Christmas Giving to Children's Sanatorium Is Feature of Large Holiday Party

The Christmas party of the Department of Labor and Industry scheduled for to-morrow evening in Masonic hall, will be unique in the fact that the guests will not receive presents as usual, but will bring instead gifts of money for the Children's Sanatorium in Atlantic City, where so many Pennsylvania little folks, crippled and tubercular, are cared for. The giving is not at all compulsory and the smallest contribution placed in the box at the door of the ballroom will be acceptable. Whatever funds are collected will go to the sanatorium in the name of the Department of Labor and Industry.

There will be a brief preliminary program to this party, participated in by talent from the department and refreshments will be served prior to dancing to the music of the Sara Lerner orchestra, at 9 o'clock. All the married members are urged to bring the "better half" and the single ones the "best friend." On the general committee of arrangements are Theodore J. Gould, chairman; Glenn W. Moffatt, John A. MacDowell, Mrs. Helen T. Sellers, Harry Myers, Cassius M. Dunn and Harold M. Lippincott.

Annual Academy Dance by Old-Time Candlelight

The decorations of Christmas evening were enhanced by old-time candle light for the annual Academy dance held last evening in the gymnasium of the school. The Sara Lerner orchestra played.

CHRISTMAS CANDY

It is our aim to make better Candies than anyone else. That we have succeeded in making better Candies, Chocolates and Bon-Bons than anyone else has been proven by the fact that we are one of the largest and busiest confectioners in Central Pennsylvania.

Sweet, pure, thick, rich cream, pure granulated sugar, rich chocolate, dainty flavors and other wholesome ingredients used; made under the guiding hand of our skilled candy expert, in our own light, airy sanitary candy factory are the fundamental reasons we have succeeded in making better Candies, Bon-Bons and Chocolates.

Let Our Own Make Candies Tell Their Own Story--All We Ask Is a Trial

To Public School Teachers, Sunday School Teachers, Lodges, Etc., purchasing in quantities we make wholesale prices, which are wonderfully low.

Rings for Men and Women, Lavallieres, Brooches, Earrings, Scarf Pins and Unmounted Stones, any one of which will be mounted as desired $5 to $500

In buying Diamonds and Jewelry for Christmas it is well to bear in mind the reputation of the house behind the purchase. Back of the Rinckenbach Jewelry Store stands a sound reputation for square dealing and honest representation. In Jewels, Jewelry, Silver and Fine Glassware, appearances are oftentimes deceptive so that the unbiased statement of quality by the Jeweler is the only true guarantee of value. In this Uptown Jewelry Store every statement is backed by our personal guarantee and every article is just as represented.

For the holiday season we are showing some really handsome articles of the Jeweler's art.
