LEBANON LEADS TOSSERS IN CENTRAL PENN. CAGE LEAGUE

Captain "Gigs" Moore Is Best Scorer; Some Hopeless Cases, Including Tech High Quintet

Central Pa. League Standing
Teams	W.	L.	Pct.
Lebanon	5	0	1.000
Reading	1	1	.500
Steelton	1	2	.333
Tech	1	3	.250
Central	0	0	.000
York	0	2	.000

In addition to the game at York the other contest to be played in the league will be Steelton at Reading. It should be a close battle. The fact that Lebanon defeated Reading on the former floor by a bare two points, indicates that Lebanon will have a hard time to keep its lead until the close of the season.

Captain "Gigs" Moore of the Lebanon aggregation is far ahead of his nearest competitor for the scoring honors of the league. Moore set a league record that will be hard to beat last Wednesday night when he rang up 47 field goals in the Tech contest against Captain Pollock. Killinger of Tech, has the record for the season in one contest with the same number in the game against Lancaster.

WELLY'S CORNER

According to J. Joseph Dugan in the Philadelphia North American, Les Darcy, the Australian middleweight, has turned down offers amounting to $107,500 for eight or ten bouts.

If reports are true about Darcy he better get back to Australia while he has the cash to pay his way. It looks very much like a swelled head due to his much publicity.

Following its defeat on the Army Friday night at the hands of Tech the York High School five returned to its own cage Saturday and walloped the Lower Merion High School squad in rather easy fashion. Ever since Principal Pennypacker went from York to Lower Merion, these contests have been annual affairs.
