Take Three Out of Four Contests From Schuylkill Division Stars

Pennsylvania Railroad athletes of this city last night captured three out of four contests in the elimination sys-The local basketball five, representing the Philadelphia division, lost to Schuylkill division tossers, score 26 to 16.

26 to 16.

In bowling the local team won over Schuylkill, score 2693 to 2371; won in quoit contest, scores 73 to 53, and were victorious in the billiard match, scores 290 to 125. Colestock was a big star in basketball in the cage game with Gough.

Jones Star Bowler

Jones figured in the bowling contest on the Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association alleys and Ray Meck and Thomas Hoffman were billiard stars. Shamper and Pryor lost but one quoit match in five with the Schuylkill division players, Ramsey and Rariden. In the team matches the Harrisburg team won the first and third contests by scores of 15 to 3 and 15 to 9, and dropped the second match by a score of 15 to 13. In two straight matches.

Dunh, the authority on lighters and ring battle booster, gives the following to prove it:

"Fred Fulton, who is to make his first appearance in the east this sea-ton, at the Broadway Sporting Club analyses of the Cowler, comes of a remarkable amily. His father, deceased, weighed also pounds and was 6 feet 4½ inches in height. His mother, living, weighs 180 pounds and was 6 feet 41½ inches in height. Tech High Team Plays Lebanon Tossers Tonight; Starts Scholastic Season

Technical High School's basketball quintet will usher in the opening of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic League this evening. Lebanon High School will be the opponent. The contest will be the first of the series to be played during the winter and will be staged at the City Grays Armory. Tech High School has been whipped into good shape by Coach Miller for this game. The line-up for the league contest will be as follows:

Tech. Lebanon.

State Tossers Show Form; Take Game From Dartmouth

State College, Jan. 5. — Penn State opened athletic relations with Lartmouth to-night by defeating the New Englanders, 44 to 22. It was the second game of the season for the State boys, who played wonderful ball, especially on the offensive.

Captain Walton, Adams and Blakslee starred in this department of the game, each registering four field goals. Wilson, who played guard, put up a great defensive game.

The State play was characterized by short, snappy passing and accurate shooting, while the visitors lost a great humber of points, due to the lack of team work. Rall played a good game for Dartmouth.

Players Await Orders to Sign Up For Next Season

New York, Jan. 5.—Notwithstanding the fact that most of the major league clubs already have sent out their 1917 contracts, the players who are members of the players' fraternity have not yet received permission from David Fults, its president, to sign the new agreements. Fultz said to-day there was no change in the fraternity's situation.

wathon "Our relations with organized base-ball are just the same as when we made requests on the National Association in New Orleans last November," he declared. "We have not heard from either the National Association or the national commission in reply to the requests."

Fults claims to have in his possession pledges from all fraternity players not to sign until instructed to do so by the officers of the fraternity.

Basketball fans from all over Harrisburg and vicinity will turn out tonight to give the Yale varsity five a glad hand. This classic basketball contest is the beginning of a series of high class collegiate offerings.

Trap shooting is booming. Of the total of 4,668 trapshooting clubs in the world 4,331 are located in the United States. This shows a record increase. Ten years ago there were not 500 clubs.

The Fultons are giants. John P. Dunn, the authority on fighters and ring battle booster, gives the following to prove it:

"Ike" McCord, who is a free agent may play on a Blue Ridge team. He are given the world and get a New York State League berth, but the local star has interests in this city that must be looked after, and he will be able to get home more frequently from the Blue Ridge circuit. Both Hagerstown and Chambersburg want McCord.

Special Privileges

When the break came and all Europe was plunged into war he used his influence with the French authorities and was allowed the privileges of duly assigned correspondent, although he was not at that time connected with any paper; in fact, preferred to do free lance work in order that he might be free to write when he pleased and what he pleased concerning the great struggle as viewed from an American citizen's standpoint.

Since the election he has resumed his lecturing and is now on a tour throughout the Southern States delivering his lecture, "The American Civilian on the Firing Line." The lecture promises much of interest to all, especially the young men of military age, and it is the hope of the local rifle club that as many as possible of the young men of Central and Technical high schools will attend.

Hotel Here; Reeat the Performance in Carlisle

Because of a gentle bit of Christmas fun, Joseph Alberts, 1207 North Second street, and Joseph Sweeney. 521 North street, were committed to jail to await a hearing.

Alberts and Sweeney celebrated Christmas eve at the Hotel Columbus, the police say, by upsetting the tables, breaking the glassware and terrifying the diners. When they were finally thrown from the hotel they vented their spite by gently heaving a brick through the double glass doors that struck Joseph Sweeney, a waiter, it is alleged. The lust for celebration still strong upon them they took a taxi to Carlisle where they repeated the former performance at the Mansion House, breaking glass and furniture, according to the authorities.
