MISTLETOE KISS HIGHER PRICED

Holly Wreaths Advance, but Old-Fashioned Kind Are Easy to Make

Kissing in the good old time-honored way beneath the mistletoe will doubtless be rare this year. Not because the city's maidens are not as pretty as in former years, but because the price of mistletoe has increased 50 per cent. Shy boys who rely on catching a coy miss in an unguarded moment beneath the mistletoe must first raise funds to bait the trap.

$1,250,000 to Be Cost of Reading Tunnel to End Crossing Danger

Reading, Pa., Dec. 20.—The committee on streets of the Chamber of Commerce made public yesterday its deferred report on the plan to eliminate the Reading railway's grade crossings through the center of the city. Its estimate of the cost is $1,250,000, which includes $450,000 in property damages.

Thousands of "Santa Claus" Letters to Be Taken Care Of

Washington, D. C., Dec. 20.—Thousands of letters addressed to "Santa Claus," appearing in the mails this week, prompted the Post Office Department to-day to remind all postmasters of the rule which requires the delivery of these communications to charitable institutions or reputable persons "who may desire to use recognized and philanthropic purposes."

New York, Dec. 20.—Miss Ruth Law, who established a new American nonstop flying record during her recent flight from Chicago to New York which tried to break the world's record early next year, she announced here to-day, Miss Law will make the flight in a specially designed airplane that now is being built for her.

JOINS MILLIONAIRE CLASS

George C. Boldt, Jr., son of the late builder and manager of the Waldorf-Astoria and Bellevue-Stratford hotels in New York and Philadelphia, has become owner and manager of these great properties and, it is believed, heir to the large fortune of $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 his father left. The young man has been carefully trained for his position. Though he is only twenty-eight years of age he has had a desk near his father's in the Waldorf-Astoria since he graduated from Cornell. He has been trained in every department of hotel work from the cellar to the manager's office.

Select Good Lumber

even for the small jobs You start an endless chain of spending when you use "Cheap" lumber. It "gives" here, wears, there, springs, buckles, warps — and in the end costs you a great deal more than the better lumber. Don't let the price influence you when you buy lumber which you want to last a long time. United Ice & Coal Co. Forster & Cowden St.
