COUFFER AUTO IN TWO ACCIDENTS

Steering Gear Cause of Collisions With Buggy and Another Machine

Failure of the steering gear of the auto owned by Samuel Couffer, 322 Pine street, last evening was the cause of a double accident, in which much damage was done to two automobiles and a buggy.

While returning from Harrisburg late last night, Mr. Couffer's steering gear failed to work when he tried to turn out of the path of a buggy going down Front street near Franklin. He hit the buggy and both occupants were thrown to the sidewalk. Mrs. Charles Look, of Enhart, who was driving the buggy sustained a sprained arm and lacerations of the face and bruises of the body. The other occupant whose name has not been learned was also badly bruised about the body.

The pair were taken into the home of G. W. Weaver and later removed to the offices of a physician where their injuries were dressed. Mr. Couffer's car was not damaged, in the accident and he was able to proceed home.

At Second and Pine streets some time later Mr. Couffer was turning into Pine street when the steering gear again failed to work. Harry Long, of Harrisburg, operating his father's car, was coming down Pine street. Unable to turn the corner, Couffer ran into the front of Long's car, damaging it. The front fenders, springs and axle, of Long's auto was badly bent. Couffer's car was damaged slightly.

said that after a case has been diagnosed at some homes, parents think by sending children to relatives or friends, that the health department will let the youngsters go to school. This will not be permitted, Dr. Raunick declared, as the children may be carriers of the disease and cause an epidemic. In warning parents about the prevalence of chickenpox, he advised that children should be watched continually, and that a physician should be called at once if a child complains of feeling ill. In conclusion he again referred to the importance of treating colds promptly.

Only eleven convalescent patients are being treated there now under the city's supervision and the city health officer said to-day that these can probably be sent home within the next few days. The place will be thoroughly fumigated before the supplies are removed and the wards closed.

Industrial Committee Meets

The Industrial Committee of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce met yesterday afternoon and considered a number of propositions which demand further consideration before they can be treated seriously.

The committee considered a referendum from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America relating to proposed national legislation which will permit combinations or co-operation agreements between developers of manufacturers of natural resources such as lumber, iron and steel, oil, copper, coal, etc., also to permit American manufacturers and businessmen to co-operate in foreign trade. This is in line with the proposed Webb bill in congress, which is receiving support from men of every shade of opinion.

Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission who will address the Chamber on Wednesday, December 13, will discuss the major points raised in the above referendum before the whole membership of the chamber.

The membership of the industrial committee is as follows: John F. Dapp, chairman; Joseph Wallazz, Quincy

Department of Justice officials are understood to have under consideration as a part of the investigation, an inquiry into the methods adopted by various boards of trade, produce and other associations where the market value of foodstuffs is largely determined.

Although several of the bills introduced in Congress since Monday to meet the high cost of living situation have been laid before the President he has given his approval to none of them and will continue to withhold comment until he is prepared to present his views in the form of a recommendation for legislation. He has not yet decided when he will go before Congress.

A Single Application Banishes Every Hair

(The Modern Beauty)

Here is how any woman can easily and quickly remove objectionable, hairy growths without possible injury to the skin: Make a paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a painless, inexpensive method and, excepting where the growth is unusually thick, a single application is enough. You should, however, be careful to get genuine delatone.
