

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND DON'T KNOW IT

Weak and unhealthy kidneys cause so much sickness and suffering and when through neglect or other causes, kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results may be expected.

Your other organs may need attention—but your kidneys should have attention first because their work is most important.

If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your sickness or run down condition commence taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because if it proves to be the remedy you need and your kidneys begin to improve they will help all the other organs to health.

A Trial will Convince Anyone.

Thousands of people have testified that the mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is soon realized and that it stands the highest for its remarkable results in the most distressing cases.

Symptoms of Kidney Trouble.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you suffer from annoying bladder troubles, frequently passing water night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brick-dust or sediment, headache, backache, lame back, dizziness, poor digestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, skin eruptions from bad blood, neuralgia, rheumatism, lumbago, bloating, irritability, worn-out feeling, lack of ambition, may be loss of flesh or sallow complexion, kidney trouble in its worst form may be stealing upon you.

Swamp-Root is Pleasant to Take.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at all drug stores.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are among the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patients, who usually content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample size bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. GETS MORE MAIL THAN WILSON

Spillman is the chief of the Office of Farm Management in the Bureau of Plant Industry at the Department of Agriculture. It all sounds inconspicuous enough. But Spillman gets more mail than the President of the United States. His province is to answer questions. He knows more than any other man in the country about how to make the farm pay. And so he doesn't run a farm, but tells others how. There may be others who know just as much as Spillman about how to run a farm in a given locality, but Spillman knows just what to do in any part of the whole United States. Take a map of the whole country, shut your eyes, and jab a pin into any place on the map at random. If you happen to stick it into farm land, Spillman could go there, take charge of the place, and make it pay a profit.

NATIONAL GUARD OF PENNA. BEST

Troops Have Demonstrated Their Superiority Along Border

Camp Stewart, Texas.—Demobilization of the Pennsylvania Division as the seventh tactical unit of the United States Army, with separation of State and Federal military authority, begins here with the advent of the new year.

More than half a year of active border service, which began with the call by the President in June, is thus brought to honorable culmination by the Pennsylvania troops of the pacification expedition.

From every comparative viewpoint, professional observers say the Keystone State militiamen, under Major-General Charles M. Clement, have demonstrated that the National Guard of Pennsylvania is the best state military organization in the United States.

Philadelphia, with 4,000 of the 16,000 Pennsylvania troops, of whom 2,000 in the First and Third Regiments and auxiliary troops, and 500 in the First Cavalry and other organizations, are already home, has gained new laurels.

Approximately 2,000 Philadelphia troops in the Second Pennsylvania Field Artillery, recently converted from infantry, and one of the oldest and proudest military organizations in the United States, and in the Sixth and Eighth Infantry, remain here on duty.

General George Bell, Jr., regular army commander of the military zone from Central Texas to Yuma, Ariz., will be in direct command of the remaining Philadelphia troops, and the Third Pennsylvania Artillery, Sixth, Eighth and Thirteenth Infantry, General Christopher T. O'Neill.

Pennsylvania troops to start home, totaling approximately 4,000 men, are the Fourth and Sixteenth Infantry, the First Cavalry and battalions of signal troops, Field Hospital No. 1, Ambulance Company No. 1, field bakery, Second Brigade headquarters under Brigadier-General A. J. Logan and division headquarters under Major-General Clement.

The Fourth Infantry, Colonel Edward C. Shannon, whose headquarters are at Columbus, Miss., leaves Saturday. The staff consists of Lieutenant-Colonel M. L. Case, Majors F. D. Beary, P. E. Shedy and Quintin O. Reitzel, Captains C. Ruck and Chaplain H. S. Dollman. The unit goes to Harrisburg and the different companies from there to Columbia, Allentown, Reading, Bethlehem, Hamburg, Pottsville, Pine Grove, Lebanon, Lancaster and Easton.

The First Cavalry is to leave January 9, going to Pittsburgh, where, it is understood, a street parade is to be held, and being detailed there for the final leg of the journey home. Colonel John P. Wood, of Philadelphia, is in command. His staff consists of Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel R. Gleaves, United States Army; Majors W. W. Fetzer, J. V. Cunningham and C. W. Edmonds, Captains J. G. Whiteside, H. M. Coffin, C. W. Lloyd, T. W. Andrews and Robert and Chaplain H. S. Dollman, and Lieutenants R. Y. Gerhart, E. Hitzeroth, W. H. Dithrich, Jesse Williamson and Walter E. Drumheller.

Four Troops Go to Philadelphia. Four of the twelve troops, the First and Second City and Troops A and G, go from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia, the respective commanders being Captain J. F. McFadden, Captain J. W. William Good, Captain Arthur C. Colahan and Captain Thomas B. Myers. The four troops may parade in Philadelphia, after which they go to different armories. The First City Troop armory is at Twenty-third and Ransstead streets; Second City and Troop A, at 330 South Third-second street, and Troop G, at 1622 Jefferson street.

The Sheridan Troop goes to Tyrone, Governor's Troop to Harrisburg, Troop F to New Castle, Troop H to Pittsburgh, Troop I to Sunbury, Troop K to Lock Haven, Troop L to Bellefonte and Troop M to Lewisburg.

The field battalion of signal troops, Major Frederick G. Miller, goes to Pittsburgh; Captain Thomas P. Reese, in command of the wire company, and Captain James M. Brown, of the radio company. They leave January 9. Field Hospital No. 1 and Ambulance Company No. 1, jointly under Major Arthur P. Schaefer, with Captain W. J. Sterrett in command of the ambulance company, also go to Pittsburgh, but on January 11.

Brigadier-General A. J. Logan, who long ago lost two of his three regiments, the Tenth and Eighteenth, by recalls home, and who has also seen the remaining regiment, the Sixteenth, hear the same summons, is another unit that goes to Pittsburgh. He leaves with his staff when the Sixteenth goes.

Field Bakery Leaves January 11. The field bakery, an innovation in Pennsylvania since the troops came to the border, under Captain Frank L. Mueller, of Philadelphia, goes home January 11. The unit is made up of militiamen from many different commands and has turned out approximately 3,000,000 pounds of bread here.

This outfit was not included in the recent recall of militiamen, but under protest by the commander and upon recommendation of General Clement was added to the list. Captain Mueller has had thirty-six ovens working here night and day for five months and the output of the bakery has not only supplied all Pennsylvania troops and the North Carolina contingent of the division, but has made bread for the troops of many other state and regular forces.

The Pennsylvania troops to remain here are the Second and Third Artillery and the Sixth, Eighth and Thirteenth Infantry, the Second Artillery, of Philadelphia, under Colonel Hamerilton D. Turner, and the Third, of Wilkes-Barre, under Colonel Asher Miner. The infantry will remain as a brigade under General O'Neill, with the Sixth directly under Colonel Thomas Biddle Ellis, of Philadelphia; the Eighth, under Colonel Maurice E. Finney, of Harrisburg, and the Thirteenth, under Colonel Ezra H. Ripple, of Scranton.

The Sixth Regiment is virtually a Philadelphia unit, the staff consisting of Lieutenant-Colonel I. Price Ewing, Majors Abel M. MacReynolds, Louis L. Tafel and William S. Bird, Captain W. R. Roe and Chaplain Robert M. Green. Regimental headquarters are at Forty-first street and Mantua avenue, Philadelphia, and the different companies are assembled from Pottstown, Sharon Hill, Chester, Quakertown, Norristown, Doylestown, Pottsville, West Chester and the city proper.
