

SO RUN DOWN SHE TOOK OFFTEN

Mrs. Fields Praises Tanlac Thinks It Fine Tonic For Run Down System

DID HER MUCH GOOD

"I certainly owe a debt of gratitude to Tanlac," says Mrs. Susan Fields, of 48 Furnace St., Steelton, Pa. "For it has helped me wonderfully and brought me back to health and happiness so quickly that it is hardly believable.

"I was all run down and my system was so weakened that I took cold easily and then would have a awful time getting rid of it for it would hang on and hang on until I would be worried almost sick."

"I was constipated all the time and I don't believe I was ever without a headache. In fact I was just about as miserable as could be and I just sort of dragged myself through my daily round of household duties.

"I could never seem to get rested but always felt tired out even when I first got up in the mornings."

"I guess my son must have had his eye on me for one day not so long ago he brought me home a bottle of Tanlac and persuaded me to start taking it. I did it just to please him but, my goodness, it helped me so much that I just kept right on with it and now I can truthfully say that it has freed me from all my afflictions."

"My headaches are all gone, I feel bright and happy and I have a splendid appetite. My whole system has been built up by this splendid tonic. I certainly think that every one who is run down should take it."

Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Gorgas' Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

Tanlac is sold also at the Gorgas Drug Store in the P. R. R. Station.

CONFUSION HAS OCCURRED IN LAWS

Chief Moore Calls Attention to Some Conditions Discovered in Compilation

In his report on the codification of the statute of the State, which goes to the Legislature to-night, James N. Moore, chief of the Pennsylvania State Legislative Reference Bureau, calls attention to what he terms "the unsatisfactory condition of our charity laws, especially those relating to the insane."

Mr. Moore announces that codes containing the acts relative to first and second class townships, juvenile courts and relative to the State Board of Public Charities have been prepared in his bureau as well as sixty bills to repeal nearly a thousand obsolete laws. The latter were included in the "omnibus repealer" of last session, but this year all such laws have been grouped.

Concerning the charity laws Mr. Moore says that under the chapter dealing with commitment of insane and inebriates to institutions are found nineteen different methods of commitment. "To the laymen" says he, "this is at once confusing and to the lawyers oftentimes a stumbling block. A similar condition will be found upon consulting the chapter relating to the cost of commitment, care and maintenance of insane and inebriates. So far as possible this confusion has been clarified by the use of headings showing specifically the subject to which each section applies."

discussing the proposed code relative to townships, which goes back to the days of the beginning of the Commonwealth the director says "considerable trouble was experienced with the numerous laws relating to municipalities." While the supreme court has lately ruled that a first class township is not a "municipal corporation," there is a later statute decided by the lower courts which rule that a township is a "municipality."

Attention is called to this indefinite use of the term "municipalities" in the hope that future legislation will be drafted with specific mention of the agencies of the State to which the Legislature intends the legislation to apply."

Mr. Moore acknowledges the assistance given in the compilation of the codes submitted in 1915 and the recognition in the federal and State constitutions as well as the state of affairs by John H. Fertig, now assistant director; Frank M. Hunter and S. Edward Hannedsted, of his staff in the department of laws, and the state books of "a vast mass of legislation that has no place there."

"I don't care to say anything about business. I just don't think that America will supply most of the steel for Europe during the period of reconstruction, for the reason that they will make most of their own steel over there. Both England and Germany are large steel producers."

Mr. Schwab spent a very active day. He took a long chair ride and made a tour of the city in an automobile. Although he declined to discuss the subject, Mr. Schwab intimated that he expected to land the shell contract for the navy which had fallen, of England were recently compelled to reject.

BRITISH CRUISER LAURENTIC SUNK

Former Ocean Liner Victim of Mine or Submarine; Many Lives Lost

London, Jan. 29.—The British auxiliary cruiser Laurentic, of 14,892 tons gross, has been sunk by a submarine or as a result of strike mines, according to a statement issued last night by the admiralty. Twelve officers and 108 men were saved.

The statement adds that the vessel went down off the Irish coast last Thursday.

A ship of her size, even when in the merchant service and carrying no passengers, requires a crew of about 150 men, it is probable there was considerable loss of life when the Laurentic was sunk.

Before being taken over by the admiralty for auxiliary cruiser duty the Laurentic was in the service of the White Star-Donaldson Line. The vessel was owned by the Ocean Steam Navigation Company, of Liverpool.

RUSSIANS BREAK THROUGH TEUTONS

berg came to a pause some months ago. The Turkish troops apparently are the main defenders of the central powers' line in this region and Berlin declares that they have been successful in beating off the assaults made by strong masses of Russians.

The Franco-Belgian front is also breaking out into activity at many points. Berlin reports persistent efforts by the French to recapture their lost positions at Hill 204, northwest of Verdun. A surprise attack, which was followed by three assaults after the Turkish reports were prepared, but these are declared all to have broken down without the slightest gain.

May Start Alsace Drive The possibility pointed to by recent developments that an offensive movement in Alsace was in contemplation by the Germans has not been lost sight of and to-day's reports bring further evidences of somewhat pronounced activity in this sector of the French front.

Numerous patrol clashes there are recorded in the French statement, while in one case something more than a raid was attempted, Paris says an advance being made on one of the French trenches at Hartmannswillerkopf. This, according to Paris, was easily beaten back. Berlin, however, classes it with the other raiding operations and announces that it resulted in the capture of thirty-five prisoners and a machine gun.

The British front in France is also a lively sector. The reported capture by the British last week of an important position near Le Transloy was followed yesterday by fresh assaults delivered by British troops north of Arras. These failed, with severe losses, according to Berlin, while southwest of Le Transloy the Germans captured a British post.

Russia Is Experiencing Famine in Midst of Plenty

London, Jan. 29.—Russia is experiencing famine in the midst of a plenty according to an undated article in the Times from a correspondent in that country. The article refers chiefly but not exclusively to Petrograd and Moscow. The writer believes that there is enough food in Russia to supply the entire population for two years.

Yea, but owing to the inadequacy of the railroads the lack of organization and co-ordination in distribution, the people in some districts find it difficult and even impossible to get supplies.

The people of Petrograd have to stand in queues for many hours to obtain meat, bread, milk, sugar and vegetables. The thermometer in the

Increasing Cold Is Hampering Operations

London, Jan. 29.—The increasing cold is progressively hampering and sometimes halting movements both on land and on sea in Europe. Several Spanish and Swedish harbors in the Categat and Baltic are getting choked with ice and there is a great quantity of ice around, reaching to very considerable distance seaward. Some small vessels are ice-bound off Denmark and the Danish lightships have been withdrawn. The Great Belt, Little Belt and Sound are all threatened with complete closure. It is reported that the southern sound already is frozen over.

The Times correspondent at Rumanian headquarters writing under date of January 4 quotes a Rumanian general as saying that operations were impossible owing to the weather. The correspondent says that Germans recently taken prisoners were wearing summer outfits and that some of them died while marching to internment camps.

Houston, Tex., Jan. 29.—The dislike of Mrs. Trudell, twenty-three-year-old widow, of Camden, N. Wife to Blame if Husband Drinks, Says Druggist Brown of Cleveland, Who Tells Wife What To Do

A New Treatment Given Without the Consent or Knowledge of the Drinker

Cleveland, O.—No wife has a right to blame her husband because he drinks, says Druggist Brown of Cleveland. It is her fault if she lets him drink and bring unhappiness and poverty to her home and she has no right to complain. A woman can stop a drinking husband in a few weeks for half what he would spend on liquor, so why waste sympathy on a wife who refuses to do it? Druggist Brown also says the right time to stop the drink habit is at its beginning unless you want to ruin the deaden the fine sensibilities of the husband you love. Begin with the first drop of liquor on his breath and do not despair if he has gone from bad to worse until he is run-soaked through every kind. The wife who knows the cure and strong drink because he himself has been a victim. He was rescued from the brink of a drunkard's grave by a loving sister who, after ten years' time, revealed the secret to him. She saved him from drink—rescued him from his own depraved self, by giving him a secret remedy, the formula of an old German chemist, who discharged his debt to her and to help other victims out of the murky and mire he has made the formula public. Any druggist can put it in the hands of any suffering wife, mother, sister or daughter. Just ask the druggist for prepared team orders and drop a powder twice a day in tea, coffee, milk or any other drink. Soon liquor does not taste the same, the craving for it disappears and lo, one more drinker is saved and knows not when or why he lost the taste for drink.

Note.—Teacum, referred to above, should be used only when it is desirable to destroy all taste for alcoholic drinks of every kind. The wife who approves of drinking in moderation and believes her husband safe should give it only when she sees, as most do in time, that the danger line is near. Since this formula has been made public H. C. Kennedy, J. Nelson Clark, and other druggists have filled it repeatedly.
