at some length on the method by which the State authorities took over the properties in the extension zone without properly compensating the property holders. The State, pointed out Mr. Bergner, offered the property owner a price, and if he didn't accept the State threatened to lower the value of the property by tearing down other buildings round about so that the owner would stand as little chance as possible in a condemnation court. In defense of the remonstrances Mr. Saussaman pointed out that all the holders of the papers had been instructed to obtain names, addresses, etc., of signers, in exact compliance.

With the requirements of the law, some signatures were attached, he admitted, by someone in a home who signed up for everybody in the family the because they were so enthusiastic in their belief that their relatives were object to the transfer. Mr. Saussaman intimated that some labor would be involved in looking up all the signers and Mr. Bergner smilingly added that "Of course it would mean work, but then there might not be so many signers."

"But," he added, "what is the biblical injunction, 'By the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat,' isn't it?"

"That isn't exactly applicable, is it?" sravely inquired Presidem Judge Kunkel. "We are not considering what we shall eat, but—what we shall drink."

Dr. Hugh C. Curran Dies While on Visit at Carlisle

Carlisle, Pa., Jan. 4. — Dr. Hugh C. Curran, father of Mrs. J. H. Morgan, wife of the president of Dickinson College, died here this morning while on a visit to his daughter. He was a teacher at Tome Institute, Port Deposit, Md. Dr. Curran was born at Margaretta, York county, Pa., in 1840, and was educated at Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, and Dickinson College, Carlisle. He was a member of the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, and taught in normal schools. He is survived by his wife and taughter. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

City Health Department Will Be Reorganized

City health department onicials are planning a special reorganization meeting to be held to-night or to-morrow morning. Action will probably be taken by the bureau, to determine what steps Dr. J. M. J. Raunick, city health officer, shall take in handling the garbage and ash collections as authorized last Saturday by council.

The special meeting is necessary at this time, according to Dr. Raunick, as he wants all members of the bureau present when action is taken. Captain Edward H. Schell, one of the bureau members, must leave to-morrow afternoon to return to his command in the Eighth Regiment, Pennsylvania Infantry.

Health Officer Raunick said to-day that so far no city collectors are working, and that people should not pay any of the men working, unless private contracts had been made.

onference on changes in the gam aws and the codification of existing

A suggested codification as arranged the commission and a number of proposed amendments will be presented to the sportsmen for discussion. The action taken in the conference

The action taken in the conference will probably be presented to the Legislature with the request that it be enacted into law.

Sessions will be held this evening, to-morrow and probably Saturday. Joseph Kalbfus, secretary of the Game Commission, favors an open season of one month for game birds during November and a longer period for rabbits, beginning November 1 and closing December 31.

The Game Commission held a special meeting this morning to complete the program to be presented to the sportsmen at the conference.

J. Wm. Morgan Promoted. — J. William Morgan, deputy in the office of the State Fire Marshal, was to-day promoted to be chief deputy and his salary increased from $1.800 to $3,000 a year. The appointment was on merit, Mr. Morgan having made an excellent record since his connection with the department. He is a Philadelphia man, but resides in this city.

More Livestock Marketed at Chicago Than Ever Before

Chicago, Jan. 4. - More livestock was marketed in Chicago in 1916 than in any previous year, according to the annual report of the Chicago Union Stockyards, made public to-day. The report asserts that the marketing during the year amounted to $509,620, ing the year amounted to $509,620,023. The year's total marketings were $138,631,867 greater than in 1915 and more than $100,000,000 in excess of the record of the banner year of 1913. New price records in all classes of livestock were set during the year, the report stated. Fat beef steers averaged $9.50 a hundred pounds: calves $10.85; hogs $9.60; sh.eep, $7.85 and lambs $10.75. Horses averaged in price $181 per head.

War demand was an important factor in the 1916 cattle market, according to the report, packers having contracts with practically every warring European country, which they were unable to meet fully because of shipping conditions.

Threatens to Get President Wilson on "Aldy's" Trail

"Do you know President Wilson eh? Well, he my fren, and if I tella him, he fixata you and geta me my suitcase!" That was the threat Jesu Abed, a Syrian, heaped upon the head of Alderman DeShong yesterday after-of Alderman DeShong yesterday afternoon in the police court.

It seems that once upon a time, Jesu Abed and Jim Galillee were the best of friends, such as only peddlers can be, but when they tried to work the tricks of the trade upon one another, Jesu and Jim dissolved partnership.
Jesu claims that Jim took his suitcase.
On Jesu's information his old partner was arrested. After listening to the meaningless rabble of the first shaking Syrians the alderman decided that ing Syrians the alderman decided that it was a case for civil action and an interpreter. It was then the curses of the departed fathers of Abraham were called down upon the police court.

children able to support them nor an income of more than $200 a year.

The Governor further recommended the extension of military training and the study of military history in the public schools and recognition of voluntary military training associations; abolition of capital punishment and legislation to prevent the use of habit-forming drugs.

Many Legislatures Hear Recommendations For Constructive Laws

Augusta, Me., Jan. 4.—As a means toward better enforcement of the prohibitory law, Governor Carl E. Millken in his inaugural address to the Legislature to-day by Governor Recourse, Woodbridge N. Ferris, Governor Sleeper is a Republican; Ferris, who served two years and was not a candidate for re-election, is a Democrat.

Peace Talk and Car Shortage Are Influential in U. S. Commercial Life

Washington, Jan. 4. — Peace talk and the car shortage apparently are recorded as influential factors in the antion's commercial life during the past month in reports of general business conditions from Federal Reserve agents made public to-day by the Federal Reserve Board. Business activity shows little diminution, the board's summary states, and in the East, South and Middlewest the record volume of business remains at its high level.

The prompt and neighborly assistance rendered by the citizens of Penbrook in helping to save the United States mail and the equipment of the post office during the fire at the Wolf apartments was most earnestly appreciated, and I take this means of extending thanks to all who rendered service in time of need.

R. W. HOOVER, Postmaster, Adv. Penbrook, Penna.
