"Pape's Cold Compound" is pleasant and affords Instant Relief.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a cold.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drugstore. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine. Don't accept something else.

EAT LESS MEAT AND TAKE SALTS IF KIDNEYS HURT

Says a tablespoonful of Salts flushes Kidneys, stopping Backache.

Meat forms Uric Acid, which excites Kidneys and Weakens Bladder.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys; they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

MERCHANT'S WIFE ADVISES HARRISBURG WOMEN

"I had stomach trouble so bad I could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else soured and formed gas. Dieting did no good. I was miserable until I tried buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., and mixed in Adler-I-ka. ONE SPOONFUL benefited me INSTANTLY." Because Adler-I-ka empties BOTH large and small intestine it relieves ANY CASE of constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. H. C. Kennedy, druggist, 321 Market street.

Love Insurance By Earl Derr Biggers

"Come on, Jack," Minot said to Paddock. They ran down several flights of stairs, through the lobby and out into the street.

"Where to?" panted Paddock.
"The harbor!" Minot cried.
As they passed the opera house they saw a crowd forming and heard the buzz of many voices.

Mr. Paddock knew of a man on the water front who had a gasoline launch to rent, and fortunately it happened to be in commission. The two young men leaped into it, Paddock started the engine, and they zipped with rousing speed over the dark waters toward the lights of the Lileth.

"My plan is this," said Minot when they got to the ship. "Turn George over to us. We'll bundle him into our launch and run off out of sight behind Tarragona Island. Then let Trimmer search to his heart's content. When he gets tired and quits signal us by hanging a red lantern in the bow."

Martin Wall smiled broadly.
"Not bad for an amateur kidnaper," he said. "Will I turn George over to you? Will a duck swim? A good idea."

In the kidnapping George put up a lively fight. Once he slipped and fell, his three captors on top of him, and at that moment Minot felt a terrific tugging at his coat. But the odds were three to one against George Harrowby, and finally he was dragged and pushed into the launch. Paddock started the engine, and that odd boat load drew away from the Lileth.

Hours passed and no red light from the Lileth. It rained in torrents.
"I'd give a thousand dollars," said Paddock, "to know what's going on aboard that boat."

CHAPTER XII. Wall Puts to Sea.

THE knowledge would hardly have been worth the price he offered. Aboard the Lileth, on the forward deck under a protecting awning, Mr. Trimmer sat firmly planted in a chair. Beside him, in other chairs, sat three prominent citizens of San Marco—one of them the chief of police. Mr. Martin Wall was madly walking the deck near by.

"Going to stay here all night?" he demanded at last.

"All night and all day tomorrow," replied Mr. Trimmer. "If necessary. We're going to stay here until that boat that's carrying Lord Harrowby comes back. You can't fool Henry Trimmer."

"There isn't any such boat!" flared Martin Wall.

"Tell it to the marines," remarked Trimmer, lighting a fresh cigar.

Just as well that the three shivering figures huddled in the launch on the heaving bosom of the waters could not see this picture. Mr. Wall looked out at the rain and shivered himself.

Eleven-thirty came. And 12. Two matches from Mr. Paddock's store went to the discovery of these sad facts. Soaked to the skin, glum, silent, the three on the waters sat staring at the unresponsive Lileth. The rain was falling now in a fine drizzle.

"I suppose," Paddock remarked, "we stay here until morning."

"We might try landing on Tarragona," said Minot.

"We might try jumping into the ocean, too," responded Paddock through chattering teeth.

"Murder," droned poor old George, "that's what it'll be."

At 1 o'clock the three wet watchers beheld unusual things. Smoke began to belch from the Lileth's funnels. Her alarm sounded.

"She's steaming out!" cried Minot. "She's steaming out to sea!"

And sure enough the graceful yacht began to move—out past Tarragona Island, out toward the open sea.

Once more Paddock started his faithful engine, and, hallooing madly, the three set out in pursuit. Not yet had the Lileth struck its gait, and in fifteen minutes they were alongside. Martin Wall, beholding them from the deck, had a rather unexpected attack of pity and stopped his engines. The

THIS STOPS HAIR FROM FALLING OUT

Ever try to count the dead fallen hairs in your comb and brush? They are nature's advance warning of future loss of hair. The effect of the dangerous little dandruff germ is busy on your scalp.

Dr. Sangerbund, the famous Paris specialist, first discovered that dandruff and falling hair are caused by a microbe. Then came the discovery of the value of the real Parisian Sage (liquid form) in destroying the dandruff germ and promptly preventing the further loss of hair. The effect of only three days' use of Parisian Sage is simply marvelous, and the American people have now awakened to the fact that dandruff is just as unnecessary as it is unhealthy, and that they can be quickly rid of it and save their hair by using a few ounces of Parisian Sage.

Parisian Sage is sold for more than 50 cents a large bottle at drug and toilet counters everywhere. It is an ideal, daintily perfumed liquid, free from grease and stickiness, and will surely cause hair to grow soft, lustrous and really seem twice as abundant.

H. C. Kennedy always has a large supply, and guarantees it to you.

Court Hears 100 Cars of Liquor Go into Dry Belt

Sharon, Pa., Dec. 7. — An amazing array of figures showing the amount of liquor shipped into Sharon was presented at the License Court. Judge J. A. McLaughry is presiding. W. W. Cartwright, Erie railroad freight agent, testified that nearly one hundred carloads of liquor was received here since last February. O. L. Latimer, street railway freight agent, testified that in the last two weeks something like 750,000 glasses of beer, 200,000 glasses of whiskey and 50,000 glasses of wine were received here.

There are twenty-three applicants from Sharon, Farrell, Sharpville and Greenville. The "wet" witnesses are endeavoring to prove that conditions are worse since the county went dry. Attorneys for the "wets" made a motion to quash the remonstrances bearing 8,000 names, claiming they are not legal.
