DR. McNALLY ON THE WAR

The Rev. William McNally, former pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, writes a Philadelphia newspaper expressing his cordial sympathy with the peace protest signed by sixty clergymen and laymen and drawn up by G. W. Pepper. When the peace-at-any-price folks appeal to the Bible for their authority against all war, they appear to the wrong book. Better get some other textbook. The Rev. Mr. Ely opposes the Pepper protest because God says "Thou shalt not kill," but why read the Bible with only one eye open? After reading it sixty-four times in the last sixteen years I dare to assert that it counsels war, even to extermination, and that by the express command of God Himself. Nations, like individuals, reap what they sow. I pray that this war go on until the purpose of God in it is fulfilled, whatever that may be, and surely the overthrow of Prussian militarism and despotism and the obliteration of the fiendish Turk! Find some other book for your peace talk, brethren; the Bible points the other way, and God is marching on until Belgium is avenged!

KELLY, THE HOUSE ENIGMA

On His Vote May Depend Organization and He Won't Say a Word
Washington, Jan. 15.—M. Clyde Kelly, who was elected to Congress in the Thirtieth Pennsylvania District over William H. Coleman, Republican, was a visitor in the House of Representatives Saturday. Upon Kelly's vote may depend the political complexion of the House in the next Congress. Kelly was nominated by the Democrats. In his previous service in the House he was a Progressive. Kelly hung his coat and hat in the Republican cloak room. Then he took a seat on the Republican side of the chamber. Later he went over to the Democratic side of the House. When asked which side he would align with, Mr. Kelly said: "I do not care to make any statement now. I am now merely looking things over."
"But the Democrats say you promised to vote with them when you were given the Democratic nomination," was the next question.
"I never made any such promise," replied Mr. Kelly.

Admiral Dewey Very Weak; His Vitality May Fail at Any Time

Washington, Jan. 15.—Admiral Dewey's condition was such this morning that his doctors said he was very weak and it was feared his once great vitality might fail at any time. In a bulletin issued this morning by Dr. A. M. Fautleroy, U. S. N., the senior surgeon in charge of the admiral's case and Dr. Luther Sheldon, Jr., U. S. N., who is associated with him, the admiral's condition was stated as follows:

"This morning he is very weak and his general condition is such as to fear that his once great vitality may fail at any time."
The admiral is being treated at his home.

TWO THEATERS ROBBED

Thieves Enter Building in Hildard, Blow Safes and Obtain $1,500
Uniontown, Pa., Jan. 15.—While a blizzard raged outside safe blowers entered the Lyric and Penn theaters on the main streets here early yesterday, blew open three safes and escaped with $1,500 and valuable papers. The theaters are within two hundred feet of each other.
The robbery at the Lyric was discovered by Henry Epstein, father-in-law of Manager Louis Stueck, when he went to the office this morning to use the telephone. He found the safe demolished with nitro-glycerine. According to George Whyel, owner, $500 was stolen.

500,000 BATHE INTERNALLY

The marvelous growth of Internal bathing since the advent of "J. B. L. Cascade" is accounted for not only by the enthusiastic praise of its users to others, but also by the physicians insisting more and more that the lower intestine must be kept free from waste to insure perfect health and efficiency.
Mary L. J. Walker, M. L. D., Olean, N. Y., writes:
"I must tell you of a case of constipation lasting for twenty years that was cured by your cascade treatment."
"The physician in charge said the patient had a tumor between the stomach and intestines. The patient, being sixty-two years old, he claimed no help could be given except the knife; but finding the intestines in a very bad state I advised the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' which resulted in a complete recovery. When I took the case she was taking a laxative three times a day and had been for three weeks; couldn't get along without it. Now she never takes any laxative."
Call at Croil Keller, 405 Market street and George C. Foot's Drug Store in Harrisburg, and ask for a free booklet on the subject, called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient."

APPAM CASE IN COURT

Washington, Jan. 15.—On the first anniversary of the capture by the German raider Moeve of the British African liner Appam, cases to determine future disposition of the Appam and her cargo, one of the richest single prizes of the war, were argued today before the Supreme Court. The vessel is now held at Newport News, Va., and the German claimants are appealing from a decree of Federal Judge Waddill, of Virginia, ordering return of the vessel and cargo to the former British owners. The Appam is claimed as the German government's property by capture; the British claimants seek return of the ship and cargo and charges that neutrality was violated when the ship was brought into Hampton Roads last February after a cross-Atlantic dash of three thousand miles.
