Pleasing Mere Man Is Made Easier at The Globe

Come out to-night — open evenings till Xmas

If a man should write to Santa Claus with the simple faith that his children do, he would probably say something like this:

Dear Old Man:—

For all these years you and I have been filling the stockings of the universe. You have got a heap of glory out of it, and I don't begrudge you a bit; but if it hadn't been for my little check-book they'd have attached your sleigh for the taxes.

The folks are going to give me something this year, of course. They always do. But tell 'em, won't you, that I am not collecting curios.

I Do Not Want-- a new collar for the dog, a box of flowers, a box of candy, a bottle of perfume or some nickel cigars.

But there are things I DO WANT. Some of them I must have. If I get them, they will save me money. Others I should like to have, but wouldn't buy for myself. If somebody would only give them to me, it would be great!

So, will you kindly give this list your attention, old friend:

I Should Like--

some new NECKTIES; nobody ever has quite enough ties (50c to $3.00). And some SILK SHIRTS — every man likes to have a few — $3.50 to $5.00.

A HOUSE COAT would be a big improvement on the old coat I wear around the house, $5.00 to $20.00.

My BATHROBE is rather worn and a new one wouldn't come amiss — after the plunge to wrap one's self in a warm blanket robe is delightful — and no matter who calls you can show him up — I prefer one with silk cord and girdle, $5.00 to $10.00.

Many a night at home I would be more comfortable in a LOUNGING ROBE — I could cast aside my coat and vest, put on my slippers, grab my pipe and book and settle myself for the evening. They are great, $15.00 to $40.00.

A FUR CAP would be fine in the car, $3.50 to $15.00.

It is about time I had a new pair of GLOVES, but unless some one gives them to me I shall probably go on wearing my soiled ones. $1.25 to $3.50 for kid and cape — $5.00 to $12.00 for fur gloves.

Everybody thinks he is harder on SOCKS than anybody else. I am. Some silk socks would certainly come in handy, 50c to $1.50.

I could be made very happy with a nice new TRAVELING BAG OR SUIT CASE, either walrus or grained leather, cowhide or football leather — I'm not particular, $5.00 to $20.00.

My FULL DRESS SUIT is rather shabby — and a little behind the times. I can see myself in one of those smart, conventional Full Dress or Tuxedo Suits — all silk lined — that many of the other fellows are wearing, $25.00 to $40.00.

And if anyone wants to save me a nice bit of money as well as improve my appearance I am a candidate for a NEW SUIT OF CLOTHES or a NEW OVERCOAT (Suit $15.00 to $35.00, Overcoats, $15.00 to $50.00).

Yours hopefully, A MAN.

P. S.—And as you love me, fail not to tell 'em to buy all these things at THE GLOBE.

AND SAY OLD MAN--

While you're filling the stockings for the Boys — THE GLOBE Big Boys' Store is crowded with practical gifts that every real live boy will want. There are elegant Suits — good warm Overcoats — Mackinaws in the brightest plaids imaginable — Reefers — Corduroy Suits — Knee Pants — Waists — Neckwear — Hats — Caps with fur lined pull down — Hockey Caps — in fact there's nothing lacking in assortments and I never saw such values for the money.

DON'T FORGET—I SAID

Penny May Take Over Missouri Pacific Railroad

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 15. — That the Pennsylvania Railroad has acquired or is about to take an ownership interest in the Missouri Pacific was reported yesterday in financial quarters both here and in New York. No confirmation of the report could be obtained. Many refused to give any credence to the story, while some others said it might have a real basis.

If the Pennsylvania Railroad is to become owner of the big Missouri Pacific system, the fact will mark the inauguration of a new policy at Broad Street Station. It would carry the Pennsylvania Railroad influence west of the Mississippi river, beyond which it has heretofore been the fixed policy of the company not to go.

Reorganization of the Missouri Pacific system, on what is regarded by astute financiers as a remarkably strong basis, is now virtually completed. The plan was formulated and has been carried through by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. That New York banking house has the closest fiscal relations with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

SAYS TANLAC IS HIS BEST FRIEND

New Cumberland Man Tells of Wonderful Improvement in His Health

SAYS TANLAC DID IT

"I don't feel like the same man," says Joseph Bomberger, a steelworker, who lives at New Cumberland, Pa., "and I consider Tanlac my best friend in fact the greatest friend that I have had in many a day because of the great improvement it has brought about in my health."

"I had suffered for years from liver trouble, indigestion, heartburn, loss of appetite and extreme nervousness. I had pain in my stomach and the indigestion seemed to be eating me up and my appetite was so poor that I did not feel like eating anything at all."

"I felt so tired all the time that it was an effort for me to do my work, I did not sleep well or get any rest and I was completely worn out."

"I read in the paper about all the people that were regaining their health by taking Tanlac and so I got a bottle and I began using it. The results surprised and delighted me they came so quick. I now feel like a new man altogether."

"I can eat and enjoy a good meal without any bad feelings afterwards, I do not have those attacks of heartburn, and when I get up in the morning I feel like working for 12 hours and rested."

Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic which Mr. Bomberger praises so highly is now being specially introduced at Gorgan's Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.
