German Churches to Hold Benefit Bazar in April

Preliminary plans have been made for a big bazar to be held next April, probably in Board of Trade Hall, for the benefit of war sufferers of the Central European powers.

Congregations of German churches and societies of all congregations in this district will assist in the work, arrangements having been outlined at a meeting in Macnnerchor Hall by representatives. A number of booths will be crected and all articles donated will be placed on sale. The funds will be forwarded to Germany through the Red Cross.
