LOCAL STARS TO MEET TONIGHT

"Fat" Phillips to Oppose Captain Loomis; Former High School Stars

Annville, Pa., Jan. 10.—The scholastic basketball season opens to-night in Lebanon Valley, when the varsity five meets the Temple University quintet from Philadelphia. Although the Lebanon Valley boys have already played two games with Lebanon Y. M. C. A., losing one and winning the other, these are considered merely try-out games and are not counted in the season's tally. A good game is expected, since Temple has not been defeated this season, but has won from Ursinus and several college teams of this size.

HERMAN WINS BANTAM CLAIM

Referee Rocap Decides Southern Boy Has Best of 20-Round Contest

New Orleans, Jan. 10.—Referee Bill Rocap, of Philadelphia, last night awarded to Pete Herman, of New Orleans, the decision in a 20-round bout with Kid Williams, of Baltimore. This decision gives Herman a claim for the bantam weight title.

Williams had the best of the battle during eleven rounds. His cleverness and ability to stand up under punishment won him much favor.

WILLIAMSPORT IS WINNER

Williamsport's Big Five last night handed a defeat to the local Independents; score, 37 to 28. The local quintet lacked the Saturday night stars in the line-up. Harrisburg put up a hard battle and the goal shooting was a big feature of the game. Yoder was a star. The line-up and summary:
