When the red flag gives its alluring signal for skating at Wildwood will you be ready with the proper shoes to which to attach your skates? You will find just the right thing at the Walk-Over Boot Shop, 226 Market Street. They offer a genuine silver deerskin boot especially designed for skating with almost no heel at all, and cut on a sturdy last which is ideal for sports wear. This boot too, has the clever style which would make it as suitable in a fashionable city skating rink as it is warm and comfortable for outdoor wear. Other splendld models for skating and sports wear are shown by this shop, in cordo-tan and cheery tan leathers, and in fine calfskin boots, at reasonable prices.

Jeremiah S. Black Is

C. ritically Ill; Widely

Known Penna. Lawyer

Baltimore, Dec. 19.—Jeremiah S. Black, for many years one of the foremost financiers and citizens of York, Pa., is seriously ill at Johns Hopkins Hospital, following an operation several weeks ago.

Dr. J. M. T. Finney, under whose care the patient is, has hopes of recovery, but admits that his patient is "a very sick man." Mr. Black's relatives are in the city and paying daily visits te his bedside.

Mr. Black has long been prominent amon gPennsylvania lawyers. He graduated from Princeton in 1891 after a career marked by high scholarship and athletic ability, notably in football. He was admitted to the bar in 1894 after a professional course at Yark Law School. At once his grasp of legal problems was so profound that he was engaged in a number of important cases before the State Supreme court and in the Federal courts.

For many years he directed the destines of a number of manufacturing companies, but suffered financial reverses and went into voluntary bank-rutcy that all creditors might be treated alike. He is said to have carried at the time life insurance of $500,000 to protect family and ceditors.

PENNSY WINS COAL CAR APPEAL
Washington, Dec. 19. — The decision of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in awarding damages to the Stineman Coal Company against the Pennsylvania Railroad for alleged discrimination in the distribution of coal cars was set aside to-day by the Supreme Court of the United States. The coal company held that it suffered discrimination because in the allotment of coal cars for its use the carrier had included some of the coal company's privately owned cars.

With Newark Musicians

Miss Carolyn Spencer and Miss Hazel Spencer of Newark, N. J., charmingly entertained guests of Mrs. Alfred Robinson this afternoon at her suburban home with vocal and instrumental music and readings. These gifted young girls who are still in their teens have a wide repertoire and give pleasure to their friends both at home and while away visiting by their talents. A group of French songs was followed by several MacDowell numbers and later Miss Hazel Spencer sang old English and carols some of them to simply a violin accompaniment as the Christmas waits do. Thirty guests enJoyed tea after the informal program.
