DIAMONDS
LARGEST LINE OF DIAMOND JEWELRY
DIAMONDS FOR EVERYBODY

Claster's has unquestionably earned the distinction of being called the "Diamond Store of Harrisburg." Our stock is conceded to be incomparably the largest, afforded you the widest scope in sizes and values. In selecting our assortments we have thought of everybody—and our system of cutting out all middle profits, by buying in large lots direct from the big importers, enables us to bring the prices within the reach of all.
We positively give you from 10 to 15 per cent. more in size and quality than is usually given elsewhere for the same money.
We do not regard Diamonds as luxuries—neither do we charge "fancy" prices for them. We sell them on the same basis as other merchandise. When you buy at Claster's you have the satisfaction—yes, the assurance that you will have the same fair treatment that you would get in buying any other article. Furthermore, every sale is backed by Claster's guarantee, and Claster's reputation for integrity—strictly maintained for over a quarter of a century.
Diamonds Will Never Go Out of Style—They will always be worth as much if not more than you pay for them.

John Wakefield Booker, Central Honor Boy, Dies

John Wakefield Booker, son of Mrs. John E. Booker, 529 MacLay street, died Saturday evening at his home after a four years' illness, aged 21 years. He was a member of the Market Square Presbyterian Church, an ardent worker in the Christian Endeavor Society, of which he was an officer and twice a representative at State conferences, an interested member of the Sunday school, and violinist in the Sunday school orchestra. He was also one of the younger boys selected to take the offering at church services on Sunday.
During the summer year at Central high school Mr. Booker received the first prize in the McCormick Short Story contest and a prize in the Kunkel Oratorical contest. He was also a member of the school orchestra. Through his excellent standing in his classes he received a scholarship to Lehigh University but was unable to use it because of failing health. Surviving are his mother and two sisters, Mrs. Ross Swepe of Pittsburgh, and Miss Lois K. Booker of this city.
Funeral services will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his home, 529 MacLay street, with the Rev. Dr. George Edward Hawes, pastor of Market Square church, officiating. Burial will be private in the Harrisburg cemetery. The pallbearers include: T. Stewart Blair, Stanley G. Gordon, John McCullough and Garfield McAllister.

SEEK TO PROVE NEGRO COMMITTED TEIPER MURDER

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 11.—John Edward Teiper's trial on a charge of murdering his mother was resumed to-day with the cross-examination of Mrs. Ralph Thorn, a visitor at the Teiper's at Orchard Park home on the evening Mrs. Teiper and her son Frederick were killed.
The defense this week will endeavor to develop the theory that the murders were committed by a drug-crazed or drink-crazed negro.
