MGR. KOCH, AGED PRIEST, IS DEAD

Was Close Friend of Rt. Rev. M. M. Hassett; Donated Main Altar in Cathedral

MONSIGNOR J. J. KOCH.

Monsignor John Joseph Koch, rector of St. Edward's Roman Catholic Church, Shamokin, since its creation in 1866, died yesterday at the rectory of a complication of diseases following a long illness. He was aged 77 years and was the oldest priest in point of service in this section of the State.

Monsignor Koch was a close friend of the Rt. Rev. M. M. Hassett, rector of St. Patrick's Cathedral, this city, and was well known here at the time of the erection of the Cathedral. He donated the main altar in the edifice at a cost of thousands of dollars.

Monsignor Koch was a frequent visitor here and the news of his death was learned with deep sorrow.

It is probable that a number of people from Harrisburg will attend the funeral services.

As vicar general of the Harrisburg diocese of the church he was administrator from the time of the death of Bishop Thomas McGovern until the appointment of the late Bishop John W. Shanahan. Monsignor Koch took an active interest in affairs in all parts of the diocese, contributed personally to church work in various sections. His was one of the largest parishes in the diocese. His church numbered between three and four thousand members and he had three assistant priests.

The fiftieth jubilee of his coming to Shamokin was celebrated last September, and the committee for this event will complete arrangements for the funeral.

Monsignor John Joseph Koch was born in Lorraine, France, in 1840. He was educated in French universities, coming to Philadelphia in 1861. Two years later after his ordination as a priest he was sent to Milton as a missionary in charge of five parishes. In 1867 he went to Shamokin and was chiefly instrumental in erecting a new edifice for St. Edward's Church.

Everett Hallman, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church, delivered an address. The West End rally in the St. Matthew's Lutheran Church to-morrow evening promises to be a big event. The Rev. F. F. FACIAL NEURALGIA BROKE HIM ALL UP

Pain Was So Bad He Couldn't Get a Night's Rest and Health Suffered

TANLAC RELIEVED HIM

Abraham Harvey, a track walker, who lives at Lucknow, Pa., is going around lately wearing a smile that won't come off and it's such a happy change from the "grouch" he carried for a while that his friends are asking him the why of all the happiness.

He says, "Happy! Well I guess you'd be happy too, if you had gotten rid of agony such as I have been going through.

"I had neuralgia of the face and neck and it sure did raise hob with me. Pain? I never suffered so in my life and I hope I'll never go through such agony again. Why the pain never stopped for a minute day or night. My hammer where the hammer me like a hundred imps with red hot hammers banging away at my face and neck.

"I couldn't sleep for the pain even when I was so tired I couldn't hold my eyes open, the best I could get was catnaps, for the pain seemed to get worse at night.

"I lost my appetite and didn't want to eat and I was all run down from loss of sleep and the strain on my nerves.

"I tried all sorts of medicines, but none of them did more than ease the pain temporarily, until I began taking Tanlac and believe it or not I began to feel better from the first dose.

"Now my neuralgia is gone, my appetite has come back and I sleep fine all night long. That's why I'm looking so happy."

Tanlac, the famous reconstructive tonic, is now being introduced here at Gorgas' Drug Store, where the Tanlac man is meeting the people and explaining the merits of this master medicine.

WANTS MISUSE OF AUTO'S STOPPED

Governor Asks Highway Commissioner Stop Joyriders

Governor Brumbaugh to-day informed Highway Commissioner Frank B. Black that the charge had been made that State automobiles in charge of the Highway Department were being used for trips to ball games at Atlantic City and to places which he considered "clearly beyond" what the cars were intended for and asked him to make some suggestions for a way to check the misuse.

The Governor says he cannot for a moment approve use of cars for other than official business, and wishes Mr. Black to give his idea of how to stop the use except for State business.

In his letter the Governor says: "Frank B. Black, Highway Commissioner, Harrisburg, Pa."

My Dear Sir—When I assumed office it was reported to me from a number of places that the State automobiles were used for trips to ball games, to Atlantic City and to other places clearly beyond the districts for which the cars were provided. This misuse of cars was especially to be in the Highway Department.

With your predecessor, Mr. Cunningham, we considered this matter in places that the State automobiles were used for trips to ball games, to Atlantic City and to other places clearly beyond the districts for which the cars were provided. This misuse of cars was especially to be in the Highway Department.

Very truly yours, (Signed) M. G. BRUMBAUGH.

the months between April 1 and December 1.

Eight hundred national and local commercial organizations were said to be represented at the meeting. The railroad situation was the topic for tonight's session, and the result of a referendum on the subject of daylight strike prevention and other labor problems was to be announced. National defense, foreign relations and preparation for business conditions after the war will be considered later this week, and President Wilson and former President Taft are speakers on the program for a concluding dinner Friday night.

President Wilson Pledges Aid to Daylight Saving

New York, Jan. 31.—A letter from President Wilson supporting the object of the movement to turn the clock forward one hour during the summer months was read to-day at the National Daylight Saving Convention in session here. The communication came in response to a resolution adopted by the convention, setting forth the purpose of the movement.

The president wrote: "Your letter of January 26 unhappily reached me too late for me to send a letter which would get to you by the 30th.

"I would have been glad to back up any movement which has the objects of the daylight saving movement."

Baseball Fans Should Back Daylight Saving

Tener Says at Convention

New York, Jan. 31.—Baseball "fans" should get behind the proposition to turn the clocks of the country ahead an hour during the summer months, said John K. Tener, of the National Baseball League, in his address at the National Daylight Saving convention here to-day. It would have the effect, he declared, of giving more time to millions of people for the physical and mental enjoyment derived from every form of amusement that is permissible only during daylight.

"The American game of baseball," said Mr. Tener, "never has had an equal as an outdoor sport and it is hardly conceivable that it ever will. It seems that this game of our own invention includes and embraces every essential that stimulates the mind, re-creates the exhausted faculties, amuses the jaded sense, revives the sluggish blood, makes strong the weak muscle and impels a vigor and health to the body that no other form of exercise combining the element of sport can accomplish."

Saving of Millions A saving of millions of dollars would result from the substitution of an hour's daylight for an hour during which artificial illumination of some kind must be resorted to, Dr. George F. Kunz, of New York, told the convention. The gas consumption by the people of Vienna during the five months of daylight saving in Austria, Dr. Kunz said, "is said to have been reduced 158,915,290 cubic feet, resulting in a saving of $142,000."

Milton W. Harrison, secretary of the savings bank section of the American Bankers' Association, said he considered the daylight saving plan "the longest step toward the greater thrift and conservation in the individual American that has been taken in the history of the nation."

Fletcher Is Preparing to Leave For Mexico to Resume Relations

Washington, D. C., Jan. 31.—Henry P. Fletcher was preparing to-day to leave for Mexico with a few days to assume the position of American ambassador, unfilled since Henry Lane Wilson was recalled after the assassination of Madero and the assumption of Huerta, four months ago. He will be accompanied by an embassy staff. It is believed General Carranza will reciprocate by sending an accredited ambassador to Washington.

This will mean the resumption of formal diplomatic intercourse which has not existed since April 23, 1914, when Charge Nelson O'Shaughnessy was handed his passports by Huerta on the occupation of Vera Cruz by American marines.

Mr. Fletcher was born in the Cumberland Valley and has a wide acquaintance in this vicinity.

Tech Boys Make Fifty Safety First Standards For School Buildings

Fifty "safety first" standards to be used in front of the public school buildings are being made by Technical High School students. The work on the standards is being done by four different departments. Boys in the pattern room turned out the bases; students in the forge shop did the steel sign cards; the machine shop classes took care of that phase of the work; the drawing department sections did the lettering which reads: "Slow Down, Public School."
