In Memoriam

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear brother, Howard Russel Waltermeyer, who fell asleep in Jesus two years ago to-day, January 23, 1915.

Dearest brother, I still miss you. I still long your voice to hear. Every evening, at the silent hours of midnight I still heard a silent tear.

Once our home was bright and happy. But grim death broke every cord. You have won the great reward. You have won the great reward.

I miss thy kind and willing hand. Thy fond and loving care. Our home is dark without thee. I miss you everywhere.

Two years have sadly flown. To me it's all as yesterday. God called him, it was His will. But in my heart he liveth still.

I know it is not brave or strong. To let my tears so often flow. But one who loved a brother like mine, Can tell the pain of my sad woe.

But some day, be it soon or late, Beyond the silent sea, With outstretched arms at Heaven's gate, I know he will welcome me.

By his sister,
MRS. LAURA W. DOBBS.

BETHLEHEM STEEL YIELDS TEN POINTS

New York, Jan. 23.—Bethlehem Steel yielded ten points of its gain soon after the opening and the active list as a whole eased from 1 to 2 points before prices hardened again. United States Steel rose a point on the rebound, with 1 to 2 for sugars, oils, particularly California petroleum, stocks and bonds.

Motors also continued backward with gas shares, Industrial Alcohol and Baldwin Locomotive. Reading and Lamps, the latter at an advance of 2½ points were the only noteworthy features among rails. Trading languished in the second hour, but prices made further improvement. Bonds were irregular.
