4 DECISIONS IN STATE TAX CASES

Both Judges Kunkel and McCarrell Hand Down Opinions in Bonus Appeals

Two State tax appeal decisions were handed down by both President Judge Kunkel and Additional Law Judge McCarrell of the Dauphin county courts to-day. The question of imposing bonuses of proportion of capital stock employed by any outside corporation within Pennsylvania was raised in each instance.

In the case of the Diamond Rubber Company of New York, the question was whether a bonus imposed on foreign companies by the act of May, 1901, is to be computed upon capital or upon proportion of capital stock employed in this State. President Judge Kunkel holds that "capital" is to be interpreted to mean property and assets and not capital stock. The State, therefore, is given judgment in the sum of $25,422. A similar decision was made by Judge Kunkel in the case of the Imperial Pneumatic Tire Company, of New York, and the State is awarded $18,444.

"Can't Cut Off My Leg" Says Railroad Engineer

"I am a railroad engineer; about 20 years ago my leg was seriously injured in an accident out West. Upon my refusing to allow the doctor to amputate it I was told it would be impossible to heal the wound. I have tried all kinds of salves and had many doctors in the past 20 years, but to no avail. Finally I resolved to use PETERSON'S OINTMENT on my leg. You cannot imagine my astonishment when I found it was doing what over 100 things had failed to do. My leg is now completely cured."—Gus Hauff, 799 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"It makes me feel proud to be able to produce an ointment like that," says Peterson. "Not only do I guarantee Peterson's Ointment for old sores and wounds, but for Eczema, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Itching Skin and Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles, and I put up a big box for 25 cents, a price all can afford to pay and money back from your druggist if not satisfied."—Advertisement.

DANIELS SLATED TO BE APPRAISER

County Commissioners, Says Rumor, Will Name Berrysburg Man For Job

Morris Daniels, a justice of the peace and last known resident of Berrysburg, is slated for the appointment of appraiser for the Dauphin county during 1917, according to courthouse gossip here. Just when the selection will be made by the county commissioners is a matter of conjecture, although it is generally expected that if the choice is not made at to-morrow's meeting, the appointment will go over until early in the new year. The office is worth from $2,000 to $2,500 a year, although from this sum the salary of an assistant has to be paid. As a rule the appraiser selects his assistant from the city in order that the county and city districts can be covered simultaneously.

Became His "Toes Are Almost Froze" He Wants Felt Boots For Xmas

Written in a boyish scrawl on a bit of wrapping paper, the following pathetic little appeal has been received by John Yates, secretary of the Associated Aids Society. The Telegraph, knowing that such a deserving appeal never falls on deaf ears, publishes the letter:

Paxinos, Pa., Dec. 20, 1916. Dear Santa Claus. We are very poor, my papa was sick a long time and he can not work so I am telling you what I would like for Christmas day. First of all I want a pair of felt boots because my toes are almost froze when I go to school, I don't know the size I wear but it won't hurt if they are big and then I want a cap with ear laps. And O yes Santa I forgot I have 2 sisters and one brother smaller than me and please do not forget them. I want Santa, I would like some nuts and candy too, but I think I am asking too many things, so dear Santa please do not bring me a pair of boots and a warm cap for sure. I live at Paxinos, Pa., route 2, my name is Joseph Drobnick and I am 11 years old, I will watch for you dear Santa so you won't have no trouble to find me. your loving child, and please remember that I was a very good boy.

Plan Memorial Service For Dr. W. W. Gilchrist

Memorial services for Dr. W. W. Gilchrist, of Philadelphia, the famous composer, and former director of the Harrisburg Choral Society, who died yesterday at Easton, will be held early in January, in Zion Lutheran Church. Plans were discussed late this afternoon at a meeting of the Harrisburg Choral Society, and such members of the choral society who shall volunteer their services. Compositions by Dr. Gilchrist will be sung. The services will be held on a Sunday morning, and open to the public.

The plans for the memorial services were submitted by Prof. E. J. Decevee, head of the Harrisburg Conservatory of Music, who has been identified with the local choral society since its organization. The participants will be the members of the Zion Lutheran Church choir, and such members of the choral society who shall volunteer their services. Compositions by Dr. Gilchrist will be sung. The services will be held on a Sunday morning, and open to the public.

The question of whether the Harrisburg Choral Society shall continue its activities was discussed at the meeting this afternoon. A movement has been started in Philadelphia by members of the Musical Art Club, embracing Philadelphia's most prominent musicians for the erection of a medalion in the Academy of Music in memory of Dr. Gilchrist.

Wood's Sounsel Rapped For Dallying With Courts

In revoking its order of last Monday whereby Joseph H. Thompson, Beaver, was appointed receiver for the Pension Mutual Life Insurance Company, Pittsburgh, Federal Judge Charles P. Orr yesterday severely criticised the action of counsel for the company, in asking for the receivership after the matter had been placed before the Dauphin courts.

"This court should not have attempted to take this matter out of the hands of the Dauphin county courts and would not have done so if it had been fully informed."

DR. PHILLIPS IS SANTA'S DEPUTY

Mont Alto Children to Have Real Christmas Celebration For First Time

Just because Old Mr. S. Claus could not manage his schedule in such a way as to personally visit a certain children's ward in the pine-clad slopes of Mont Alto, doesn't necessarily mean that he's forgotten the 150 odd little folks whose Yuletide holidays "Fever-never" overshadowed by the spreading wings of the "white plague." Not at all. For you dear Santa, do you want to be a Santa Claus to the 150 youngsters at Mont Alto tuberculosis sanatorium—through the activities of Dr. Phillips. Which is a lot more wonderful when you realize that thirty of these little folks are Dauphin youngsters.

Dr. Phillips has acted as a sort of a deputy Santa pretty well thus far, even if he had to substitute his gasoline chugabug for the reindeer.

For the first time, Christmas this year will mean a real celebration with oranges, candies and nuts and things for the 150 youngsters at Mont Alto tuberculosis sanatorium—through the activities of Dr. Phillips. Which is a lot more wonderful when you realize that thirty of these little folks are Dauphin youngsters.

But Dr. Phillips didn't stop there. Some 180 youngsters who undergo treatment daily at the local dispensary of course, will have their big tree Saturday. Candles and toys will be provided by the dispensary staff and nurses and these firms are among those who will contribute the toys: Gies, Pomeroy and Stewart, Bowman and Co., Kaufman's Underselling Store, Burns and Co., Bogar's Sporting Goods Store, the two Five and Ten stores, and the Twenty-Five Cent Imperial.

The teachers in charge of the 85 open-air children who will come to Tech to-morrow will be in charge of Miss Mary Snyder and Miss Florence Hartman. The Lochiel building; the pupils of the Susquehanna schools will be in the keeping of Miss Marian C. Williams and Miss Martha Fox. The programs are printed in red and green, and are in keeping with the color schemes of the Yuletide season. Netherlands Believe an Agreement to Protect Against Wars Likely

The Hague, via London, Dec. 21.—The peace resolution passed by the Netherlands antiwar council, and which has been sent to all the belligerent governments declares that the chief war aim of all the fighting nations being agreement to right instead of themselves and the rest of the world against future wars an understanding is not wholly impossible. It calls attention to the fact that the leading statesmen of Britain, France and Germany have repeatedly avowed a willingness to join an international peace league and that thus a safeguard is obtainable that right instead of might may govern international relations in the future and Europe be delivered from militarism.

Condemn French Bill to Confiscate by Simple Decree

Paris, Dec. 20.—The bill empowering the government to take by simple decree whatever measures it considers necessary in the interest of national defense was strongly condemned in a resolution passed to-night at a joint meeting of the newly formed national action groups of the Chamber of Deputies and Senate, in which most of the government critics belong. The resolution says the groups are ready to give the government every facility for the active conduct of the war, but on two conditions, first, that the government use energetically and methodically the means it already has before asking for new ones, and second, that the new ones which it asks for shall have previously been subjected to proper deliberations and be suitable for the purposes for which they are asked.

British Comment Indicates Readiness to Mobilize

London, Dec. 21. — While the morning papers give much prominence to American and other foreign comment on Premier Lloyd George's speech, the question of peace was sidetracked to-day for the discussion of the projected national service. The comment everywhere indicates the readiness of the nation to mobilize. The description of Roland E. Prothro, president of the Board of Agriculture
