VETERANS ELECT
Officers elected for the ensuing year by David R. Stevens Post, No. 520, G. A. R., are: Post commander, J. M. Auter; senior vice-commander, David Stevens; junior vice-commander, adjutant, John Barton; quartermaster, William White; sergeant, Charles James; chaplain, James Stokes; officer of the day, William Dixson; patriotic instructor, E. Slaughter; officer of the guard, George Gibson; sergeant-major, Samuel Hall. Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 7. — The people's ase against John Edward Teiper on a charge of murdering his mother, Mrs. Agnes M. Teiper, closed to-day and Roger P. Clark. of Binghamton, associated with Edward R. O'Malley and George A. Lewis for the defense, made the opening address to the jury on behalf of the accused. Whether Teiper would take the stand in his own behalf would be determined by the developments of the day, it was all by his counsel. Teiper is reported to have expressed a wish to testify.
