Chronology of Colbert Murder

uves Tate. "the case is virtually over. Lewis' quick suicide fits in with all the circumstances connected with the case and there is no question that Lewis was the man that did the kill-ing."

NOT SEE MURDER

Saturday, December 30, 10.30 p. m. The body of Maizie Agnes Colbert, known as Mrs. Grace Roberts, found brutally murdered in her bedroom in the Wilton Apartmenas, on the northeast corner of Fifteenth and Poplar streets, by her sister, Miss Bessie Colbert, of 40 North Edgewood street. She was familiar about town as a model and frequenter of cafes.

Sunday, December 31, 3 a. m. Detective Lieutenant Emmanuel announces that crime was committed by a man who beat the woman to death, tied a black silk stocking around her throat and fled after discarding a bloody shirt and washing his face and hands.

Sunday, December 21, 10 p. m. Police admit that they had prospessed but little in tracing the murderer. Had examined several persons and were running down all clues leading to intimates of the dead woman.

Monday, January 1, 10 p. m.

$40,000 are expected from labor unions throughout the country toward the expenses of the defense of Thomas J. Mooney, his wife, Rena Mooney, Israel Wineberg and Edward Nolan, charged with murder in connection with the preparedness day bomb explosion here last July, when ten persons were killed and forty injured, according to a statement to-day by Robert Minor, treasurer of the International Workers' Defense League, which is financing their defense.

Warren K. Billings already has been convicted of murder in connection with the explosion and Mooney now is on trial, the selection of a jury in Superior Court here having begun two days ago.
