RESOLUTIONS ON PEACE ARE BEFORE SENATE

That Wilson's Address Does Not Propose Limitation of Monroe Doctrine Is Lewis'

Washington, Jan. 30.—Senator Lewis, of Illinois, Democrat, to-day introduced a resolution which would express it to be the sense of the Senate that President Wilson's peace address does not propose abrogation of limitation of the Monroe Doctrine nor propose military aggression by the United States in foreign lands. He asked that the resolution lie on the table.

Another resolution by Senator McCumber, of North Dakota, which also was read and laid on the table, declared that while the Senate sympathized with the President's effort to secure speedy termination of the war, nevertheless it was unable to agree with the President's proposal for "a peace without victory" or the specific terms for the United States joining a world tribunal to enforce peace.

The Lewis resolution designed as a substitute for Senator Borah's proposal reaffirming the Monroe Doctrine and the advice of Washington and Jefferson against foreign alliances would declare:

It is the sense of the Senate that the address of the President delivered to the Senate on the twenty-second of January, 1917, does not propose the abrogation or limitation of the Monroe Doctrine of America, in its effect on territory or naval power of the United States to any foreign territory, except when necessary to preserve the peace of the United States or to protect the just rights of America or where the same is assailed.

Wilson's Speech Lauded by Dr. Bernhard Dernburg

Berlin, Jan. 30.—The moral yeast of President Wilson's message continues its leavening work here surprisingly, and while there is no hope of its leading to practical results in the near future—no hope that it can forestall the horrible manslaughter incidents to the spring's expected superfluities, it has none-the-less had the most lasting impression on the hearts and heads of men here, and the new Monroe Doctrine continues to be discussed all over Germany.

BARUCH MADE $476,168 PRIOR TO PEACE NOTE

From Washington regarding the administration's attitude? Whipple asked. "Absolutely not," he replied. "If I had known of the President's note that day, I could have started in at 10 o'clock and sold my shares for $100,000."

Baruch said he had anticipated the Lloyd George speech replying to the German peace proposals on December 19.

White Makes Denials

As unexpectedly as Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for the House "leak" investigating committee, brought the name of Ambassador White into his examination of the German official friend, Archibald S. White, the New York financier, he suddenly closed his direct interrogation of White to-day after obtaining denials from him that he had received advance information from any German official regarding any of the recent peace movements.

One of these will be entirely of concrete, 288 feet long, at Lyonsville near Hershey. The other two will each be 46 feet long and will be of concrete with iron eyebeams. One of these will be erected near Killinger across the Little Wiconisco creek, the other near Sand Beach across Manada creek.

DAYLIGHT SAVING PLAN CONSIDERED

Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Trade in virtually every large city have given the subject careful study, according to Robert Garland, president of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, and chairman of the special committee of daylight saving of the Chambers of Commerce of the United States. He said that at a meeting of the committee in Pittsburgh last December an exhaustive report was made and that a report will be made at the annual meeting of the national chamber in Washington next Thursday.

Robert Brunet told the convention that, based on facts and figures he had collected, the inauguration of the daylight saving plan will conserve to the citizens of the United States about $40,000,000 per annum. Referring to the argument that the plan is a form of self-deception and that its advocates are not in an altogether healthy state of mind, Mr. Brunet said:

"People are deceived every time they see a clock or watch, for sun time does not coincide with standard time, except in a very few places. The New York people are even slower than the Philadelphia people for standard time here is four minutes behind sun time, while in Philadelphia it is one minute ahead."

Earthquake 5,000 Miles From Washington Throws Seismographs Needles Off

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—A very severe earthquake, the tremors of which continued more than three hours, occurred last night, centered about 5,000 miles from Washington. So severe were the shocks when they reached their maximum intensity that the recording needles of two of the four seismographs at Georgetown University observatory were thrown on the scales. These maximum shocks were recorded on the vertical seismographs at 10.5 and 10.26 o'clock last night. The tremors did not die away until 12.55 o'clock this morning. The first shocks were recorded on the instruments at 9.47 p. m. eastern time.

An earthquake of some intensity had been expected by Director Tondoe of the Georgetown seismograph observatory. He explained to-day that January had been singularly quiet, with only two quakes reported, that in Northern New York State and Quebec Province, Canada, and the very disastrous one on the Island of Bali, in the East Indies, January is one of the months of the season of maximum intensity of earth disturbances.

Like A New Lease on Life He Says

"I feel as if I had a new lease of life and real life at that," says R. S. Ferguson, a well-known civil engineer of Steelton, Pa.

"I was bothered a lot by stomach trouble and constipation and nothing seemed to do me any good although I tried a lot of remedies. I had a nasty breath, my mouth tasted just filthy. I didn't have any appetite and what little food I did worry down didn't seem to digest. I would fill chuck up with gas after every meal and this would push up against my heart making it work like a trip-hammer and every once in a while it would seem to miss a beat. I heard a lot about Tanlac, and I said to myself one day, 'I'm tired and feeling rotten, I guess I'll give this medicine a try out and see if its any better than the others.'"

"To my surprise it helped me right from the start off. My appetite began to come back and when I ate my stomach was ready to take care of it and I never had a sign of the gaseous trouble."

"That bad taste went out of my mouth and my breath has lost that nasty odor, all thanks to Tanlac. It's a fine medicine for a weak stomach that's sure and I'm glad to recommend it."

Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Gorman's Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

MUST NOT RESIGN TREATY RIGHTS

Mexican Assembly Withdraws Act Requiring Foreigners to Renounce Nationality

Queretaro, Mexico, Jan. 29.—On the recommendation of Foreign Minister Aguilar, the constitutional assembly to-day withdrew for reconsideration and amendment article 33 of the next constitution, which was under consideration.
The provision in this article regarding which the foreign minister addressed the assembly and the revision of which he recommended was that requiring foreigners to renounce nationality and treaty rights in so far as they affected property they wished to acquire before they could acquire it. The discussion was suspended for an hour while the committee withdrew for amendment of the article.
The assembly planned a continuous session from 3 o'clock this afternoon until midnight of January 31 for the completion of its work. The only measures remaining for consideration are the articles dealing with the expulsion of foreigners and the acquisition of land by foreigners and that providing for army reorganization, together with some minor matters still requiring attention. The article dealing with the army, especially the pro-

PRAISE MEXICO POLICY

London, Jan. 30.—In an editorial praising the Mexican policy of the United States the Manchester Guardian says: "To say that the whole country has been reduced to order would be exaggerating, but the area of disorder has been greatly diminished and is less now than at any time since the revolution against Diaz. President Wilson's Mexican policy has been guided by two principles—determination to avoid the Jincoist, which is the cover of capitalistic hunger, and determination to allow Mexico to work out her salvation with as much help and as little interference as possible from the United States. The policy has difficulties and trials which are not yet over, but it is beginning to be vindicated by its fruits."

The contract for providing workmen's compensation for city employ-was awarded to the United States Fidelity and Guarantee Company, of Baltimore, Md.) Other business matters disposed of included increasing the vaccination appropriation to the Harrisburg Hospital from $250 to $500; passing finally the amended ordinance providing ambulance service for the city by paying the Harrisburg Hospital to furnish the service; fixing the tax on real estate men at $5 per year, and eliminating the clauses providing for a $2 tax with additional fees of 1-5 mill per dollar for all real estate transactions handled by dealers. This was done, it was explained, to insure a uniform revenue from all dealers.

Reading first from testimony previously taken by the committee in Washington, Whipple brought out that details of the German government's peace proposals and President Wilson's peace note were known in a German official headquarters here and in Washington before they were made public and asked White if he received any advance information from any German official through such channels. White answered negatively.

Swear Lawson Story False

Denials by Pliny Fisk and Archibald S. White, widely known New York financiers, that there was any truth in Thomas W. Lawson's allegations coupling the name of Secretary McAdoo with Wall street have greatly clarified the work of the "leak."

Will Soon End

With most of Mr. Lawson's sensational "leak" charges denied by witnesses under oath, the investigation to-day foresaw the close of their inquiry in New York. No other New York persons were said by Lawson to have knowledge of the Secretary's alleged relation in the financial world.
Unless Lawson furnishes new names to the committee investigation of the story probably will close with the formal denial of it by Secretary McAdoo before the committee in Washington and the calling of Mrs. Ruth Thomson Visconti who, according to Lawson, implicated Secretary Tumulty and others in "leak" charges.
