Tech will lose the services of fourteen players who won their "T" during the past season. Those who played their last game are Captain Harris, "Muzz" Miller, Philipelli, "Snitz" Snyder, "Dinty" Wear, Fitzpatrick, Gipple Byster, McFarland, Garman, Todd, McGann and Mell. While this list contains some of the best players who everdonned a Tech uniform, Tech's prospects continue to be bright.

In Captain "Ted" Lloyd Tech has an able field general who should prove a big star next season. In the freshman class are Beck and Wilsbach, two back field men who have three years more to compete. Others who will be on hand are Luster, a guard; Bell and Ebner, ends; Frock, center; Hoerner, quarterback; Peifer, tackle; Miller, fullback; Brough, tackle; Ramey, quarterback; Lingle and Fisher, halfbacks.

Sophomore Tossers Win in Interclass Contest: Add to Seniors' Woe

The fourth contest in the Tech interclass league was pulled off in the Tech gymnasium yesterday afternoon and resulted in a 27 to 26 victory for the Sophomores. The Seniors were the losers. Bihl was high man for the second year team, scoring two field goals in addition to sending 13 out of 17 fouls through the net. The line-up and summary:

BOXERS MAY LOSE OUT

New York, Jan. 31. — Boxing promoters expressed fears to-day that the game would suffer further restriction at the hands of the State Legislature. It was reported that Governor Whitten at the hands of the State Legislature to repeal the present law which permits ten-round bouts without a decision. The rumor was without confirmation, either in Albany or New York.

President Tener in Favor of Larger Home Plate

of Larger Home Plate

New York, Jan. 31. — President John K. Tener, of the National League, said to-day that he will submit to the joint rules committee, which meets here next month, a recommendation to increase the width of the home plate from seventeen to eighteen inches, and send a batsman to first base on three balls instead of four. Such a change in the rules, he declares, would bring about the desired increase in batting.

"I believe simply sending a batsman to first base on three balls instead of four would be too great a change, and would throw the balance too much in favor of the batsman," Tener said.

"By widening the plate an inch, however, the pitcher would have a better opportunity of getting the ball over, but such a change would be about two-thirds in favor of the batsman.

"I believe increasing the width of the plate would have more of a psychological effect than an actual one.
The pitcher, knowing the plate had been widened, would have more confidence in his ability to\get the ball over, while the batsman, also conscious of the increased width of the plate, would feel he had to hit the ball instead of trying to wait for a base on balls."

firmation, either in Albany or New York.

Developments in the boxing game expected to affect the future of the sport include the investigation now in propress of charges against Frederick A. Wenck, chairman of the State Athietic Commission, and the death of Stephen McDonald, who was killed last night in the first round of a professional bout at Albany.

to-day. Horton's time in the final heat of the 220 was 20 1-5 seconds, but he wen the second heat of the semifinal in twenty seconds flat.

Doings in the Folwell Case During Twenty-Four Hours

The developments in the battle be-tween Bob Folwell and the Penn faculty committee are summed up as follows:

faculty committee are summed up as follows:

Twenty-one members of the house of representatives, in session at Harrisburg, who are Penn alumni, plan to send a petition for Folwell's reinstatement as coach of the Penn football team.

Alumni in New York, shocked at his dismissal, also plan to petition the faculty for the Mullica Hill man's reappointment as coach.

Raised havoc with the student body, which is plunged into struggle with midyear examinations.

Undergraduates are heart and soul with Folwell, and await announcement by committee before taking any action.

Faculty committee will hold meeting this afternoon, and it is expected the reasons for Folwell's dismissal will be announced.

Rumored that a big shake-up in the athletic affairs at Penn is imminent.

LEBANON LEADERS STATE LEAGUE TO TO MEET CENTRAL

Central high tossers will oppose Lebanon high quintet Friday evening on auditorium floor. This will be one on auditorium floor. This will be one of the hardest games on Central's schedule as Lebanon has been traveling at a fast clip this season and is leading the result of the central Pennsylvania Scholastic League. The Forster street boys are tied for first place, but have only played one league game.

The Blue and Gray squad is constantly improving and although fans look for a hard game Friday it is believed that Central will score another victory. "Dick" Gregory's star playing for the locals stood out prominently at York last Friday and he is expected to cause trouble for the Lebanon representatives.

Lebanon.

Central high girls will play Lebanon Valley Co-eds before and between the halves of the league game friday. This team defeated the Blue and Gray girls in a close game at Annville on January 19. The captain, Miss Helen Rote, and her colleagues are expected to triumph this time. Playing on their home floor is expected to be a strong advantage for the Harrisburg girls. These games are always a strong attraction.

Reports from the circuit indicate all towns ready to start, notwithstanding that Elmira is still an uncertainty as to backers. Utica owners are trying to sell out, and it is understood that Allentown and Bethlehem will make bids for a franchise.

Williamsport, it is said, will not make a dicker.

Manager George Cockill's plans have not been made public. He expects to come to Harrisburg Friday or Saturday. He has been in consultation with prospective local backers, and it expected that activity will start within two weeks.

'Bob" Folwell Has Backers; to Reopen Case Today

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 31. — The case of "Bob" Folwell, deposed as Penn football coach by the refusal of the faculty committee to consider his name as a candidate for reappointment, will be reopened. This developed last night when Dr. A. W. Goodspeed, chairman of the faculty committee, announced that his committee would convene in special session to-day for the purpose of further discussing the Folwell matter.

John Clarke, president of the senior class at the University, has been invited to attend the meeting as a representative of the student body.

The announcement that this meeting would be called came at the end of a day of protest against the dropping of Folwell, which culminated in a paper signed by twenty-one members of the State Legislature, urging the faculty committee to retain the coach. The reopening of the case is considered a signal victory for Folwell in his fight against what he designates as the "old guard" at Penn.
