A large force is on the job every day filling in stone and ballast. Seven carloads of stone were delivered this morning, and others are on the way. With the exception of ballasting the work is practically finished.

MODIFY DEMANDS IN LEAK PROBE

New York, Jan. 26.—Stock brokers today welcomed the news that the House rules committee had limited still further its demand for evidence to be used in determining whether anyone profited by a "leak" just before the publication of President Wilson's first peace note. The general feeling among brokers is that the new demand will confine itself to a request for information concerning "short sales," the only transactions which would figure in any effort to make use of knowledge obtained through a "leak."

HERE IS ONE THING THAT IS ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE

Rheumatism Has Never Been Cured by Liniments or Lotions, and Never Will Be.

You never knew of Rheumatism—that most painful source of suffering—being cured by liniments, lotions or other external applications. And you will never see anything but temporary relief afforded by such makeshifts. But why be satisfied with temporary relief from the pangs of pain which are sure to return with increased severity when there is permanent relief within your reach? Science has proven that Rheumatism is a disordered condition of the blood. How, then, can satisfactory results be expected from

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home
Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto Tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take some of these tablets now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.
Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and are widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept handy for regular use in almost every family." It is sold in Harrisburg by H. C. Kennedy, Croll Keller and other druggists.—Advertisement.

LABOR FORUM TO SELECT MAN

Statement Issued Today States Concentrated Vote Will Be Thrown

A statement was made to-day by Labor's Open Forum members that a meeting will be held Sunday evening in White's hall to consider who the choice of that organization will be for City Council to fill the vacancy caused by the death of City Commissioner

Harry F. Bowman. The statement is as follows:

"An interesting sidelight of profound interest to all candidates aspiring to office in the election district comprising Harrisburg was announced here to-day by those connected with Labor's Open Forum, which was forthcoming when the vacancy of City Commissioner was being considered.

"While it is not known who their choice is for the city council, it is however, expected their endorsement will be made known Sunday evening at White's hall, Broad and James street, when the recommendation of the Carmen's Union, E. C. Hicks, of Division No. 709, and who, it is understood, has the backing of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor, will be considered.

"That the concentrated weight of the labor vote will be thrown in all future campaigns, and that they will actively participate in the election or defeat of candidates may be gleaned from the statement made by the Forum representatives that: It is fully intended to make the Forum so strong that when a candidate for office seeks votes, he will in a perfectly logical manner come before the Forum to start up and be questioned by the people—the voters—in the audience. Instead of coming to make a special selected speech and depart.

"While this is a mere phase of the work of the Forum as laid down by the Congress of Forum adopted in New York City, was the further assurance, of which the objects proper may be thus tersely stated: Popular education has developed three distinct group methods of acquiring knowledge. First and simplest is the study class, in which people come together to study; and in which immediate individual improvement is the object.

"A second type is the discussion-lecture, when people gather to hear some definite line of thought developed by an authority on the subject, and to discuss it with them. Such lectures are most effective when, given a speaker of prominent and ability, there is a large group to benefit by the discussion.

"The Forum has the elements of both the study-class and the discussion-lecture, and it does much they do not. It has the stimulus of the reaction of speaker and audience in public addresses on vital questions, and of discussion from the floor.

"In addition to that, the message can be carried far beyond the immediate audience by press representatives to catch the news found in 'history-in-the-making.' If public opinion is in any measure affected by the newspaper reports on the day following, it is a big accomplishment.

"The publicity that creates public sentiment is of greater importance than individual educational benefit. It is power generated inside four walls, transmitted quickly and widely to thousands outside. From a purely business standpoint, it makes popularity and support, overcomes opposition, and ultimately draws large numbers.

"It is this big socializing force of creating public sentiment, coming out of a wide popular knowledge of facts that distinguishes the Forum. This distinction is based on a particular type of directorship and management, which has as great importance as the speech-making itself. So it is not the broadest estimates of values—it is not even the point of greatest importance during the stage of pioneering and development—to gauge the force of a Forum meeting by the number actually present.

"The uptown Forum, which is one of the general type referred to here, the unequalled endorsement of such men as Frank P. Walsh, Amos Pinchot, Charles E. Steimmetz, consulting engineer, General Electric Company; John H. Walker, president, Illinois State Federation of Labor; Andrew Furuseth, head of the Seamen's Union; Meyer London, Congressman; New York Senator Henri La Follette, of the Belgian Workingman's party, and others.

"There is now in process of completion. The National Council on Labor Forums comprising many of the most prominent men."
