

Peggy Alerts Christmas Chat

To-morrow a very interesting treat is in store for Harrisburg shoppers for the H. C. Claster Jewelry Shop, 302 Market street, in connection with their very complete showing of Community Silver, has arranged to have a special representative from the factory at their store to offer any kind of service to customers, either in helping to select new silver, or to give suggestions and advice as to the care of silver formerly purchased. He will also explain the process of manufacture, and give many interesting facts in connection with it, and incidentally this day of "open house" at Claster's will give everyone an opportunity to stop and see their interesting gift displays without feeling any obligation to buy.

Just A Little More Than A Card
Charming little books which serve as just a little more than a card and less than a gift are shown at Cotter's 9 North Market Square for just 25c and 50c. There is a clever Christmas story by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, a new book by Francis Hodgson Burnett and Woodrow Wilson's interesting little essay on "Being Human." Then there are Christmas stories and Sunshine verses, charming books of gardens, flowers and birds, and all the cheerful happy subjects that best express the Christmas spirit, offered in holiday bindings at these popular prices.

Garden of Allah
The Garden of Allah is a most appropriate name for the fragrance that is offered at the Golden Seal Drug Store, 11 South Market Square, in extract, toilet water, sachet, face and talcum powder, and the suggestion of splendor embodied in the name is beautifully fulfilled in the gift-like boxes, lined in gold-colored satin, in which artistic bottles filled with the green gold liquid are charmingly arranged. Some of the better boxes contain powders, perfumes and sachet while others, equally lovely, but less expensive hold a single bottle of toilet water or a vial of delicate perfume, and prices are most moderate at this shop.

Thousands of Neckties
I have been wondering how many neckties are given for Christmas gifts in Harrisburg for I just learned that one store alone sells a quantity which runs into the thousands of dozens! I thought at first that this was impossible, but when I heard that the store was Douthett's, 204 Market street, and that they have now in stock 1,500 dozens, and when I realized how popular this store is for neckwear, I could easily understand it. This tremendous assortment makes it easy to select the perfect tie for the occasion, and I was delighted with the splendid assortment shown for just 50c, which is fully up to the standard of former years before war prices began, while the designs are prettier than ever.

Children's Furs
I think children look just like little snowbirds when they put on the cunning little white fur sets which I saw at Astrich's, Fourth and Market streets. This store is offering so many

Successful Tableaux Presented Many Guests Attend Pretty Ceremonies Held in New Market Yesterday

An enthusiastic audience, generous in its applause, greeted the "Tableaux Vivants" staged last evening in the Technical high school auditorium by the Misses Fisher, of Stillwater, N. J. The pictures from Shakespeare and some of the old masters were posed by debutantes and others under the direction of the capable ladies, who provided the costumes and supervised the stage arrangements.

The acting effects were excellent and the musical accompaniments by Alfred C. Kuschwa very much in harmony with the settings. All the portions were received with two and sometimes three encores. Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, in a portrait after Romney, Miss Constance Ferriday as Ophelia, Miss Susanna Fleming as Portia and Miss Janet Sawyer after Titian were all given hearty receptions, and John Comstock as Prince Hal fulfilled the requirements of the dashing courtier.

Refreshments were served at each table held the audience with equal interest and all were staged with the care and effectiveness of experience.

MISS RAYSON SHOWED WITH ENGAGEMENT GIFTS
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rayson of 417 Harris street entertained a merry party last evening at the home in honor of their daughter, Miss Pearl Rayson, whose engagement to Josef von Hauser is announced. Beautiful presents were given the bride-elect.

Refreshments were served to the following people: The Misses Margaret Clancy, Loretta Fleagle, Edith VanCamp, Helen Bushey, Caroline Worley, Gertrude Garman, Mary Kline, Beatrice Bishoff, Ruth Bentz, Emily Haller, Betty Shunk, Mary Lichtenberger, Edna Hoak, Floy Baker, Ethel Nickel, Gertrude Miller, Cynthia Beitman, Alma Swartz, Marjorie Kirk, Margaret Collins, Mary Foley, Marie Koenig, Pearl Page, Hazel Wright, Elizabeth Alberts, Clara Helf, Bessie Rayson, Pearl Rayson, Mrs. McKay, Mrs. E. Fox, Carl McKeese, William Steinberg, Josef von Hauser and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rayson.

LOCAL BOYS SING
Harrisburgers were interested in a picture and article in a recent issue of the Baltimore News, telling of the work of the famous boy choir of Old St. Paul's church. This was the first church of the country to have its choir boys living and educated in its own parochial school. The 26 boy students come from different parts of the United States and from their 12 are selected for service in this choir. Three out of the 12 are Harrisburg boys, brothers, William, Robert and Frederick Webster, of 222 South Fourteenth street. William Webster, Second Street soprano soloist, and his work is so much appreciated that inquiries have been received about him from New York and other large cities.

LUCKNOW MISSIONARY MEETING.
Eighteen ladies of the Lucknow Missionary society of the Grace Methodist church met last evening at the home of Mrs. George W. Melly, 132 Locust street. After studying the usual lesson, interesting letters were read from several missionaries in the field, telling of their work abroad. Refreshments were served during the social hour. The next meeting of this society will be held with Mrs. John D. Fox, the pastor's wife, at the parsonage in State street, the first Thursday in January.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS
Shiremanstown, Pa., Dec. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snyder and daughter, Miss Pauline Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hostetter, of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Malone and daughter, Miss Mary Malone, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Malone, John Malone and Charles Malone, of Harrisburg; were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Courtenay at their residence in Railroad street.

COLONIAL EVENTS AT CLUBHOUSE

Dinner Dances With Cabaret Features Planned by Entertainment Committee

Arthur H. Bailey, Redecker Brinser and Brooke Trout, of the Colonial Country Club's entertainment committee, announce that special pleasures at the club this winter will include dinner dances with cabaret features on Saturdays, following the usual afternoon teas.

Card night is listed for Tuesday, December 12, and Christmas night, when many members wish to spend an informal evening at the club, there will be piano music for dancing.

The usual December club night will be changed to New Year's night, Monday, January 1, 1917.

The club is in a most flourishing condition and the social activities are much enjoyed. There's always something doing in a social way and the committee in unifying in its efforts to restore new things.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hazen and small son, Philip M. Hazen, of Cleveland, O., are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Luman Miller of Green street.

Mrs. R. H. Millar, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of her son, A. B. Millar, North Second street.

STONE UP YOUR STOMACH

There is no tonic for the stomach that is not a tonic for every other part of the body. But the stomach depends, as does every other organ, on the blood for its energy.

There can be no perfect digestion without rich, red blood. This is scientifically true. The way then to tone up the stomach is to enrich the blood.

If your digestion is off and your blood is thin there can be no question about it. You need Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to restore the condition of your blood, use care in the selection of your diet and the stomach trouble will take care of itself.

Stomach trouble is debilitating. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic and build up the weakened system generally. Most stomach remedies try to digest your food for you. How much better it is to tone up the stomach so that it will do its own work as nature intended. There is no pleasure in eating pre-digested food. Tone up your stomach and your appetite and digestion will soon be normal.

A diet book will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or a box will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of fifty cents.
