EPWORTH LEAGUE HONORS MINISTER

Juniors Give Chicken and Waffle Supper at Menger's Suburban Inn

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John D. Fox were guests of honor of the Junior Epworth League of Grace Methodist Church Saturday evening at a chicken and waffle supper served at Menger's Suburban Inn.

After a brief business session when officers were elected for the ensuing year a social evening was enjoyed, with addresses by Dr. Fox, Charles W. Boll and Ralph Neiman.

This League has the largest membership of any in the city but owing to the inclement weather many were unable to attend the supper.

The party included Charles W. Boll, president; Miss Carrie H. Reiley, first vice-president; Ralph Neiman, second vice-president; Miss Beatrice Bacon, third vice-president; Robert Boll, fourth vice-president; Miss Marian Townsen, secretary; Robert Crist, treasurer; Miss Sara Denehey, pianist; Miss Marian Bretz, assistant pianist; Mrs. Charles W. Boll, Mrs. Ralph Neiman, Miss Marian Hartwick, Miss Emily Sites, Miss Adeline Stoeck Paul, Miss Emily Klotz, Miss Dorothy Moesline, Miss Marian Davis, Miss Florence Davis, Miss Ruth Townsen, Miss Florence Williams, Miss Laura Bretz, Miss Martha Lawton, Miss Ivie May Rahter Cook, George Williams, Jacob Smith, Edward Herman, Harvey Emders, Henry Young, Charles Crist and Daniel Bacon.

Central High Students Organize Mandolin Club

The new Mandolin Club being formed by Central High students is attracting a lot of interest and promises to become efficient. Any student who can play any stringed instrument is eligible for membership. The members now include Paul Selsam, Kenneth Downes Blair Smith, Emory Hartman, Elwood Deppen and Leon Simonetti. In the year 1914-15 there was a successful mandolin club at Central composed of ten students. Since then this line of music has suffered a decline, and the present revival of the idea manifests a continuance of the good work. The last club was led by Leroy Smucker, the only person now in high school that was in it being Paul Selsam.

Owing to the Central basketball game Friday night, the Centralism did not meet. The meeting will be held some evening this week, to be definitely announced later by the president. An interesting and important feature will be the election of officers. Next Friday evening the Senior and Junior classes at Central will hold a combined dance in Chestnut Street Auditorium. This will be in charge of the presidents, Paul Selsam and Willard Smith. It will be the first time a high school dance has been held in the auditorium. In the event of its success, a permanent feature will probably be established. Members of all classes are invited to attend.

TEA AT LOCH WILLOW

Mrs. Max P. Johnson and Miss Marie Johnson were hostesses at tea Saturday afternoon in compliment to their guest, Miss Kathleen Mackin, of Wilkes-Barre. Miss Adeline Paul, Miss Katharine Darby and Miss Anne Sheahan presided at the teatable.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! Is tongue coated, breath feverish and stomach sour?

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

A laxative to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION

Great Celebration to Be Held by United Reformed Churches of City January 21

Invitations are being issued for the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the Great Protestant Reformation to be held by the Salem, Second, Fourth and St. John's Reformed Church of Harrisburg; the St. Andrew's Reformed Church of Penbrook and the First Reformed Church of Steelton, in the Technical High school auditorium, Sunday, January 21 at 7.30 p. m.

The reason for selecting this place is that none of the churches can accommodate a union meeting if all the congregations attend.

The address of the evening will be made by the Rev. Dr. George W. Richards, professor of church history in the Theological Seminary at Lancaster. The Rev. Dr. Richards is the best qualified scholar of the denomination to deal with the subject of the reformation and church history, and in view of the fact that no one now living will be privileged to attend another hundredth anniversary of the reformation it behooves those who can to attend this important service.

On the committee of arrangements are William M. Robinson, H. M. Yingst, J. H. Smith, D. E. Brightbill, Dr. D. E. Myers and John E. Mumma.

CELEBRATE SIXTY-FIRST BIRTHDAY WITH PARTY

WELL KNOWN MUSICIAN HERE

Prof. J. Fred Zimmerman, of Philadelphia, was a guest yesterday of Mrs. Samuel C. Miller and her sister, Miss Killough. Professor Zimmerman is a well known musician of Philadelphia, having been director of the orchestra of the Arch Street Theater for thirty years. For over a year he was director and traveled with the orchestra for Henry Miller.

Enthusiastic Plans For War Sufferers Bazar

Enthusiastic plans are being pushed for a large bazar for the benefit of the sufferers of the central powers of Europe at the Masonic Lutheran general chairman of the committee. One of the big guns, 20 feet high, used by the Germans will be brought here from Johnstown, where it is now on exhibition, and a band will be secured from one of the interned vessels of the German navy anchored in the city and the American ports and negotiations are being made for models of a Zeppelin and a submarine.

The bazar will be held directly after Easter in one of the largest halls of the city and it promises to be one of the biggest things of the kind ever held in this vicinity.

HOSTESS TO DOILEY CLUB

Mrs. Kingston of Steelton was hostess to the Doiley Club of which she is a member on Friday evening. In attendance were Mrs. Madden, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Wendell Fackler, Mrs. Frank M. Gustwhite, Mrs. Wm. H. Cooper and Mrs. E. N. Bowman, and Mrs. Kingston.

Albert Gotwalt, a former York policeman, was a week-end guest of his sister, Mrs. Frank Stevick, North Third street.

Romance! Thrills! Mystery!

"The Dark Star"

by Robert W. Chambers

A dashing adventure to keep imagination constantly on tip-toes.

Buy February Cosmopolitan and read "The Dark Star." Enough plot and action for a dozen usual novels. One mystery is revealed only to expose a still more teasing situation. The best delineations of character in recent fiction. Chamber's fancy has sheared the black sheep of the universe to make this yarn. It's a tale of heathen gods and New York gunmen—the Far East and East Side—of world powers and under-worlds—in which a crew of spies, secret service men, crooks, kings and soldiers-of-fortune pit their sinister resources against an American girl marked for peril by Erlik the Dread Planet.

But there's a man whose love is strong enough, whose wit is sharp enough to thwart them all.

A clean wholesome thrill-filled story that every member of the family will delight to read.
