Choose Your Optometrist With Care!

Choose your Optometrist just as you would choose your family doctor. Let the man you choose be one of the reputable class of Optometrists — one with ability; one who is conscientious in his efforts and sincere in his service — one who has your interest always at heart. It is obvious that no reputable Optometrist can have a successful practice unless his prices are fair, both to himself and to his patrons. It is this ability and conscientious sincerity and equality of price that has built our large and ever growing business.

P. R. R. Glee Club Sings Most Inspiring Program

The Pennsylvania Railroad Glee Club of Harrisburg presented a fine program to a large and appreciative audience at St. John's Reformed Church, corner Fourth and Maclay streets, Thursday evening. The club members were repeatedly encored, as well as the splendid solo work of Messrs. Swanson, of Downingtown, and Meek and Smith, of Harrisburg. The baritone and tenor duets of Messrs. Jackson, of Middletown, and Belny, of Harrisburg, and the piano solos of Stewart Black showed exceptional training and technique and were well received by the audience. This club, composed of Pennsylvania Railroad employees, under the direction of Ira L. Behney, has met with considerable success in their numerous concerts rendered and have now booked quite a number of engagements for the season, including several return engagements.

Mrs. C. Geisinger was hostess at her home, 223 North Sixth street, to the embroidery club of which she is a member. Luncheon was served to ten guests.
