam E. Brown and James C. Yohe, both of Harrisburg, were united in marriage at the parsonage of Christ's Reformed Church in this et won Saturday by the pastor, the more from street, was a Parkesburg visitor westerday.
Miss Ruth E. Souders and William Pa., were married on Saturday at the city on Saturday by the pastor, the more from street, was a Parkesburg visitor westerday.
Miss Ruth E. Souders and William Pa. Were married on Saturday at the city on Saturday by the pastor, the more from street, was a Parkesburg visitor westerday.
Miss Ruth E. Souders and William Pa., were married on Saturday at the more from street, was a Parkesburg visitor westerday.
Miss Ruth E. Souders and William Pa. Were married on Saturday at the more from street, was a Parkesburg visitor westerday.
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland, Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,
Miss Paerl S. Simmers of Scotland,

Miss Marian Isabel Strouse of Sec-ond and Hamilton streets is home from Philadelphia where she attended a debutante party at the Hotel Adelphia.

F. C. Brading Tells About |Birthday Anniversary Scripture Gift Mission Is Happily Celebrated

Francis C. Brading, secretary of the Scripture Gift Mission, with head-quarters and depository at 15 Strand, McIntyre, 27 Altoona avenue, Enola,

The publication of The Crickei, the school paper of t beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

at Delightiui runctions Mrs. William Walley Davis, of Chi-cago, Ill., a former resident of this ity, who is visiting Mrs. Frank Payne 1901 North Front street, is being much entertained during her stay here. Mrs. Davis arrived in the city last Wednes-day evening. .' The round of cards, dances and teas began Thanksgiving evening with and informal dance at the home of the hostoss. A few friends were invited to hostoss. A few friends met Mrs. Davis at the dance given by Mrs. John Wallis, and her daughter, Miss Alice T. Wallis, at the Harrisburg Club, Saturday evening evening with Mrs. Phillp T. Meredit, to f 1905 North Front street, hostess. Miss Marian Isabel Strouse of Sec-

Either English or broad high

EXTRA VALUE - Cloth Top English Button Shoes, new 11/8-inch heel, welted soles, dull or patent, $2.49 54 Great Stores - That's Why

G. R. Kinney & Co.

19 and 21 N. Fourth St.

^{pps,}....$1.98

toes; all leathers; cloth or

leather tops,

for

 and besides this one has the advantage, at Troup's, of buying from a get, at the trout get, at Lewistown Lochinvar

Miss Ely Urges Help For Suffering Poland

the the the Through the medium of a series of pictures never before exhibited Miss gray Henrietta Ely, of Philadelphia, who toured Poland, Austria and Germany oot a year ago while the war raged flercely ent on the Russian front, will show the terrible effects of the conflict which is nes, slowly sapping the strength of the are terrible effects of the conflict which is nes, slowly sapping the strength of the int-night in the auditorium of the Tech-nical high school. The lecture is free. There are twenty-eight "war pic-tures." which show the destruction sides in the conflict are using. The food distribution methods employed and the fearful condition of the non-h's, combatants has been caught by the are war. They will be shown by stere-ing. Toys and trinkets will be sold by the local women in charge of the lecture the sales will be used to buy milk for sted the starving Polish children and on-babies. and Guests of Mre Hickok

THE GIFT FOR A DOLLAR You will find the most attractive holiday suggestions at Astrich's, Fourth and Market street, in the way of useful articles of wearing apparel designed so attractively that they are just the thing for Christmas giving. For instance they are offering an as-sortment of well-cut petiticoats in a Dresden flowered design -on black, which is appropriate either for a styl-ish young girl or a quietly dressed elderly woman, for the design is con-servative, yet stylish and pretty, and these petiticoats cost just S&c. Then, too, there is another style in black with a uffle of the flowered material, which is equally pretty and sells at the same price. WHEN IN DOUBT

QUESTION

QUESTION "We want to buy a talking machine for Christmas," said a friend of mine, up.

THE GIFT FOR A DOLLAR

SOUTHERN PACIFIC STEAMSHIPS (Morgan Line) NEW ORLEANS NEW YORK

te steamers are fast, modern, luxurious and the cuisine is unsurpassed, connect with the Sunset Limited and other splendid trains for and California, affording the ideal route West. See the "Apache Trail" on your way to California. Let us help you plan the trip. F. T. BROOKS, District Freight and Passonger Agent Chestnut at 16th in Civic Club Det. 4 Keystonè Chapter, United States Daughters of 1812, Mrs. James Barr Mersereau, regent, announces a meet-ing at the Harrisburg Civic club, Thursday afternoon, December 14, at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Kaufman 2 o'clock, with Mrs. Mabel Cronis department of the Mercersburg ander Hayes, soprano, will sing, and Mrs. Jones will present current events Refreshments will follow during the social hour.

Mrs. G. E. Gamber of 2207 North Fourth street is home after a pleasant little visit with Mrs. Drew Archibald in Philadelphia.

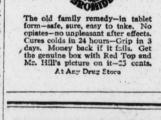

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Keeney, of Portsmouth, Va., announce the birth of a daughter. Thursday, November 30, 1916. Mrs. Keeney was formerly Miss Helen Toomey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Toomey, of Steel-ton and Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. L. Archie Shaffer, of Wilkinsburg, announce the birth of a daughter, Saturday, December 2, 1916, at the Columbia Hospital. Mrs. Shaf-fer was formerly Miss Bertha Bowers of North Sixth street, this city. Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Eppley, of G18 Camp street, announce the birth of a son, Lee Henry Eppley, Saturday, November 25, 1916. Mrs. Eppley was Miss Annie Warfel prior to her mar-riage.

trip.

SEWARD-SCHREFFLER BRIDAL The marriage of Miss Katie Allce Schreffler of 1945 North street to Charles Ross Seward, 2036 Boas street was a quiet event of last eve-ning at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of the State Street United Brethren Church, with the Rev. E. A. G. Boss-ler, the pastor, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Seward will make their home at 1945 North street after a brief bridal trip.

HOME AFTER WEDDING TRIP

Hartman, James Hartman, Mrs. Ly-man Kistler and Mrs. John Ernest. COUNTRY HOUSE PARTY A Joly party of young Harrisburg-mers chaperoned by Mrs. Wentz and Mrs. Urich enjoyed a week-end house, where Mr. Kast and Mr. Reinhardt Dempwolf, of York, left for Minneap-ing dance to music furnished by Ira Arthurs. Sunday afternoon a hike wen-ing dance to music furnished by Ira Arthurs. Sunday afternoon a hike wen-ing dance to music furnished by Ira Arthurs. Sunday afternoon a hike of the American Institute of Ar-ture. In attendance were: Miss Al stella Urich, Miss Gueenie McCoy, Miss Irene Shook, Miss Marie Kramer, Gestel, Paul Gerdes, Robert Atticks, Ira Arthurs, Carrol Wentz and Mr. and Mrs. Wentz. John Bergstresser, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Lawton, at 1923 Market street,

Don't fool with a cold. Cure it.

J. S. BELSINGER

This year we are making Stationery a specialty in connection with so nany other

Christmas Gift Goods

Modern Stationery—the latest ideas in tints and tone textures,

Sizes and shapes unique and individual from Marcus Ward,

> Forney's Drug Store Second St., Near Walnut