FRIENDS INVITED TO AID OLD SANTA

Paxtang Small Folks Giving Fine Program For Holiday Charity Work

The little Delhi children of Paxtang had so many requests to repeat their benefit concert of last year that their friends are being given another chance to help them raise some of the poor of Paxtang and Harrisburg, too, happy on Christmas day.

Yesterday they gave their program of songs, recitations and dances, and the afternoon their grown-up Paxtang friends were interested auditors, and to-morrow afternoon they will repeat the entertainment for their Harrisburg friends, hoping that many of them will take the 3.30 Hummelstown car and come out to their house and help them in their Christmas spirit work. This program has been enlarged by adding to the performers two capable children of their acquaintance, Dorothy Myers and Helen Cordry. No invitations have been issued, but the youngsters had posters in the Paxtang stores to notify their friends of the performance, and this announcement in the city papers. In the picture above, reading from left to right: Dorothy Myers, Helen Cordry, Mary Ethel Deihl, Robert Groff Deihl, Helen Elizabeth Deihl and David Heilman Deihl.

The program will include: Trio, Moresque (Streabrog), Dorothy Myers, Helen Cordry, Mary Ethel Deihl; song story, The Footprints (Neidlinger), Robert Groff Deihl; vocal, Why Do Bells For Christmas Bells? (Streabrog), Helen Cordry; three nature song stories, The Roster and the Hen, The Turkey and the Duck, The Kitty and the Bow-wow, Helen and Robert Deihl; a little play, The Little Gray Mouse (Deihl); A Sunbeam, Mrs. Groff Deihl; story, The Little Gray Mouse and Santa, adapted from a poem by Mrs. Deihl, Helen Deihl; piano solo, Humoresque (Dvorak), Dorothy Myers; song, "Oh Dear, Wheat Can the Matter Be" (Moffatt), Helen Deihl; piano trio, Waltz (Streabrog), Dorothy Myers, Helen Cordry, Mary Ethel Deihl; story, The Little Gray Mouse (Deihl); Helen and Robert Deihl; piano solo, Tarantella in A Minor (Beaumont), Mary Esther Deihl; two nature song stories, The Two Crows (Deihl), Helen and Robert Deihl; vocal solo, The Little Brown Rabbit (Grace Wilbur Conant), Helen Deihl; patriotic song, George Washington (Deihl), Helen and Robert Deihl; story, The Child Who Saw Santa (Caroline Sherwin Bailey), Mary Esther Deihl; Mother Goose song story, Where Are You Going, My Pretty Maid, (Moffatt), Helen and Robert Deihl; piano trio, The Babes in the Woods, I Saw Three Ships, Dames Get Up and Bake Your Pies (Moffatt), Helen and Robert Deihl; piano trio, Gallop (Streabrog), Dorothy Myers, Helen Cordry, Mary Ethel Deihl; singing of old Christmas carols and song by the audience, led by the children.

TURN THE TABLES AT BIRTHDAY FETE

Guest of Honor Sends Regrets and Announces Her Engagement to Harrisburg Man

Members of the Gamma Delta Sorority of Williamstown have the custom of celebrating the birthdays of the girls in delightful social fashion. An evening or two ago the sorority was in readiness to honor Miss Mae Grant Thompson and the guests sat patiently awaiting her arrival, when, instead of the guest of honor there came a message saying she was unable to be present at her own party. Regrets were expressed but the vote was to let the party go on anyway.

Later when the 23 girls were seated at the banquet table a second messenger appeared with a large box and a small note. When the box was opened "the cat was let out" and the note told of the engagement of Miss Thompson to Homer Moyer of Harrisburg. Amid shouts of laughter the party hastily adjourned to Miss Thompson's home to extend congratulations and the supper was served with appointments of green and white and corsage bouquets of carnations were given each guest.

In attendance were: The Misses Bert Kinsey, Alice Flynn, Margaret Watkeys, Alice, Estella and Jane Moffett, Florence Kaufman, Hazel Walkley, Marion Durbin, Amy and Helen Moyer, Annie Hines, Henrietta Haerter, Elizabeth Moss, Mary Budde, Emily Reigle, Trude Swalm, Alma Thompson, Eva Ralph, Nina Schaeffer, Mary Byerly, Esther Warlow, Bessie Moffet, Annie Miller and Ethel Berry.

Central High Notes

The High School Club of the Y. W. C. A. is planning many activities for the year. They will hold a doll show during the afternoon and evening of Saturday, December 16, at the association building. The dolls will be on exhibition only and later will be given to the Associated Aid Societies for Christmas presents for the needy children of this city. Homemade candy will be sold. The show will be in charge of the social service committee, Paul Schaeffer, chairman, and Mrs. Ruth Stary. At the meeting Tuesday night about forty-five members were present. It was decided that the Christmas party would be held Saturday, December 19, in charge of the social committee, including Miss Louise Baer, chairman, Miss Naomi Matts, Miss Ruth Flocks, Miss Annabel O'Brien and Miss Alvena Hertzler.

The Artus staff enjoyed a straw-ride to Grantville last evening as well as a chicken and waffle supper with Miss Eleanor Leonard, of the Central faculty, as champion. The members and their guests were Miss Fannie Nease, Miss Louise Johnson, Miss Emma Keeney, Miss Gertrude Kenny, Miss Margaret Landis, Miss Virginia Forrer, Miss Eleanor Ely, Miss Edna Ely, Miss Nancy McCullough, Miss Sara Clark, Miss Margaret Wingard and Miss Helen Smith, Marlin Geiger, Ross Hoffman, Kenneth Downes, Thomas Caldwell, Paul Schaeffer, James Carey, Willard Smith, Emory Hartman, Seymour Nissley, Arthur Gardner and Reese Lloyd. This was the first ride for the members of this year's staff.

The 1915-16 staff enjoyed three rides, much to the credit of the business department, which made this possible. An enjoyable event for a few Central students was a party held at the home of Charles Koser, 105 Evergreen street. The evening was spent in games and music and refreshments were served to Miss Mildred Moyer, Miss Fay Moyer, Miss Margaret Spencer, Miss Minnetta Hosman, Miss Elizabeth Laeser and Miss Harriet Morris, Russell Zimmerman, "Bill" Kay, Leon Simoneth, Vernon Wright, Herman Gohn and Charles Koser.

The Rho and Upsilon sections will hold a debate Monday evening, the subject being "Resolved, that military training is advisable in high schools." The Rho section will favor the affirmative and the Upsilon will be negative. The speakers are: affirmative, Seymour Nissley, Thomas Caldwell and Miss Marie Yount; negative, William L. Kay, James S. Carey and Walter

Peggy Alert's Christmas Chat I felt as though Christmas was here now, when I heard the beautiful Christmas hymns at the J. H. Troup Music House, 14 S. Market Square, on the different phonographs which they offer. The majestic beauty and ringing gladness of an old Portuguese hymn appealed to me, and the pleasure of selecting records at this store, is that one is able to get so many helpful suggestions as to which records might best suit one's individual taste. This is the only store, too, where one may find every record of Columbia, Edison and Victor makes, and in cases where the same record is offered in more than one catalogue, as the "Adeste Fidelis," one may hear both and take the preferred record. AMERICAN GENIUS We are all very proud of manufactured articles which are "Made in America," but how much prouder we may be of the genius who America has produced! Robert Service, has been called the Kipling of America, and his clever verses, full of life and action are most entertaining. The Cottrell Book Store, 9 N. Market Square offer some of his most popular volumes attractively bound in cloth to sell for just $1.00 for the holidays, and they make most acceptable gifts. Two of his best—of volumes, and a new book just published are offered, as well as some books of similar interest by other writers. THE LUXURY OF FURS These blustery, windy days blow roses into your cheeks, but you must be warmly dressed to enjoy being out-doors now, and nothing is more conducive to soft winter comfort than the luxury of soft, warm furs. At Astrich's, Fourth and Market streets, I saw some most attractive muffs in long-haired black fur, which compares very favorably with genuine black fox, and really gives much better service, for the wearing qualities of these furs are excellent and they are made in newest and most desirable styles. Beautiful muffs are shown at prices ranging from $7.50 to $15, while attractive scarfs may be had at similar prices. THE NEW SKATING BOOT Unfortunately we cannot enjoy weekly style exhibits at a fashionable skating rink, but we can see every week the smartest of the new styles, and a very smart skating boot is now offered at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market street, where the newest designs are always shown just as they come in the larger cities. This skating boot is of fawn colored deer skin, made in a blucher model with low heel, rounded toe, and smart stitching. Its warmth, and serviceability is most satisfactory for any kind winter sports, while its style is so good that it could be worn with pride on the most fashionable skating rinks. It sells for just $7.00. THOSE PINK PAJAMAS — AND OTHERS Do you remember the year that the Pink Pajama Girl occupied the center of the stage? This year the Dourich Store for Men, 304 Market street occupies the center of the stage, and their pajamas for men are very prominently before the footlights. There are shown in all kind, pajamas in flannel and in mercerized materials, some trimmed with silk

THE HOME AT YULETIDE When the young people come home from school, when the bride comes back to the parents' home, when relatives from far away gather together for the Christmas holidays, then is the time when the service of an expert in home portraiture are most valued, and the Roshon Studio, 8 N. Market Square, makes a specialty of going to the home to take either single or group pictures, in this kind of most reasonable, and Roshon photographs are known for the excellent results invariably obtained.

CHRISTMAS CANDLES Burn the Christmas candles, "make bright this house of your habitation" at Yuletide, and for this purpose the loveliest of Christmas candles are shown at the Studebaker Grocery Store, (now owned by Mr. George Barnes) Second street at the crossing of State. There are the beautiful Adamantine candles in aliar height, the graceful twisted candles for table decoration, while the candles in Christmas red with a conventional design in green are most appropriate for Yuletide. This store offers candles in all colors, those in white with a line of black, being especially pretty, and some are shown in attractive boxes ready for Christmas giving.

THE NEW BRACELETS If you never liked bracelets before, you will like the beautiful new flat link bracelets shown at the H. C. Claster Jewelry Shop, 302 Market street, for no one could be indifferent to their captivating charm. Numerous designs are shown, many in the lovely green gold, hand chaste in exquisite designs ranging in price from $10.00 up. One lovely bracelet of tiny, flat oblong links of solid gold was set with a beautiful emerald, others have settings of sapphires, amethysts and other precious stones, while my eye was caught and delighted by a dazzling row of diamonds set into a link bracelet of platinum.

BOUDOIR PILLOWS FOR GIFTS Some of the prettiest gifts I have seen this year were handmade boudoir pillows, and I found the most attractive designs for these at the Woman's Exchange, Third street at Herr. They have some perfect beauties in genuine Madeira, priced from $1.50 up, while the assortment of stamped pillow tops and slips is most complete. Those with hemstitched hems, stamped for embroidery are most attractive and very easy to make and sell for 85c and $1.00, while new designs in fllet are suggested for those who crochet an instruction books, linens, and all needed materials for making including the pillows may be had at this shop.

Little Viola Stouffer Celebrates Her Birthday The fifteen little friends invited to help Little Miss Viola Stouffer, of 1908 Forster street, celebrate her fourth birthday and just the nicest kind of a time with games, music and story. The decorations were suggestive of Christmas, with a miniature Christmas tree as a centerpiece to delight the hearts of the kiddies. Four tiny pink candles graced the birthday cake, and the favors were holly boxes filled with candy. The many gifts so kindly brought the hostess pleased her greatly. In the party were: Dorothy Shakespear, Mary Duane, Wirt, Blanche Elizabeth Wirt, Jean Myers, Mary Jane Myers, Helen Hake, Janet Hake, Mary Palm, Mildred Palm, Ethel Snyder, Robert Schriener, Thomas Hake, John Guyer, Robert Schriener, Thomas Hake, Wilbur Runkle, Brother Robbie Stouffer and Viola Christone Stouffer. Assisting to entertain the children were: Charles Kilpatrick, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Wirt, Miss Slaymacker, Mrs. Wagner, Mrs. Samuel Briggans, Mrs. Mary Bowes, Mrs. Ella Moyer, Mrs. Anna Hoover, Mrs. Sarah Shover, Mrs. Anna Mull, Mrs. Elie Richwine, Mrs. Sarah, Hilberlein and son, Lester, Mrs. Sue Ingram, Mrs. Misses Pearl Moyer, Viola Adams, Marie Richwine, Mrs. Melly Marion, Mrs. Mary Reneker, Mrs. Martha Adlon, and granddaughter, Martha, Mrs. Sarah Ranko, Mrs. Margaret Hillery and son, Darwin, and Mrs. Emma Harman, Miss Margaret Lindemuth, Mrs. Eva Lehr and son, Charles Lehr, Jr.
