McCLAIN STATES BOARD POSITION

Does Not Propose to Be Influenced by Floods of Letters or Petitions

Lieutenant Governor Frank B. McClain in a statement made last night before the State Board of Pardons, declared that the tribunal would not be influenced by floods of letters or attempts to sway its judgment. The board had sat for two hours and a half listening to arguments in behalf of a new hearing for Henry Ward Motter and Ernest Haines, the Jefferson county youths refused clemency last month.

When the board closed Mr. McClain held up a bundle of letters and said that they were part of that he had received as a result of the campaign waged for the two applicants. "Some are applicatory, some advisory, some impertinent and some intimidating," said he "but that general tenor is present and one would think that some people had the idea that trial by jury has been abolished and trial by individual substituted."

The board decisions were as follows: Recommended—Ralph Petrilli, Luzerne, larceny; Alphonse Zannarelli, Fayette, rape; Daniel Erb, Jr., Union, larceny; Ralph Pierce, Chester, larceny.

Refused—Charles L. Mason, Philadelphia, manslaughter; William Crawford, robbery; Joseph Solomon, Lehigh, violation of private bank account; Frank Calvert, Allegheny, larceny; Cema Raul, Indiana, assault and battery; Thomas Knapik, Schuylkill, second degree murder; Angelo Carlini, Bradford, manslaughter; William McBride, Philadelphia, assault with intent to rob; Edward H. Hanley, Philadelphia, conspiracy to enter fraudulent bail and subornation of perjury.

Rehearing Applications held Under Advice—Henry Ward Motter and Ernest Haines, Jefferson, murder; Anton A. Aggerback, Allegheny, fraud.

Rehearing allowed—C. C. Meredith, Allegheny, Abortion.

Rehearing refused—James E. Foye, Philadelphia, robbery; Dominic Peter, Philadelphia, larceny.
