"The Little Cafe" is coming to the Orpheum Monday night, with, it is claimed, dazzling girls, catchy music, and lively dancing. The seat sale opens to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

M. Harvey Taylor's Appointment Personal

M. HARVEY TAYLOR, M. Harvey Taylor, who has been appointed clerk to Senator E. E. Beldeman as president pro tempore of the Senate, is well known in local politics, having been park commissioner for one term under the same commission form of government act and for a long time a leader in the lower end of the city. He has been for a long time prominent in athletic circles and was once one of the city's best baseball players. The appointment made this week is purely personal, Mr. Taylor and Senator Beldeman being close friends of long standing.

Forty Churches Around Here to Hold Anti-Saloon League Field Day Services

The Anti-Saloon League field day services will be held in forty churches of Harrisburg and vicinity January 28. The league to-day issued a resume of the work that has been done along temperance lines in the United States. According to a statement issued by the Rev. F. F. Holsapple, there are 2,543 counties in the United States; all but 395 are dry. Twenty-three states have adopted prohibition. Four of these states went dry in 1914. Fourteen states will vote on the question within two years. Florida and Utah elected prohibition governors in November. The United States Supreme Court has pronounced the Kenyon-Webb-Sheppard bill constitutional—the greatest victory of temperance to date. The Senate voted the District of Columbia dry by a vote of 53 to 32. It is generally believed by the temperance people that the House will concur. The submission of a resolution for national constitutional prohibition has been reported favorably by the judicial committee. "This," said Superintendent Holsapple, "is the splendid record that gives us the courage to continue the fight."

KILLS CATARRH GERMS

Antiseptic Herbal Treatment That Quickly Cures at Trifling Cost. Catarrh is now known to be caused by disease germs and it can be cured only by an antiseptic treatment that will kill the catarrh germs and soothe and heal the irritated mucous membrane. Nothing else combines the soothing and antiseptic powders in so perfect a degree as antiseptic Wonder-oil. Apply a little of this in the nasal passages on going to bed and it cures while you sleep. Then apply again in the morning and its curative and healing effect acts all day long. A package of antiseptic Wonder-oil is sold only a trifle and is sold by Geo. A. Gorgas under guarantee of money back if it fails to do all that is claimed for it. This is a wonderful household remedy and is good for all inflammation, soreness, aches and pains.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM—All week, with daily matinees—"A Daughter of the Gods." Monday night, January 29—"The Little Cafe." Tuesday, January 30—"Mother Love." MAJESTIC—"Vaudeville." COLONIAL—"Extravagance." REGENT—"Nanette of the Wilds." VICTORIA—"The Prince of Graustark."

"I sincerely believe that, to people who have no fear in their make-up, anything is possible. This is possible." This pronouncement may explain the phenomenal success of William Fox, the producer of the million-dollar picture beautiful, "A Daughter of the Gods," featuring Annette Kellermann, which is at the Orpheum all this week, with daily matinees, but instead it was made concerning two most beloved players in the big spectacle—"Lee Kids," Jane, four, and Katherine, six. One feels a thrill of apprehension in seeing these two wonderful mermaid mites on a rock against which the surf is thundering. Mrs. Irene Lee, the mother, was telling how they have been trained to know no fear. "I have worked ever since Jane and Katherine were tiny babies to bring them up absolutely devoid of fear," says Mrs. Lee. "First of all, I stamped out fear in the dark, which is instinctive in a small child. I put my babies to bed in a dark room. I did not have a light that was afterward extinguished. They grew to associate bed with the dark, from the first."

The attraction that will appear at the Orpheum on Wednesday matinee and evening, will be "One Girl's Experience," a melodrama telling the story of the dangers that beset poor girls who work for their livelihood. "It truly is a great play," this is the estimate placed on "One Girl's Experience" by the Philadelphia North American, an opinion whose worth is multiplied by the fact that it was expressed in an editorial.

The feature act on the bill at the Majestic Theater the last half of this week has the distinction of being the Bill at the Majestic Theater. The bill at the Majestic Theater, entitled "The Giant Fear," all patrons over six feet two inches tall, who attend the theater the last three days will go in free. The four other Keith acts on the bill are: Keefe, Langton and White, and melody; Crawford and Broderick, comedy singers and dancers; Kelson and Leighton, offering a comedy variety skit, entitled "Here and There in Vaudeville," and Monsieur Herbert, in a novelty musical act.

"Nanette of the Wilds," featuring Pauline Frederick, will be shown to-day with "The Prince of Graustark." Pauline Frederick went for the last at Regent to-day. "Nanette" is a Canadian liquor smuggler. One of the Mounted is detailed to catch the smuggler and "Nanette" is an array to protect her father, despite the fact that she gradually falls under the spell of this clever chap, whose utter carelessness appeals to her and wins her undying admiration. The struggle between the underworld of evil and a lone minister, who has suddenly awakened to the true responsibilities of his position, forms the theme of "The Martyrdom of Philip Strong," featuring Robert Conness and Mabel Tranelle, shown to-morrow and Saturday. In addition to the feature, Charlie Chaplin will be presented in "The Rink."

Mme. Petrova made her initial appearance at the Colonial Theater yesterday evening in a new play, called "Extravagance." This picture, which is shown for the last

THE LAUGH IS ON THE PEOPLE

The Fokys station is architecturally a joke and practically a failure, but it is a most imposing pile nevertheless. It must be a quarter of a mile in length. Incoming passengers enter at one end and outgoing travelers leave at the other, but if they want to go from one end of the station to the other, they have to go out and around, for the center is reserved for the Emperor. Maynard Owen Williams, in the Christian Herald.
