RECOGNITION TO BE GIVEN AIRMEN

Likely That the Legislature Will Make Some Appropriation For the Science

State recognition of the first Pan-American Aeronautic Exposition which was accorded Saturday when the Governor named delegates to represent the State is expected to lead to some legislative action which will encourage flying in Pennsylvania. It is likely that during the session an effort will be made to have an item for development of the aviation arm of the National Guard.

One of the suggestions heard at the Capitol is that some of the educational institutions receiving State-aid should add aviation and the instruction of the principles of construction of aeroplanes and similar aircraft to their scientific courses just as steam engineering and electrical science are parts of their curricula.

MIDWINTER SHOW HIGHLY PRAISED

Patton Expresses Hope That It Will Be Made an Annual Affair in This City

The midwinter exhibition of corn, fruit and farm products held here last week was highly praised to-day by Secretary Patton, who suggested that it be made a regular affair in Harrisburg and who commented upon the number of people it brought here.

Mr. Patton said: "The agricultural wealth of Pennsylvania was well amplified in the display of corn, fruit, vegetables, wool and dairy products at the Pennsylvania corn, fruit, dairy products and wool show held in this city last week. It was the largest agricultural exhibition ever held in the state and its success indicates the possibility of even larger exhibitions of the kind in the future as well as a greater effort on the part of our farmers to raise better products.

"The farmers who made the display possible deserve the commendation of all those interested in agriculture in the state and I wish to extend my hearty appreciation to the splendid spirit of co-operation which existed between individuals and all associations whose joint efforts made the show a wonderful success. I believe the exhibition will have a direct benefit upon the agriculture of the state, as it has created a rivalry between counties to do greater things on the farms next season.

"There was not a county in the state that was not represented by one or more farmers in attendance during the week and the exhibitors report the largest business ever done at a similar show in the state. I want to thank those who entered their products in competition and also the commercial exhibitors who made the success of the show possible through their presence. I believe a great good has been done and that a new spirit has been engendered in the youth who represented the vocational schools and among the 8,000 people who witnessed the display of the work that is being done for the young along agricultural lines in the state."

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM — To-night — "The Little Cafe." Wednesday, matinee and night, January 31—"One Girl's Experience." Saturday, matinee and night, February 2—"Mr. Fiske in 'Firstwhile Susan.'" MAJESTIC—Vaudeville. COLONIAL—"Truthful Tulliver." REGENT—"Oliver Twist." VICTORIA—"The Love Thief."

A treat in the musical comedy line is in store for the patrons of the Orpheum to-night, the occasion being the appearance of "The Little Cafe," a sister to those famous successes "The Pink Lady" and "Oh, Oh, Delphine," by the same authors, C. M. S. McLellan and Ivan Garry.

Eugene Kirby's famous play of a working girl's life in New York will be given for the first time here at the Orpheum Wednesday, matinee and night. You will see them lean back and smile at the comedy lines and situations. They may start at an unexpected thrill or stiffen in a tense moment, but when it comes to the great big scenes hard faces soften, sad faces brighten, weary faces turn wistful and the world's sweetest, tenderest smile, remembrance of past joys, hope of the old and young, the exclusive and the democratic, and sweeps them temporarily into the arms of the great human passion. "One Girl's Experience" is a new play, presented in a new manner and new light. The seat sale opened to-day.

Have you seen a poor emigrant with his pitiful green bag on, trying to explain to some railroad conductor where he wanted to go? Imagine the plight then of the poor heroine in the play, "The Girl Without a Chance," when she, in her ignorance of our customs, falls into the hands of the white slave trust. Doesn't it afford abundant food for a great drama? In addition to an appealing heart story, the play is said to possess a wonderful comedy part. This play may be seen at the Orpheum Friday, matinee and night. Josie Flynn's Female Minstrels will be the headline attraction at the Majestic the first three days of this week, in selecting the comedy girls for her act, Miss Flynn chose only those who possessed good voices, and the result of her choice is that the audience is given a rare treat in the way of good singing. The act is replete with the kind of comedy that would keep any audience in a good humor. Surrounding this attraction are: Skipper and Castrup, in a comedy singing and talking act; Long and Ward, presenting a comedy variety turn; Rosa Roy, in a novel musical offering, and one other act.

A western drama of an entirely different kind is "Truthful Tulliver," the new "Triangle Play" starring William S. Hart at the Colonial. Theater to-day, to-morrow and Wednesday. The central figure is not a "bad man," but a good man, who nevertheless knows how to use his fists, ride a horse, throw a lasso and handle a gun. This clean-hearted, hard-hitting individual is a newspaper man by occupation and drifts into a mining camp either to take the mine or to start a paper. In the course of time he finds it necessary to "pitch" himself and his paper out of town and the usual "comedy" comedies of certain individuals who don't like his newspaper stay, after some startling adventures and thrilling feats, in the course of which the editor wins not only a reputation but a bride. The play has two love stories woven into it. Hart's leading lady is Miss Helen Reubens, seen with Douglas Fairbanks in two plays recently. The latest Pathé News and the usual "comedy" comedies will complete the program. Thursday, one day only, Mabel Taliferro in "A Wife by Proxy."

The power of a woman's jealousy is the underlying theme which gives vivid to "The Love Thief" at the Victoria. William Fox production, "The Love Thief," which will be shown at the Victoria to-morrow and in which are featured Alan Hale and Helen Hartman. It is a story of how one woman has another woman break her engagement with her lover. When the designing woman learns that she cannot hope for the love of the man her respect and strong love she has for him turns into hate. It is then that one sees as never before the real power of a woman's hatred. For Wednesday the Victoria offers the second instalment of "Patria," the picture that has set the whole town, as well as the nation, talking and which features the best-known and best-dressed world, Mrs. Vernon Castle, Robert Warwick, in "The Man Who Forgot," will also be shown on Wednesday. Clara Kimball Young will be seen here in the greatest picture of her career, "The Foolish Virgin," a powerful parodization of the book by the same name.

Marie Doro in the photodramatic version of Charles Dickens' famous story, "Oliver Twist," will be the Regent to-day. "Oliver Twist" is a recent to-day attraction at the Regent to-day and to-morrow. That Marie Doro was an ideal "Oliver" is self-evident, as she is not only the character described by Dickens when arrayed in the arms of the thief, but she is also the country as a perfect "Oliver" when she appeared in the all-star revival of the famous play on the speaking stage a few years ago, and wears the same costumes. Hobart Bosworth shall, one of the cleverest of character actors, wonderfully portrays the part of "Fagin," Raymond Hatton, famous for his work in crook parts, is the Italian "Artful Dodger." Elsie Jane Wilson is cast as "Nancy Sikes" and good, old "Mr. Brownlow," "Oliver's" benefactor, has been placed in the capable hands of James Neill.

A novelty is promised picture lovers of the city by the management of the Victoria Theater in the announcement of the personal appearance of the offering screen stars, Lucille Lee Stewart, and Huntley Gordon, this Friday. Miss Stewart has forged rapidly to the front as a singer, and she has succeeded, it is said, mostly by sheer ability. Miss Stewart will render several little songs and will relate many amusing incidents of her screen career in the Vitagraph studios. A humorous and characteristic monologue, with appropriate costume changes, will be the offering of Mr. Gordon.

WILLIAM S. HART The most popular star on the motion picture screen, who will be seen at the Colonial Theater to-morrow and Wednesday, in his big success, "Truthful Tulliver."

OPPOSES SUNDAY MOVIES Preacher Declares Belief Show Is Only Ruse

A vigorous protest against Sunday movies was made by the Rev. Thomas Reisch, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, last night. He said he had been informed that the management of the Victoria Theater, in Market street, planned to give an exhibition of motion pictures next Sunday for the benefit of Jewish war sufferers, and urged his hearers to take steps through the mayor and chief of police to prevent it. Mr. Reisch said the matter will probably be discussed at a meeting of the Ministerial Association, of this city, late this afternoon. The Rev. Mr. Reisch said that if the association thinks that Sunday movies, shown for the benefit of war sufferers, are not harmful, he will take no action personally.

ANYBODY can tell you what a tobacco costs. But only yo' old pipe can tell you what a tobacco is worth.

Velvet Joe

THERE can't be any better pipe tobacco than VELVET because it is the best of good Burley cured in Nature's way.

No one has been able to equal Nature's method of curing tobacco—two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. It is slow—it is expensive, but if you will try a tin of VELVET today you will know that it is right.

Get clearly in your own mind just what qualities you want your pipe tobacco to have. Then give your old pipe a chance to prove to you that VELVET fills every one of your requirements.

Make any test you like; compare VELVET with any tobacco you choose—and the sooner the better.
