ration of President Fultz, of the Base-ball Players' Fraternity, that unless requests for the betterment of conditions for minor league players were granted there would be no need for trainnig camps this spring, gave a seri-ous aspect to-day to the controversy between owners and players. The fraternity last night showed that it meant business by announcing expulsion of Harry F. Sallee, the New York National League pitcher, on the ground that he had broken his pledge to await permission of the organization before signing a contract. President Fultz intimates that the majority of major league players are solidly behind the minor leaguers in their fight. He held a secret confer-ence at Philadelphia last night with about twenty major and minor league players.

Note twenty major and minor league players. No Reasons for Strike President Tener, of the National League, in reply to Fultz's manifesto, asserts that there is absolutely no ground for a strike and his attitude is endorsed by the leaders of the other big leagues. The object of the movement is to obtain for players in the minor leagues the same recognition that has been granted to the major league players. It is expected that the situation would be discussed at the schedule meeting of the big leagues here next Monday.

Bits From Sportland

Jack McFetridge, former Philadel-phia pitcher, died suddenly yesterday at his home in that city.

Oscar Sutch, recently elected cap-tain of the 1917 Maroon track team, is out with a sprained ankle. He is the star runner and his injury may inter-fere with his work.

Lancaster sportsmen will fight the roposed fishermen's license law.

President John K. Tener has re-quested his representatives and Ban Johnson to be on hand Monday or Tuesday for the schedule committee

The board of governors of the City Amateur League will meet to-morrow afternoon at Boyd Memorial Hall to consider important questions.

The Harrisburg Dragon quintet was vietor last night over the Central Grammar School five of Middletown; score, 33 to 22.

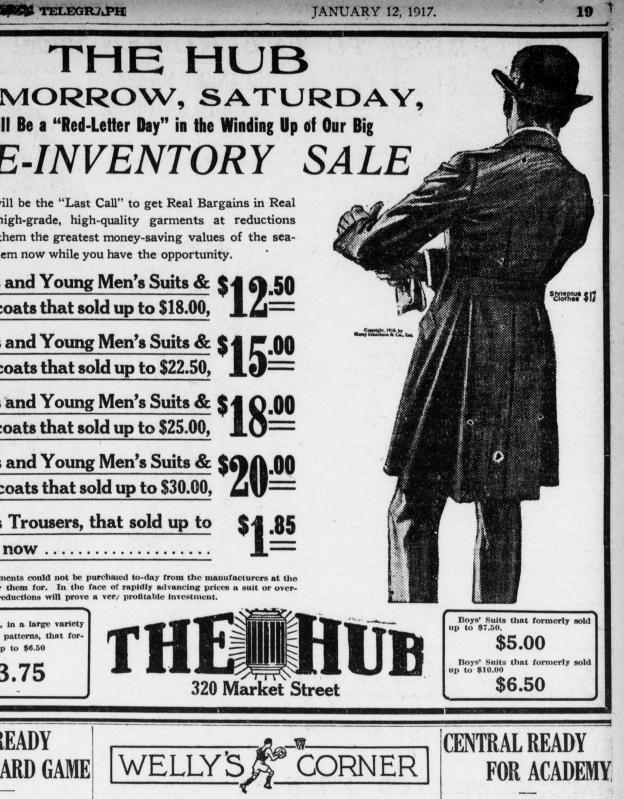

BARROW WELCOMES STRIKE

BARROW WELCOMES STRIKE New York, Jan. 12.—Speaking for the International League in regard to the fraternity requests, President Ed-ward G. Barrow declared that the In-ternational 'and the minor leagues in general' will welcome a strike. "The minor leagues are in no humor to be coerced, or forced into doing some-thing which they do not care to do," he said. "We will welcome a year's vacation, and perhaps by the end of the year the players may sing a dif-ferent tune. Our owners have been players have been getting the money. Our players have been treated royally; in fact, during the last five years they strike would straighten out many angles of the minor league situation. I cannot help but say, however, that Fultz's action is poorly advised, and he has gone a long way to break his organization."

ACADEMY

"How do you do, Mr. Fulton. What is your pleasure this morning, Mr. Fulton? May we assist you in any way? This is the way they are addressing Fred Fulton these days, since he handed big Tom Cowler such an artistic beating recently and came to the front as a real, sure-enough heavyweight title contestant. A little while ago they used to speak of him as "That big boob, Fulton," "Poor Fred Fulton," "The big stiff." But not so any longer. All of the sporting writers agree that Fulton displayed vonderful form, and many as big as Jess, will cop his title if he doesn't watch out. Rube Cashman Coming

The St. Elizabeth team of Philadelphia will be represented here Satur-day night by one of the strongest indeday night by one of the strongest inde-pendent teams that ever appeared in this city. Since playing here earlier in the season they have secured the services of Rube Cashman, formerly of the Jasper team, and Cy Simen-dinger, of the Plymouth team of the Pennsylvania State League. With these two additions the locals will have to travel at a fast pace to hold their own. The Independents had a hard work-out with the Central High team yesterday afternoon. Manager McCord has secured the strong Wilkes-Barre State League team for a return game and a number of the Eastern League teams will ap-pear in this city before the season closes.

In Billiard Contest
 Pittsburgh, Jan. 12.—In a contest interspersed with frequent flashes of sensationalism and also by one or two contributions of mediocrity, Frank Taberski, of Schenetady, holder of the world's championship in poeted billiards, won the first block of 150 points in his 450-point match from James Maturo, of Kansas City, the challenger, last night in the Davis part for they reciprocated with he queerly marked ticket by which he identified to urrender his patron's apparel bein strest or lass of the table and a shot in front of almost every pocket, the challenger missed. This was near the close of the match and marked the last chance the Kansas City man had.

The Yale Club cor-dially extends all its privileges that night to "Y" men not members of the club.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 12.—When the of-fice of the Secretary of State had re-ceived the returns from all of the 525 Maine towns and cities except Hurri-cane Isle, in Knox county, it prodded the delinquent town clerk. The answer was prompt: "As I am now the only voter here it did not seem worth while to hold an election.' Yet not long ago Hurricane Isle was a town of 800 persons. From its great cliffs of granite, well-paid workmen took out the blocks that built great public and commercial buildings in many cities. Then dawned the age of concrete. Now Hurricane Isle has ceas-ed to exist.
