

H. W. BUSER DIES AT HUMMELSTOWN

Served as Sheriff of Dauphin County and Postmaster of Hummelstown Borough

Hummelstown, Pa., Jan. 31. — H. Wells Buser, aged 63 years, ex-sheriff of Dauphin county and ex-postmaster of Hummelstown, died yesterday at the home of his son, Grover C. Buser, in East Main street. Mr. Buser was for years prominent in politics in Dauphin county and held a number of political positions at various periods in his life. He was for years high constable of Hummelstown. His wife died about a year ago, since which time he has lived with his son.

Mr. Buser was born in Hummelstown, November 12, 1853, and was a son of the late Jacob and Eliza Buser. His wife was Miss Sarah E. Hummel, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Abner Hummel. He received his education in the local schools and learned the molder's trade but did not follow this occupation. He served as postmaster of Hummelstown during President Cleveland's first administration, was a clerk in the Adjutant General's office at Harrisburg during the term of General W. W. Greenland, and was appointed to fill the vacancy of sheriff made vacant by the death of Sheriff Samuel Keiser. He was one of the organizers and for many years a stockholder of the Hummelstown Water Company and was also one of the organizers and stockholders of the American Publishing Company of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Buser was active in secret society organizations and was a past state counselor of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics and a past national representative of the organization. He was also a member of the board of directors of the American Funeral Benefit Association for a number of years. He was a member of Derry Council No. 40, Junior Order United Mechanics, and has been a trustee of the council since its organization. He was also a member of Golden Link Council No. 163, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, of Hummelstown, and a member of the Shepherds of Bethlehem, of Harrisburg.

Mr. Buser was a Democrat and served as clerk to the Democratic State Committee during the Pattison campaign and was secretary of the Democratic County Committee for thirteen years. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Alfred McCall, of Hummelstown; Mrs. Edith Seiple, of Greenville, Pa.; William Buser, of Hershey; Frank Buser, of Philadelphia, and Grover C. Buser, of Hummelstown. A sister, Mrs. Ida Solomon, of Harrisburg, also survives.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of his son, conducted by the Rev. Robert A. Bausch, pastor of the Reformed Church.

Yankee Hartman Fools His Rivals in Dog Race; Travels While They Sleep

Dalton, Minn., Jan. 31.—While seven entries in the Winnipeg-St. Paul dog race slept here last night, in the belief that Fred Hartman, the American driver would be forced to stop for the night many miles behind them "The Yankee" as Hartman is known to his rivals, passed through here in the dead of night, headed for Ashby, Minn., eight miles southwest of here.
During the night efforts were made by officials of the race to locate Hartman but without success. It is the belief of some that he made his night control at a farm house, and will make his whereabouts known, only when he arrives at Evansville, 19 miles from here, during the forenoon.
When Hartman left Fergus Falls last night he announced he would "hit the trail" again at daylight, no matter at what hour he tied up for the night.

The townspeople at Fergus Falls asked him to stop there. A banquet had been prepared, but instead of being the guest of honor, Hartman pushed out into the teeth of a north-west gale, and is believed to have covered more than fifty miles during the day and part of the night, as against 33 miles covered by his rivals, who spent the night here.

BRYAN SCENTS MILITARISM
Says Munition Makers and Professional Soldiers Are at Work to Convert Country

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 31.—William Jennings Bryan, addressed the Tennessee Legislature at a joint session yesterday. He said army and naval officers were lionized at Washington above civilian officials of such departments as agriculture, commerce and labor, and declared that "if this is to be a democratic nation there must be a lifting up of the latter to the plane of the soldier or a leveling of the soldier." He said munition makers and professional soldiers were trying to convert the United States into a military nation.

THE REV. W. L. MARTIN DIES
The Rev. W. L. Martin, a retired United Brethren minister, who served Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia, died at Richmond, Va., aged 72 years. For many years he was secretary of the Pennsylvania conference. He was a veteran of the Civil War.

Mifflin Co. People Feed Wild Turkeys and Pheasants

Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 31.—Hard crust on the snow for the past two weeks has made it almost impossible for wild turkeys and pheasants to get feed in the woods and they are being fed by game wardens and others. A big flock of turkeys in Haverly Valley are being fed by Horace Brown. Boy Scouts have been feeding turkeys in the New Lancaster Valley and several days ago about half a dozen scouts on this mission found themselves ten miles from a town in the woods at night and had to spend the night in a cabin.

HURT BY RUNAWAY HORSE
Lewistown, Pa., Jan. 31.—Mahager Houtz, of the local branch of the Union and Pacific Tea Company, met with an accident while driving near the Five Points here. The king bolt of the wagon dropped out of place and the front wheels became disconnected. This frightened the horse and it dashed down the street with Houtz clinging to the lines. Mr. Houtz received a deep gash on the head and a number of bruises about the body.
