Five Papers, 4 Banks, Started in Gary, Ind.

Gary, Ind., Dec. 15.—As a result of the steel boom in Gary five more newspapers have been started and two of the banking institutions, the Union Trust & Savings and the National Bank of America, the latter which is headed by William Wirt, of Gary and New York educator, are expected to have a total of one hundred thousand dollars in deposits in Gary.

Child in Drunken Stupor at School

Boston, Mass., Dec. 15.—When Dominic Russo, ten-year-old son of Antonio Russo, 72 Third street, Chelsea, went to school the other morning he acted strangely. His teacher, believing him ill, reported the fact to Miss Adelaide Pierce, principal of the Cary school. Two physicians were called in and pronounced the boy suffering from the effect of liquor. He
