

SEALER TO TALK BREAD PROBLEMS WITH CIVIC CLUB

Mrs. William Henderson, President, Invited to Speak on January 15

"BUY HEAVIEST LOAF!" Official Advice Theme For Discussion Relative to Possible Price Advance

City Sealer Harry D. Reel has been invited by Mrs. William Henderson, president of the Civic club, to discuss Harrisburg's bread problem at the monthly meeting of the organization January 15.

"Insist upon having your bread weighed and then buy the heaviest loaf!"

That little slogan which the sealer himself coined in his advice to housekeepers and others who do the family buying, will be the theme of his talk before the city's progressive organization of women.

City Sealer Reel's "advice" to the people via the Telegraph last evening aroused all kinds of favorable comment and the campaign which the head of the bureau of weights and measures has adopted to forestall any defense to support the talked-of raise in price or reduction of the weight per loaf early in the new year, was widely commended.

"Weigh Your Bread" That the Civic club proposes to interest itself in the "weigh your bread" movement was explained to-day by Mrs. Henderson. For more than an hour I talked this matter over with Mr. Reel and as president of the Civic club I invited him to speak at the next meeting of the club, January 15.

"To my mind this is surely a matter upon which the people should be fully advised. Public sentiment, I've always thought, can do a great deal when once aroused."

Their "Money's Worth" "Weigh the bread before you purchase and then purchase the heaviest loaf" is Mr. Reel's advice. That is the surest way to bring about a solution of this problem. People wouldn't object to paying six cents for a loaf of bread if they were getting a loaf that weighs sixteen cents.

"I have asked Mr. Reel to talk to us on the subject and if possible I'd like to have Mr. Sweeney, the chief of the State bureau, and Mr. Boyer, the county sealer, there, too.

Personally I'm tremendously interested in this matter and I intend to do all I can to advance the move. I mean to weigh your bread before you purchase — and then purchase the heaviest loaf!"
