There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. You can now get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, crop, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

FARMER BOYS WHO ATTENDED AGRICULTURE EXHIBITION

The boys from the vocational farm schools all over the State went home this morning. They had a busy time in Harrisburg. Their principal work was judging the agriculture show in the Emerson-Brantingham building, Tenth and Market streets. They finished their work yesterday afternoon and visited the Capitol where Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh joined the boys. Before starting on a tour of the Capitol a picture of the boys with the Governor was taken and is shown above.

HOLLWEG GIVES GERARD MESSAGE

retary Lansing said he would have no objection to announcing the mere fact of its arrival although it was doubtful if the contents would be made public.

No Peace With German Power Unbroken, Britain Chancellor Declares

London, Jan. 25.—A. Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer and member of the British War Council, declared in a speech at Bristol yesterday that President Wilson's peace aims were shared by the Entente allies, but that, under the circumstances, other means must be taken to obtain peace and that it was impossible to consent to a peace that leaves Germany's military machine unbroken.

Bonar Law declared that as President Wilson's purpose to achieve peace is present and the future also was the aim of the Entente, therefore the President's proposal should not be regarded as Utopian.

But, he continued, in view of Germany's manner of conducting the war and also of the fact that the neutral nations failed to protest against her methods, other steps than those outlined by the President were necessary to obtain peace.

Berlin Papers Wonder at Statement Neither Side Wants to Destroy

Berlin, Jan. 24, via London, Jan. 25.—A number of the Berlin papers, commenting on President Wilson's speech, expressed wonder at the President's statement that neither party of belligerents wants to destroy the other. Against this statement they quote the entente's reply to President Wilson's note and the supplementary communication of Foreign Secretary Balfour in which they say the entente plainly shows that it aims at the dismemberment of Austria and Turkey and the attachment of certain parts of Germany.

The Tageblatt misses a clear expression of the President's views concerning demands aiming at humiliation, dissolution, enthrallment and destruction. "This paper regards the realization of President Wilson's peace organization as little reconcilable with the desires and hopes of the entente statesmen as with the expectation of German annexationists."

Senator Cummins Does Not Press Resolution to Set Aside Debate Time

Washington, Jan. 25.—Senator Cummins did not press his resolution today to set aside time in the Senate for special discussion of President Wilson's peace address and the Senate got to work early.

President Wilson in his conference with Senators Stone and other Democratic senators at the White House, discussed his address in a general way. There was discussion also of plans to prevent any concerted effort to sidetrack important legislation with a long peace debate at this time but the main purpose of the conference it was said today, was to clear the way for unanimous legislative action between now and March. The probability of getting through his railway labor program as originally proposed was pointed out to the President as well as a host of other matters of agreement on water power legislation.

To-night Senate Democrats will consider all those subjects in caucus.

Felt Dopey and Lazy—Had No Pep

But Now He Has Come Back, Feels Fine, and Eats Enough for Two Men

SAYS TANLAC DID IT

"Tanlac sure turned the trick for me," says Charles Raynes, of Hershey, Pa., for it pulled me out of the depths of misery and set my feet on the road to health.

"I was all run down and my clock was about ready to stop. I felt dopey and lazy all the time and I didn't like working or doing anything. I just sort of moped through the days and didn't give a hang for anything."

"My liver was out of whack, I had headaches all the time, I didn't seem to want to eat and I was badly constipated. Altogether I felt pretty mean."

"I didn't know what to do for myself because I couldn't quite figure out what was the matter with me, but I got to reading about Tanlac in the papers and some of the testimonials hit me so close to home that I finally decided to give it a tryout."

"Did it help me? It sure did. It was like a new life held out to me, drawing me out of when I felt it pulling me out of danger. I just stuck right to it and it landed me safe and sound."

"Now I feel good all over, I eat enough for two men, my work goes fine and I'm glad I'm living."

Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at the Gorgas Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

PROFESSOR SMYSER IS CHAMPION GROWER

To Prof. Smyser $25 in cash and a silver cup. The corn is a part of last summer's crop raised on the Smyser farm near Rossville, York county. Prof. Smyser owns 140 acres and farms scientifically.

The corn is of the yellow specie, and the ear is perfect with 20 rows of corn on the ear. The grains of the champion ear are uniform in size, and the ear is symmetrical in shape. This ear was raised from seed secured several years ago in Illinois, and propagated by Prof. Smyser.

Dauphin County Potatoes, Um-m! The champion potatoes are Dauphin county products and were raised at Prof. Smyser's home near the Colonial Club. They are known as the "Cobbler" variety, large in size and perfect. It is understood that Prof. Smyser will reserve the right to sell his champion samples and will dispose of them at private sale.

Win Gas Engine The one and one-half power gasoline engine donated by the Emerson-Brantingham Company, for the school making the best record, was first prize and went to the Centerville representatives from Washington county. The second best team came from Honeybrook, Chester county. The prize was a fine toothed cultivator and was donated by the International Harvester Company. The individual sweepstakes prize was a silver loving cup donated by Charles E. Patton, secretary of agriculture, was awarded to Forrest Richards of Mansfield, Tigua county.

Demonstrations by Pennsylvania State College students including butter making were a part of today's program at the big agriculture exhibit. This afternoon following the completion of prize awards the apples were sold at auction. The plate exhibits were offered first and bids were high, varying from $1. to $2 for five apples. The sale of vegetables and corn will be the closing feature tomorrow.

Prof. James W. Kellogg, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, of the Department of Agriculture, was a busy man today. At his exhibit of cattle food he gave a number of interesting talks to visitors on pure and impure feed. He had many samples showing the various kinds of feed, also the adulterated food containing peanut shells and other ingredients.

Honest Representation of Fruit Farm Production Is Pleaded for by Griest

A strong plea was made for honest representation of the productions of the fruit farms of the state by Fred E. Griest, of the Adams County Fruit Growers' Association, at this morning's session of the State Horticultural Association. Mr. Griest urged the legislative committee of the association to adopt a uniform standard for packing according to grade, size and color, and was unanimously supported by several members in the discussion that followed.

If the face of a barrel of apples were large and red, every other apple in that barrel should be large and red, and was unanimously supported by several members in the discussion that followed.

Breeders and Dairymen Gain Insight Into Cost of Producing Milk

The Pennsylvania Breeders and Dairymen's Association met this morning in a joint session with the Milk Producers' Association at the Board of Trade Auditorium.

Thorough discussion of the cost of milk production supplemented by charts was the feature of the meeting, discussed by Fred Rasmussen, State College, Pa. The charts showed an itemized cost of milk production based on 5,000 pounds of milk per cow. From the cost of feed down to small details such as tools and sawing items was carefully shown and explained.

Discussion of good dairy inspection laws occupied the remainder of the meeting which was open to any member present. To eliminate the criminal negligence and ignorance of the producer whose actions harm the man producing clean wholesome milk is the chief feature of legislation they want. Officers were elected and prize winners announced previous to the adjournment of the morning session.

State Nurserymen Line Up in Pine Blister Fight

At the fifteenth annual convention of the Pennsylvania Nurserymen's Association here this morning the organization reported that the organization will back Professor J. G. Sanders, State Zoologist, in his efforts to procure an appropriation to fight the pine blister. The association also commended the entomologist for his efforts to prevent the importation of blight and plant disease into Pennsylvania and assured him of its co-operation.

Officers were elected as follows: President, B. N. Farr, Wyomissing; vice-president, Adolph Mueller, Norristown; treasurer, Thomas Rakestraw, Kennett Square; secretary, Henry T. Morrow, Morrisville; chairman board of directors, Thomas B. Meehan, Dressler.

Says State Should Lead in Sheep Growing Industry

To make Pennsylvania the leader in the rehabilitation of the sheep industry in this country was the keynote of an address by A. C. Bigelow, of Philadelphia before the members of the Pennsylvania Breeders and Dairymen's Association.

"Pennsylvania cannot only 'come back' itself," Mr. Bigelow said, "but can lead in reviving the industry in America. At one time there were 1,750,000 sheep in this state. That figure can be reached again and exceeded; what we must do right now is to get the buyer and grower of wool into closer co-operation, turn our attention to the standardizing of the quality of the production, soil fertility and better marketing facilities. Standardizing the quality will make for a larger production and return to the farmer, and this will naturally result in his increasing his flock."

Mr. Bigelow said that the buyers are doing what they can to develop the industry in Pennsylvania and to encourage the farmer to increase the production by affording him an opportunity to market it. Support from the State Department of Agriculture and the enactment of legislation which will enable a farmer to raise sheep without fear of their being killed by dogs will be big factors in stimulating the industry.

Speaking of the effect that the ending of the European war will have on prices, Mr. Bigelow declared that "we shall not see lower prices because we can consume all of the wool produced in this country."

Board of Agriculture Backs Governor's Suggestion For Big Bureau of Markets

A resolution asking for an appropriation from the State to further better marketing facilities and endorsing Governor Brumbaugh's suggestion for a bureau of markets was adopted at the closing session of the State Board of Agriculture.

Reports of experts were read on soils, crops, forestry and feeding stuffs. Irvin C. Williams, of this city, in discussing the subject "Forests and Forestry" laid emphasis on the importance of encouraging the birds and was discussed by W. H. Evans, Plainsville, Luzerne county.

The problems of supplying a local market, how to prepare the goods for market, their transportation and sale were discussed by W. H. Evans, Plainsville, Luzerne county.

Vegetable Growers Hear Discussion of Marketing Problems

Three subjects pertinent to vegetable growers were discussed this morning at the Pennsylvania Vegetable Growers' Association meeting in the Board of Trade Auditorium.

Dr. C. J. Marshall, of the State Livestock Sanitary Board, stated that the reason why the farmers have not been reimbursed during the last two years was because of the failure of the State to make an appropriation for this purpose. The speaker added that 17,000 tests were made during this period, all at the request of cattle owners, who had been informed previously of the inability of the board to reimburse them. Motion pictures of the wool manufacturing industry were shown by A. C. Bigelow, of Philadelphia.

Farmers Want State to Pay Them For Cattle Condemned by Tests

A resolution favoring the resumption of payments to farmers for cattle condemned by the tubercular test was unanimously adopted last night at a joint meeting of the allied agricultural bodies.

Dr. C. J. Marshall, of the State Livestock Sanitary Board, stated that the reason why the farmers have not been reimbursed during the last two years was because of the failure of the State to make an appropriation for this purpose. SAFFORD IN OSBORNE CASE

New York, Jan. 25.—The case of Franklin D. Safford, accused of perjury for swearing that James W. Osborne, a former assistant district attorney, was the once mysterious "Oliver Osborne" who wooed Rae Tanzer, is nearly ready for the jury. The defense closed its sur-rebuttal today and court was adjourned until tomorrow, when counsel will sum up. Safford, who was a hotel clerk in a New Jersey town, was indicted as the result of his identification of James W. Osborne as the companion of Rae Tanzer when the latter visited the hotel.

TO FIGHT STRIKE BILL IN SENATE

Chairman Newlands Says Committee Is Working on Measure More Satisfactory

Washington, Jan. 25.—Champions of President Wilson's proposal to forbid strikes and lockouts on railroads pending investigation will carry their fight to the floor of the Senate, if necessary, it was said today, despite the failure of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee to approve such a provision in the pending railroad bill. Before taking action, however, it is expected that still another attempt will be made to get the committee to reconsider.

The committee is going ahead with its task of framing a bill, which Chairman Newlands said, would prevent obstructions to inter-State commerce without actually forbidding a strike.

Committee Action Yesterday The action of the committee yesterday came shortly after representatives of the four railroad brotherhoods in the Senate, President Wilson, who was at the Capitol consulting Senators about other legislative questions, that they desired to suggest changes to the bills now pending before the Senate and House committees. The President asked that the suggestions be submitted in writing and promised to give them careful consideration. The brotherhood leaders declined to make public their proposals at this time, but it is understood they follow the lines indicated in hearings before the House committee, and provide a permanent investigating commission composed partly of employes and union leaders, without any strike prohibition feature.

Railroad Notes

Patrick Murphy, of Glen Onoko, aged 71 years, trackwalker for the New Jersey Central Railroad Company, was refused to be pensioned. He says he must keep busy.

George A. Leeds, a fireman on the Reading, is off duty with a sore hand. He lives at Reading.

On the other hand, the Secretary of the Baltimore division, who has been appointed relief engineer for passenger runs on the East Penn and Lebanon Valley divisions of the Reading system.

During the month of November the total receipts for the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Relief Association were $2,913.35, expenses, $2,019.95. General Superintendent W. H. Keffer, of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, was at Rutherford yesterday looking over yard conditions.

President A. H. Smith, of the New York Central Railroad, was in Harrisburg yesterday en route west. He came over the Reading to this city. The thraxton coach traffic on the Reading is averaging 1,500 cars daily. The monthly meeting of the Friendship and Co-operative Club will be held to-night at the rooms, 307 Long-street.

Freight Conductor E. H. Malehorn, of the Baltimore division, who has been off duty with an injured back, returned to work yesterday.

The Veterans' Employees Association of the Schuylkill Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad will hold its annual meeting and banquet at Philadelphia Y. M. C. A., 1421 Arch street, Saturday evening, February 17.

MILLIONS FOR TERMINAL

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 25.—Representing an outlay of approximately $5,000,000, the Pennsylvania Railroad yesterday submitted plans for the improvement of its terminal facilities here to Mayor James H. Preston for the consideration of the municipal authorities and the city council. One of the main features of the plans provides for the construction of twin tubes paralleling generally the present tunnel under the city. No mention is made of electrification of the terminals, one of the points upon which the city has always insisted.

20 MILLION PEOPLE USE CASCARETS--WHY?

Only True Tonic for Liver and Bowels Costs 10 Cents a Box.

Cascarets are a treat! They live your liver, clean your thirty feet of bowels and sweeten your stomach. You eat one or two Cascarets like candy before going to bed and in the morning your head is clear, tongue is clean, stomach sweet, breath right, and cold gone and you feel grand. Get a 10 or 25 cent box at any drug store and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. Stop sick headache, bilious spells, indigestion, furred tongue, offensive breath and constipation. Mothers should give cross, peevish, feverish, bilious children a whole Cascaret any time.

The Secretary indicated he did not know what further action could be taken by the United States, but that several diplomatic protests have failed.

Inspection Acceptance No Recognition of Deportations

Washington, D. C., Jan. 25.—Secretary Lansing today assured Belgian Minister Havenith, that the State Department's instructions to Ambassador Gerard to accept Germany's invitation to inspect the condition of Belgians deported to Germany did not constitute a recognition by the United States of Germany's right to deport them.

Propose to Unify Efforts of All Patriotic Societies For Adequate Preparedness

Washington, Jan. 25.—To unify the efforts of patriotic societies for adequate measures of national preparedness against war a congress of constructive patriotism began a three-day session here today with Alton H. Parker, of New York, as presiding officer and more than a score of prominent men on the list of speakers.

The meeting is under the auspices of the National Security League. Robert Bacon, president of the league, presenting Judge Parker, laid stress on the two great objects to be accomplished: the enactment of legislation for universal military training and service as the basis for physical measures of defense and the inculcation of patriotic spirit throughout the country by means of lecture courses on patriotic topics.

Elihu Root, former senator and secretary of state, took for his text "America's Present Needs." Members of the congress predicted today that a resolution endorsing proposals for universal military service would be adopted unanimously. That subject will figure prominently throughout the session.

BREAKS A COLD IN A HURRY

"Pape's Cold Compound" is pleasant and affords Instant Relief.

A dose taken every two hours until misery and aches are taken will grippe misery and break up a cold. It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drugstore. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience, is sure you get the genuine. Don't accept something else.
