

Einstein-Ritter Bridal Last Evening in Carlisle

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT S. EINSTEIN
Carlisle, Pa., Dec. 15.—One of the most important social events of the year was the marriage here last evening of Robert S. Einstein, former newspaperman, now connected with the sales department of the Standard Baking Company at Harrisburg, and Miss Josephine N. Ritter, a daughter of Mrs. H. M. Ritter. The wedding took place in St. John's Episcopal Church and the Rev. Alexander McMillan performed the ceremony. The bride was given away by her brother, Harry Ritter. Miss Margaret Clark, of Pittsburgh, was maid of honor and the bride's attendants were: Mrs. George Barz, of Newport; Mrs. G. A. Strohm and Miss Lillian Foreman, of Carlisle, and Miss Julia Hawthorne, of Valley Forge. The ushers were: E. F. Carroll, G. W. Barnitz, G. A. Strohm and George T. Ritter. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's mother. They will be at home after January 15 at 21 North Hanover street, Carlisle. The bride is a graduate of Metzger College and Walnut Lane School, Germantown. The bridegroom is an alumnus of the Carlisle High school, 1908, and Dickinson College, 1912, and is a member and on the board of trustees of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. He was formerly editor of the Carlisle Evening Herald, later resigning to accept a position with the Harrisburg firm. Guests were present from Pittsburgh, Denver, Colo.; Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Chambersburg, Newport and other places.

TRAINING CLASS BANQUETED BY TEACHER, MRS. SPAYD

The Third Teacher Training Class of Memorial Lutheran Church taught by Mrs. Edith Spayd, 1419 Vernon street, was delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of the teacher. Supper was served to the Misses Ruth Arnold, Elsie Hill, Hope Eyster, Mrs. Harry Bowman, Elsie Spayd, Ella Stoner, Mrs. Spayd. At the close of the supper the class history, the prophecies, the mementos, the essay and class poem were given. Miss Ruth Arnold was the critic of the class. The class then presented Mrs. Spayd with a beautiful lavalliere. Commencement exercises will be held Sunday evening, December 17. Mrs. Mary Durbin of Carlisle, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Basil Tittle of 1906 North Third street. Bernard Schmidt of North Thirtieth street, was a Baltimore visitor yesterday.

Miss Hastings Hostess at Dance in Civic Club

Miss Sarah Fullerton Hastings of Bellefonte, who with her mother, Mrs. Daniel Hartman Hastings, is spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Anderson Hickok, 119 State street will be hostess at an informal dance at the Civic Clubhouse this evening. This is the second dance to be held in the club's hall since its opening on Thanksgiving Day. The guests who will include mostly those of the younger dancing contingent will number about eighty. The Sara Lemer Orchestra will play for the dancers.

ENTERTAINS AT CARDS

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Tittle of 1906 North Third street, were hosts last evening for the Thursday evening Card Club at their home. The guests spent the evening playing 500. Following cards a buffet supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Claster, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Epsendash, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brenner, and Mr. and Mrs. Basil Tittle.

Mrs. B. W. Wright of 1407 Thompson street, spent to-day in Philadelphia.

Gifts For Club Members Drawn From a Grabbag

Members of the U Go I Go Club were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. William Kulp, of 1826 North Sixth street, at an informal holiday party.

The guests spent a pleasant afternoon sewing and chatting. A cleverly appointed supper in a color scheme of red and green suggestive of the Christmas season, with an arrangement of holly and red streamers from the dome to each guest's plate with the name card attached and directed to the basket favors, was served.

Following the supper each one received a gift drawn from a huge grab bag, each of which had been made by the guests at the sewing club during the year.

In attendance were: Miss Mozelle Spangler, Mrs. Herman Bucher, Mrs. Edward L. Spangler, Mrs. E. Levi Tittle, Mrs. John L. Wohlfarth, Mrs. A. Jack Beck, of Summerdale; Mrs. Elmer Epsendash, Mrs. John Barry, Mrs. Julius Bucher and Mrs. Richard Bucher, of Lancaster.

Peggy Alerts Christmas Chat

Such wonderful dinner rings as have been seen at the H. C. Claster Jewelry Shop, 302 Market street, suggest the jewels of some modern Cleopatra. Diamonds both large and small, but all wonderfully white and exquisitely cut, gleam from elaborate platinum settings, and make rings of dazzling beauty. While it is true that the most gorgeous and elaborate rings that anyone could desire are offered in this assortment, I was delighted with some less expensive rings, which I saw there, so cleverly designed, with beautiful platinum settings, that one hardly realizes that small diamonds have been used instead of large ones, yet the amazingly low prices serves as a reminder. In fact I saw some very beautiful rings with genuine diamonds, set in gold for men or women at just $25.00.

MUFFLERS FOR MEN
I used to think that "mere man" had nothing to compensate him for the luxury of furs which women can enjoy, but when I saw the handsome new mufflers of knitted silks shown at the Douthich Store for Men, 304 Market street, I found my decision wavering. For the new scarfs are not only extremely warm and comfortable, but exceedingly good-looking as well. Those in the new gray shades, and the attractive two-toned scarfs make most acceptable gifts which any man would appreciate for Christmas, and all purchases made at Douthich's during the holiday season will be boxed free of charge for gifts and if not entirely satisfactory, any purchase will be cheerfully exchanged either before or after Christmas.

NEW SHADES IN LEATHER
A lovely book of rose colored leather in a beautifully glazed finish and stamped in gold with the word "Daylogue" is one of the new leather offerings shown at Cotter's, 9 N. Market Square, for Christmas giving. These books are similar in purpose to the Line a Day Book, or five-year diaries also shown in the most attractive leathers. Convenient little memo books, address books, and engagement records, are shown in so many pretty styles that they make delightful gifts for either men or women. A dainty little book in violet leather, lettered in gold, "Things to Remember," is charming, while a writing set in a lovely shade of gray, and other books in soft tones of rose, and blue are wonderfully attractive for gifts.

A CHRISTMAS SALAD
A very pretty and original Christmas salad, which will give just the right note of color to harmonize with your Christmas decorations, is suggested by the Studebaker Grocery Store, (now owned by Mr. George Barnes) Second street at the crossing of State. On beds of crisp lettuce leaves are arranged five or six of the delicious Ferndell salad cherries, which are a bright cherry red, and these are stuffed with Philadelphia cream cheese and marinated with French dressing, delicately flavored with a bit of the cherry juice. These cherries are seeded and are especially designed for salad use. They are not so sweet as Maraschino Cherries, and have a flavor more like fresh cherries. All of the ingredients for this salad will be found at Studebaker's.

AN ACCEPTABLE GIFT
To give a friend something that she has admired, is the most thoughtful way of remembering her at Christmas, and all femininity admires the beauty of a good French plume. Foreseeing the demand for plumes for Christmas giving, Astrich's, Fourth

EXCELLENT WORK OF NURSE ASSO.

With Co-operating Societies Helpful in Infantile Paralysis and Typhoid Epidemics

The excellent work done during the past year by the Visiting Nurse Association was heard in reports presented at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the Nurses' Home, Front and Board streets. With co-operating organizations the association largely assisted in freeing the city of the infantile paralysis plague and its preventative measures widely exploited, lessened the seriousness of the typhoid fever epidemic.

Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, the vice-president, presided, and in the report of the directors made by the secretary, Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, attention was called to the fact that "never before has the efficiency of the association been so severely tested as last year and never in the nursing force responded more adequately to the need." Welfare work for babies was begun early in the year and a "Baby Welfare Week" was successfully carried out with the aid of the Associated Aids, Pure Milk Society, Civic Club and Aid to the Visiting Nurses. The fly campaign helped much to save the life of the little ones, as did the crusades for pure milk and pure cream. Mrs. Edward Z. Gross, the treasurer, showed the good financial standing of the society in her statement.

A child welfare nurse is being urged for the county to teach the mothers sanitation and the prevention worth so much than a cure.

During the typhoid epidemic, care was given to 125 patients and 1,106 nursing visits made. The Board of Health pamphlets on the prevention of the disease distributed, the National Preparedness Division furnished disinfectants, and the clothing; the Pure Milk Society supplied mosquito netting, fly paper, scrub brushes, etc., and with the aid of Mrs. Gilbert, the association supervised the cleaning up and clothing of the emergency hospital for convalescent typhoid patients.

Harrisburg is a cleaner, safer city than it was a year ago and the five isolated cases of infantile paralysis here, in a center of travel tells of thorough preventive work. The co-operation and willing support of the city in the work among the crippled and shut-ins has been most beneficial to many cases and mothers of these afflicted ones have been instructed by the superintendent how to adjust the braces and correct the deformities after a return from the hospitals.

Assisting Organizations
Mrs. John E. Fox presented the report of the Pure Milk Society, showing conclusively that without organized effort for the betterment of babies many of these little ones would not have withstood the heat of the summer with its many ills.

The Aid society of which Miss Dora Wickersham Coe is president, and Miss Sarah R. Denehy, secretary, has had five new members added to its roll. They have rolled bandages, made baby clothes, helped make a happy Christmas for inmates of the almshouse and helped several destitute families with clothing and food. The Aid furnished medicines, hot water bottles, a baking oven for rheumatic cases and many little emergency articles for the association.

The officers just re-elected include: Mrs. A. P. L. Dull, president; Mrs. Lyman D. Gilbert, vice-president; Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, secretary; Mrs. Edward Z. Gross, treasurer; directors, Mrs. William E. Bailey, Mrs. B. F. Burns, Mrs. Paul A. Kunkel, Miss Mary Cameron, Mrs. W. Orville Hickok, III; Mrs. Henry B. McCormick, Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted and Mrs. Philip T. Meredith.

Miss Marian Bretz of North Second street, a student at Bryn Mawr College, will arrive Wednesday to spend the Christmas vacation at her home.

VISITORS FROM PITTSBURGH
Mrs. Carrie Messenger and daughter, Mrs. Jose Paese of Pittsburgh, former residents of this city have been called here by the death of Mrs. Messenger's father, William S. Gardner, of 37 Evergreen street.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT
Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Reeser, of Camp Hill, entertained at dinner of twenty covers last evening to announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Mary M. Reeser, to Frank Bolan, of 1506 Regina street, this city. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reeser, of 2325 North Fourth street, and has a wide acquaintance here.
