PREACHER STUCK IN SNOWDRIFT

Recent Night at Farmhouse Between Lisburn and New Cumberland

PARSONAGE IS DAMAGED

Home of Methodist Episcopal Minister at Lewisberry Being Repaired After Fire

Lewisberry, Pa., Dec. 23. — Russell R. Kohr, of New Cumberland, and a student of Dickinson College, Carlisle, who was to have preached Saturday night at Lisburn, got stuck in a snow drift with his auto and was compelled to spend the night at a farmhouse three miles from Lisburn. Sunday morning he borrowed a team and drove to this place, where he preached at 10:30 o'clock. After being the guest of his uncle, L. S. Reiff, he returned home Sunday afternoon. The Methodist Episcopal parsonage, which was badly damaged by fire on Saturday while the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. L. Elbert Wilson and baby were absent from home, will not be ready for occupancy for some time. The Rev. Mr. Wilson's furniture was carried into Jacob Petrov's house. His sermons were all burned but a few of seven years' work. Mrs. Wilson and baby left on Tuesday, and spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fuchner, of Hazleton. The pastor is spending the week with relatives in New York City and Hazleton. — Paul Schubauer, a student at a business college, Philadelphia, will spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Schubauer. Professor Mark H. Schleicher, teacher of the high school, will spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Marjorie Ensminger is spending the holidays at Philadelphia at the home of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Purvis, as the guest of their daughter, Miss Helen H. Purvis.

MOTHER'S STORY OF BABY'S HEALMENT WITH CUTICURA

'When my baby was four months old, a rash appeared on her arms, shoulder, back, chest, and limbs, and also her face. It was pronounced eczema, and she was treated, but it seemed worse. The flesh became as red as flame, and burned, and at times opened and ran together, making scales, and she was very cross and fretful. She would toss around and someone was compelled to hold her all the time during the day, and I had to get up three or four times during one night with her. Then I sent for a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. They almost instantly stopped the itching, and the eczema disappeared, and in less than a month's time she was healed.' (Signed) Mrs. Lewis Seaks, R. F. D. 3, Stewartstown, Pa., Mar. 10, 1916. Can you read this story without being moved? The suffering of the child, the self-sacrifice of the mother in care of it and the wonderful healing of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Truly peace falls on many distracted households when Cuticura enters. Too often it is cause for regret that neglect of first symptoms, use of strongly medicated soaps and coarse ointments have done much to aggravate. Mothers should think of this. Buy Cuticura and feel safe. Samples by mail for the asking. Address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston." Sold throughout the world.
