PICTURE OF LOCAL BOY ON PRIMARY QUARTERLY
The picture of a young Harrisburger will be very prominent in thousands of Sunday schools in the United States and Canada for the next three months. On the outside cover of the "Primary Quarterly," issued by the American Baptist Publication Society of Philadelphia, is the photograph of Master Melville H. James, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. James, of 1859 Market street. "Billy" James, as the youngster is known, is a pupil in the private school conducted in St. Andrew's parish house, Nineteenth and Market streets. The photograph is one by Deck Lane of Harrisburg and has been shown at several photographic exhibitions.

ASKED TO HEAD ORGANIZATION.
