MANSION EVENTS ARE CANCELLED

Death of Governor's Father Interferes With Scheduled Pleasures of Week

Everyone hoped that this, the first Christmas Eve in the Executive Mansion would be one of the happiest of her life, and everything pointed that way until the Governor's father died suddenly Sunday evening and all festivities had to be cancelled.

Much sympathy is expressed for the Governor and Mrs. Brumbaugh who leave to-morrow morning for the funeral in Huntingdon county.

Callers at the Executive Mansion Saturday and Sunday were delighted to view the magnificent Christmas gifts of flowers sent to Mrs. Brumbaugh, from all over the country. The rarest of orchids, lilacs, roses of every variety and many of the smaller flowers both growing and in bouquets were showered on the "first lady of Pennsylvania," who has a wide circle of friends who delight to remember her on these festive days.

The dinner to the Chinese Minister Koo this evening, a dinner to ex-President Taft Thursday evening followed by a reception to the Teachers' Association and the New Year's "Open House" at the Mansion have all been cancelled.
