Every Ticket Sold Goes Direct to Charity as Price of Boxes Covers Entire Expenses

Sale of boxes for the Charity Ball to be held next Tuesday night in the Chestnut Street Auditorium netted a most gratifying sum according to a re-port of John Fox Weiss, who was in charge of the auction sale held yester-day. It is double that of 1916. The whole city and community is rallying to the support of the Associ-ted Aid Societies, which received all of the money from the sale of admini-sion tickets, the expenses having been assured from other sources. As a re-suit, the ball promises to be the great-est in the history of the city, in point of attendance, while the committee in other most enjoyable social affairs ever held.

Until nearly middle age I was sorely troubled by hideous Superfluous Hairs. My face was a sight, with a heavy moustache on my lip and a tough beard on my chin. My arms were also heavily covered. I tried one thing after anoth-er without success. The electric needle only made the growth worse. Finally, my husband, an Officer in the British Army secured from a Native Hindoo Soldier (whose life he saved) the close-ly-guarded secret of the Hindoo Re-ligion, which forbids Hindoo Women to have even the slightest trace of hair on any part of their body except that on their head. I used it and in a few days my hair-growths had entirely dis-appeared. To-day not a trace of it can be found.
