Korean Leper Kills and Eats Boy as Part of Cure

Seoul, Korea, Dec. 8. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press) — Justifying his act by the Korean superstition that the eating of human flesh is a cure for leprosy, a Korean leper named Sin Yungyeun has confessed to the murder of a five-year-old boy whose mutilated body was discovered in a field in South Cholla province.

those cared for by missionaries in a small hospital near Pusan, they have been left to roam at will and eke out their own living. The superstition as to cannibal cure is very general. Not infrequently cannibalism has been reported from the remote districts.

$120,000 BET ON WAR PAID

Wager Was That Hostilities Would Be Over by October 1, 1916. Amsterdam, Dec. 8. — Whether the war would end before October, 1916, was the subject of a $120,000 bet just liquidated at Amsterdam.

McADOO EXPECTED TO QUIT CABINET

Lane's Transfer Possible as Recognition of California. Washington, Dec. 8.—It is accepted in Washington that William G. McAdoo will resign from the office of Secretary of the Treasury not later than March 4, 1917, when President Wilson's second term will begin.

but the owner refused to sell unless adjacent holdings, valued at $20,000, were taken also. To-day the Board of Managers of the Geographic Society appropriated the $20,000 to make possible the immediate payment of $70,000.

"Too Pretty to Live With," Wife Sues

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 8.—"He said I was too pretty to live with," testified Mrs. Laura Arnold, asking a divorce from Stephen Arnold.

New York, Dec. 8.—Charles W. Harkness, who at the time of his death on May 1 last was said to be the third largest holder of Standard Oil stock, left an estate worth $49,566,895, according to an appraisal filed with the Surrogate here.

The Famous Family Remedy Beecham's Pills. Stop the leak while it is small, and it will never sink the ship. Put out a fire as soon as it starts, and it will never destroy the building. Eradicate a disease before it gets a grip on the body, and it will never become serious.

Other changes in the personnel of the Treasury Department are slated. Andrew J. Peters, assistant secretary, in charge of customs, will retire, and John Burke, of North Dakota, treasurer of the United States, is to be appointed to a federal judgeship.

Giant Sequoia Trees Now in Public Park

Washington, Dec. 8.—Giant Forest, the privately-owned tract of the world's largest trees in the heart of Sequoia National Park, California, is about to pass into the hands of the government through co-operation between the Interior Department and the National Geographic Society.
