

GOOD WORDS CLUBS PROMISE REFORM

Helping to Form High and Holy Ideals in Minds of Young

(Copyright, 1916, Star Company.)
Among the innumerable good societies which are formed in America for the betterment of the minds and the morals of human beings there are two especially worthy of note—one a Roman Catholic society, called "The Society of the Holy Name," the other a New Thought organization, called "The Unity Good Words Club."

"The Society of the Holy Name" demands that its members use no profane or blasphemous words in conversation, that they bow their head reverently whenever the Holy Name is mentioned, and that they use no intoxicating liquors. The good is inculcated which such a society does in helping to form the thoughts and words of the young in accordance with high and holy ideals.

"The Unity Good Words Club" is another excellent organization. Its members are asked to take the pledge to avoid subjects of gossip, anxiety, criticism, foolishness, impurity, untruthfulness, crime, fear, nagging, complaining, sickness, poverty and anger, and to turn them toward words of trust, wisdom, goodness, health, prosperity, praise, joy and good will.

"I believe in the power of the spoken word, and I realize that I am held accountable for even my lightest words. I also believe that there is power in united effort. Therefore, I desire to become a member of Unity Good Words Club that I may unite in helping others as well as myself to speak only good, true words.

"I agree to guard my conversations against all words of gossip, anxiety, foolishness, impurity, untruthfulness, crime, fear, nagging, complaining, sickness, poverty and anger, and to turn them toward words of trust, wisdom, goodness, health, prosperity, praise, joy and good will."

It would be an excellent thing if every school organized a society of this kind. There are no dues to pay and no expense connected with the society, but signing the name to an application blank carries with it a sense of obligation which helps in the formation of character.

The language used by the majority of school children out of school hours (whether in public school, high school, or private school) is shocking to a degree. Ungrammatical, slangy and inelegant are adjectives which can be applied without injustice to the language of these young Americans.

When Jesus was on earth He said, "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away." He knew the power of good words. In a little leaflet published by the "Good Words Society" these interesting facts are set forth:

Every word has a three-fold power—first, the force of its primal idea; second, what has been put into it by race uses; and third, the intelligence and feeling given to it by the speaker. The old stories of the witches who had power to call curses are not all fables. Fear of evil words opens the way for their entrance into one's life and affairs.

The papers at one time published the details of a case in point. A man required a woman to retract in court a curse she had pronounced upon him years before. He owed her a board bill, and she was incensed because he would not pay it. She cursed him with words of ill-health and failure should always follow him. These things came upon him until, in desperation, he paid the bill and had her make a legal written retraction of her words.

Analyze your words. What kind of words are you using? Maybe in your own home you are speaking words of criticism, cross, fault-finding words. Do you think they have no effect? Every word produces a result.

When children are scolded it leaves a certain sting and a feeling of resentment. People who scold wonder why their children leave home, or in some way disobey and disappoint them. The cause may usually be found in the character of words used by the parent.

Children are very susceptible to the power of words. They quickly respond to words of praise. Strong, vigorous words are often necessary to carry them through some crisis of mind and body.

In Isaiah we find these wonderful words: "My words are not void; they are spirit and life, and they shall go forth and accomplish that whereunto they were sent." Then send your word out to speak health, happiness, prosperity and peace. Make yourself into a "Good Word Society."

DRINK HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST

Says you really feel clean, sweet and fresh inside, and are seldom ill.

If you are accustomed to wake up with a coated tongue, foul breath or a dull, dizzy headache; or, if your meals sour and turn into gas and acids, you have a real surprise awaiting you.

To-morrow morning, immediately upon arising, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is intended to first neutralize and then wash out of your stomach, liver, kidneys and thirty feet of intestines all the indigestible waste, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal.

Those subject to sick headaches, backache, bilious attacks, constipation or any form of stomach trouble, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store and begin enjoying this morning inside bath. It is said that men and women who try this become enthusiastic and keep it up daily. It is a splendid health measure for it is more important to keep clean and pure on the inside than on the outside, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing disease, while the bowel pores do.

The principle of bathing inside is not new, as millions of people practice it. Just as hot water and soap cleanse, purify and freshen the skin, so hot water and a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate acts on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Limestone phosphate is an inexpensive white powder and almost tasteless.

Always keep a box of Mustarine handy for Sore Throats, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Neuralgia, Congestion, Pains and Aches of Back or Joints. Use it for Chills and Frosted Feet.

A FINE TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

EASY TO MAKE AND COSTS LITTLE
Catarrh is such an insidious disease and has become so prevalent during the past few years that its treatment should be understood by all.

Science has fully proved that Catarrh is a constitutional disease and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers, salves and nose douches seldom if ever give lasting benefit and often drive the disease further down the air passages and into the lungs.

If you have Catarrh or Catarrhal deafness or head-noises, go to your druggist and get one ounce of Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 2 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved, take one tablespoonful 4 times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head-noises, clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and mucus stop dropping into the throat.

This treatment has a slight tonic effect in cases where the blood has become thin and weak. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every person who wishes to be free from this destructive disease should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

New Oil Well Indicates Discovery of Big Pool

Waynesburg, Pa., Dec. 8.—The Carnegie Natural Gas Company has made a discovery in Greene county that is regarded as important. The well is located near the State line in Springhill township and is about one and a half miles in advance of production. The pay was tapped soon after the well was drilled into the top of the Gordon sand and in the first twenty-four hours produced 200 barrels. As soon as the flow began, drilling was suspended to await pipe line construction.

This location is in what was previously regarded as gas territory, but its showing as an oil producer leads to the opinion that it may be the forerunner of a new pool. It lies west of the old Nineveh field.

The strike has caused much speculation, and many persons are in the field anxious to lease all the property that can be obtained. Tank connections were made to-day and the oil will be stored until the owners determine what the well will do.

Mrs. Beutinger Acquitted in Second Murder Trial

Newark, N. J., Dec. 8.—Mrs. Margaret C. Beutinger was acquitted late yesterday afternoon by a jury which sat in the second trial of an indictment charging her with the murder of her husband, Christopher Beutinger, in their home in Caldwell on July 1 last. She admitted that she shot him and pleaded self-defense, telling on the witness stand a long story of abuses that she suffered at his hands in the ten years of their married life, during which they were divorced and remarried. On the morning she killed him he had attacked her three times in a room which she occupied with two of her five young children after she had told him that she could no longer live with him.

She received the verdict of the jury with comparatively little emotion. As the foreman spoke the words that made her free she dropped her head into her hands and sobbed quietly for a few seconds. Then she arose and embraced her sister and her children, one after the other, sobbing all the time, but seemingly overcome with happiness.
