Murray, Ky., Jan. 11.—In line with his announced intention to give the mob "a chance to lynch the governor of Kentucky first" Governor A. O. Murray, Ky., Jan. 11.—In line with his announced intention to give the mob "a chance to lynch the governor of Kentucky first," Governor A. O. Stanley arrived here early to-day and took charge of the situation growing out of the threats made yesterday by a mob against the lives of Circuit Judge Charles Bush and Commonwealth Attorney Denny Smith.

To Protect Court With Body "I have come here to uphold law and order and to protect this court, with my own body, if necessary," was the declaration with which Governor A. O. Stanley faced a crowd which filled every available space of the circuit court room of the Callaway county courthouse.

With almost every available member of the Kentucky National Guard mobilized on the Mexican border, he was forced to rely on those of the forces he could summon to his aid after his arrival here for the maintenance of order.

Deputies Citizens His first move after his arrival in Murray was to direct the deputies citizens and order them to prevent at all costs any outbreak. His next move was to make an address to the crowd which filled the courtroom when court convened. For more than half an hour Governor Stanley explained his purpose in coming to Murray.

The negro to whom they referred, Lube Martin, is now in the city jail at Paducah, Ky., and will not be brought to Murray, it was announced, until Governor Stanley himself gives orders to that effect. After Governor Stanley included his address it was announced that the time and place for the trial of Martin would be made public late in the day. The greater part of the

To the Readers of the Telegraph---

This is a little heart-to-heart talk with the readers of this newspaper. Some fifteen years ago the subscription price of the Telegraph was reduced by its present management from two to one cent per copy and from ten to six cents per week. Conditions at that time were entirely different from those which confront the newspaper industry to-day.

By reason of the unprecedented increase in the cost of the paper upon which this newspaper is printed, and all other materials entering into its production—in addition to higher wages made necessary by the increased cost of living, the publishers of the Telegraph are compelled to make an advance in subscription prices, following a course that already has been forced upon newspapers everywhere, save those still operating for a limited time under unexpired print paper contracts.

For months publishers generally have hoped against hope that the steady upward trend of cost of materials would be checked, but this relief does not appear to be in sight and one after another newspaper publishers have been compelled to ask their readers to bear a part of the heavy burden thrust upon them. Already Allentown, Lancaster, Altoona, York, Hanover, McKeesport, Scranton, Erie, Pittsburgh, Reading, Williamsport, Johnstown, Wilkes-Barre and other cities in Pennsylvania alone are on the two-cent basis. The day of the one-cent newspaper is practically at an end.

For these reasons, which we trust every reader of the Telegraph will appreciate, on and after Monday, January 15, the Telegraph will be sold at two cents a copy and delivered to the home by carrier at 10 cents per week; by mail, $5.00 per year, in advance.

HARRY K. THAW CUTS THROAT

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—Harry K. Thaw cut his wrists and throat in a private house on Walnut street west of 52nd street here to-day and was taken to St. Mary's hospital, according to Captain of Detectives Tate, who has been searching for him.

Early reports did not indicate whether Thaw was dead or dying.

According to Captain Tate, Thaw's whereabouts were learned early to-day and the house was surrounded. When detectives entered the place, according to Tate they found that Thaw had cut his wrists and throat. Thaw, Tate says, asked that Dr. Elwood Kirby, a well-known physician of this city, be sent for. When the doctor arrived he ordered Thaw removed to St. Mary's hospital, where Dr. Kirby is head physician.

EXPECTED TO DIE

St. Mary's Hospital is in the extreme northeastern part of the city, several miles from the house where he was found.

Captain Tate later said, he had been informed that Thaw was expected to die. What Thaw cut himself with, Tate said he did not know.

The house where Thaw was found is within a short distance from the street where Thaw was in an automobile accident last May. It was a damage suit instituted against his mother, the owner of the machine, that brought Thaw here last Monday to defend the action.

How the detectives learned that Thaw was in West Philadelphia, they do not say. When they were asked by the New York authorities to apprehend him on a warrant charging him with assaulting Frederick Gump, Jr., of Kansas City, they made a search of the city and were convinced that he had left the city.

Lieutenant Scanlon, of the detective bureau, said that Thaw was found in the house shortly before 2 o'clock. Scanlon said that he had learned that while Thaw was unconscious he was expected to live.

Surprise was expressed that Thaw should be taken so far away when there were nearly a dozen hospitals nearer the West Philadelphia house where he was found.

Detective headquarters were not advised in their early reports whether Thaw was taken to the hospital in a private car or the doctor's automobile.

BRITISH TROOPS PUSH FORWARD TO PALESTINE

Start From Suez Canal and Take 1,600 Prisoners and Guns

British troops pushing northeastward from the Suez canal region on the Sinai peninsula have carried their advance to the border of Palestine. They have captured there the defensive entrenchments of Rafa, thirty miles northeast of El Arish on the Mediterranean, taken by the British last month, and about seventy miles southwest of Jerusalem.

The attack was carried out by Australian troops and a camel corps and was followed by the defeat of a Turkish relief force four miles east of the Rafa position. In the operation 1,600 unrounded prisoners and four mountain guns were taken, according to the British official report.

The campaign of Field Marshal von Mackensen in northern Rumania continues to be pressed with force and nearly all along the line from the Danube to Fokshani the Russians have been pushed back to the Sereth river.

North of Fokshani the Russians have been making a stand on the river Putna, protecting the main Sereth position, and are fighting to retain the railroad junction at Maresti, where the lateral line joining the two north

COLDEST NIGHT OF WINTER TO HIT HARRISBURG

Mercury Will Fall to 5 Degrees, Forecast; River to Close Again

The coldest weather of the season will reach Harrisburg to-night sending the mercury down to 5 degrees and closing the Susquehanna river again.

This forecast was made to-day at the local weather bureau office by Government forecaster E. R. Demain. Since yesterday temperature drops ranging from 20 to 35 degrees have been reported in practically every section of the country from the Middle West to the Atlantic seaboard.

With a big drop in temperature to-night there will probably be skating to-morrow at Wildwood. The Susquehanna will become icebound again at many points, it was predicted.

The cold wave reached here late last evening tumbling the mercury to 14 degrees where it remained until this morning. Strong northwest winds will accompany the cold wave which will continue for several days. Weather forecasters are not positive whether a storm over Saskatchewan or another cold wave west of the Rocky mountains will follow the one now settling over the eastern part of the country.

At Chicago, Detroit and Birmingham at 8 o'clock this morning the official thermometers registered 4 degrees. Zero weather was reported at Des Moines while in some of the southern cities the mercury dropped below freezing.

MAYOR HOLDS OUT FOR ROAT; GROSS TO REOPEN CASE

Records of Greene County Courts Show That Case There Is Still Pending

"If Roat is a fugitive and the Greene county authorities want him we'll help them to get him and if he is taken out there and convicted his place will be refilled. Otherwise his appointment as a patrolman will remain as it was confirmed by Council," Mayor E. S. Meals said.

"Not only will the matter be reopened but reconsideration of Council of the appointment with a view to dropping Roat will be made in Council Tuesday if my efforts mean anything," Park Commissioner E. Z. Gross, quoted.

"For my part I prefer not to be quoted. I am like Mr. Gross, on the recommendation of another departmental head as I had no reason to question it," City Commissioner W. H. Lynch.

These in brief are to-day's developments in the case growing out of Council's action on Tuesday in confirming as a city patrolman Mayor E. S. Meals' appointment of Abe Roat, Jr. in the face of general opposition of officers and men of the department.

ALLIED REPLY DOES NOT CLOSE DOOR TO PEACE

Answer While Not Made Public, Shows Further Steps Are Possible

Washington, Jan. 11.—The entente reply to President Wilson's peace note began arriving this morning at the State Department. As fast as it was decoded it was laid before President Wilson and Secretary Lansing.

The utmost secrecy was maintained at the State Department but the impression prevailed that while the entente has been perfectly clear in stating its position the door to peace had not been utterly barred. In some quarters it was pointed out that whether President Wilson will take a further step depends not alone on the actual terms of the note itself, but also on his personal estimate of the situation and confidential advices to that effect. President Wilson will, it was thought, had been drawn to meet a wide variety of viewpoints as it is addressed not only to the President for his own future guidance but as well

RESTORATION OF THREE KINGDOMS ASKED

London, Jan. 11.—It has been learned by the Associated Press that the entente reply to President Wilson makes specific designation of its terms of peace, which includes the restoration of Belgium, of Serbia and Montenegro and complete reparation for the damage they sustained; and the evacuation of the invaded territories of France, Russia and Rumania, with such reparation as is considered just. The terms also require the liberation of Italians, Slavs, Rumanians and Czech Slavs from foreign domination. The terms also provide for the reorganization of Europe, guaranteed by a stable regime and founded upon the respected nationalities and the full liberty and security of all great and small nations. While Alsace and Lorraine and the Italian Tyrol are not specifically named, yet the terms require the restitution of territories previously severed from allied nations by force or contrary to the wishes of their populations. This is considered clearly to refer to Alsace and Lorraine and the Italian Tyrol.
