Russ-Jap War Hero Elevated to War Minister

London, Jan. 18. — General M. A. Belyaev has been appointed Minister of War in the place of General Chouvaloff, who has been made a member of the Council of the Empire according to a Petrograd dispatch to Reuters. General Belyaev was formerly Assistant Minister of War and chief of the general staff.

General M. A. Belyaev is 54 years old. During the Russo-Japanese war General Belyaev was chief of staff of the Manchurian army and acting chief of staff to the commander-in-chief. For his services in the war he received a number of special distinctions in addition to the regular military decorations. In 1906 General Belyaev was appointed head of a division of the general staff and in 1908 was promoted to major general. The following year he was made quartermaster general. General Belyaev is the fourth Minister of War Russia has had since the outbreak of the war.

Thaw Growing Stronger, but Mind Is Still Cloudy

Philadelphia, Jan. 18. — The condition of Harry K. Thaw, who is in a hospital here recovering from a serious wounds self-inflicted a week ago today, is reported as satisfactory by Dr. Elwood R. Kirby, his Philadelphia physician. The doctor denied reports that Thaw is growing weaker and said he is slowly getting stronger. His mind is still a little cloudy, Dr. Kirby said, but it is gradually clearing.

Thaw's mother, who had been at the hospital several days, has sought seclusion to avoid letter writers and others who, her friends say, are annoying her about her son's case. So far as can be learned the family has not definitely decided what action it will take regarding Thaw's extradition to New York. It was reiterated today that nothing will be finally decided until Thaw is in condition to take part in a family conference.

Detective Goes Amuck
A detective named Kelly, employed by a private agency who has been doing duty at 260 Walnut street, where Harry K. Thaw attempted suicide last week, became hysterical today and shot up the house. When the police arrived he was in a semi-conscious condition and was taken to a hospital. The police say he claimed that some one had struck him and that he then began shooting around the room in which Thaw attempted to take his own life. Kelly told the police that he heard a knock on a win-down and then was struck with a beer bottle. Scratches and blood were found on Kelly.

According to the police Kelly was sent to the house to guard it in the absence of the family who have left the place temporarily. The police are making an investigation to determine whether the man had been drinking or was suffering from hallucinations.
