

CAPTAIN JACK CHIEF MARSHAL OF RECEPTION

Troopers Expected to Arrive in Harrisburg Monday or Tuesday

Representatives of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, United Spanish-American War Veterans, and local military officers met this afternoon at the Harrisburg Club and formulated plans for the reception to the Governor's Troop next week.

It is the desire of the committee in charge to have all arrangements complete by noon Saturday. Local organizations intending to participate are requested to send in entries by that time.

The Troopers are expected to arrive in Harrisburg sometime during Monday or Tuesday. No matter what hour they arrive, the reception will take place. Arrangements have been made with City Electrician Clark E. Diehl to have a sign erected over the fire alarm system when the Troopers reach Harrisburg.

The route will meet the Troopers at the Pennsylvania railroad station. The route will be up Market to Front, to State, to Third, to North, to Fifth, to State, to Army in State street near Fourth.

Organizations that have already entered include: Ex-Troopers Association, Camp No. 8, United Spanish-American War Veterans, 50 members; Post 5, G. A. R.; Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart Marching Club, and Hope Fire Association. Three bands are also assured.

Representatives at today's meeting included: Henderson Gilbert of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce; Captain Henry M. Stine, Troop No. 3, Spanish-American War Veterans; Benjamin M. Demming, Chief Clerk; to Adjutant General T. J. Stewart; Captain George C. Jack, commander of Troop C, First United States Cavalry (Governor's Troop); and Major Frank E. Ziegler, Eighth Pennsylvania United States Infantry.

BEAUTIFUL RUSSIAN WOMAN TRAVELS THOUSAND MILES AFoot TO JOIN HUSBAND

Traveling afoot under cover of Siberian darkness, dodging sentinels, doing without food or drink for long periods of time, sleeping outdoors and in shacks and stables—these were some of the experiences of Mrs. F. Kritt, a beautiful Russian woman of 22 years, who passed through this city today enroute to Baltimore to join her husband, F. Kritt, of 1319 Pratt street, Baltimore.

Mrs. Kritt became confused in the Pennsylvania Railroad station and in talking to David Goldberg, the railroad interpreter, she told him one of the most remarkable stories of privation and hardship yet echoed by the war in Europe.

She told Mr. Goldberg she came from Baserac, Russeswe. "My people are all in the war," she explained, "and I wanted to come to my husband in Baltimore. I sold everything I had and with about 2,000 rubles going to reach America soon.

COURT QUESTIONS LAXITY OF POLICE

Failure to Produce Witness Invokes Judge's Query; Officers Explain

From the Dauphin county bench today President Judge Kunkel pointedly questioned the apparent failure of the police department to produce highly important witnesses in the trial of four negroes who alleged complicity in the shooting of William Green at 1219 North Seventh street—more familiarly known in the underworld as "the bucket of blood."

Shannon and Lizzie Morton, it appeared, lived in the apartment in which the shooting is said to have occurred. Lizzie Morton was an important witness; Morton himself was not to be seen.
