

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

HOCKER-REIGLE QUIET CEREMONY

The Bridegroom's Father Officially at Pretty Wedding at Home of the Bride

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reigle, of 1446 Market street have sent out cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Melle Louise Reigle, to the Rev. M. Luther Hocker, of Westville, N. J., a son of the Rev. and Mrs. M. P. Hocker, of Middletown.

The ceremony, performed by the groom's father, a retired minister, now associated with the Emaus Orphanage at Middletown, took place at 1 o'clock. Only the immediate families were present. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of white georgette crepe over white silk with beaded trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of midge roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception for the very intimate friends and relatives of the young couple at her home, where a color scheme of pink and white, with palms, snapdragon and mimosa was cleverly carried out in the artistic decorations.

The Rev. and Mrs. Hocker will leave in a few days for a Southern wedding trip including Washington, D. C., Old Point Comfort and various interesting places in the South. Upon their return they will reside in Westville, N. J., where the Rev. Mr. Hocker is officiating clergyman of St. John's Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Mr. Hocker is a graduate of Dr. White's Bible School, of New York city, and of the Gettysburg Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Sharpe, of Chambersburg, are guests of Mrs. H. D. Boas, of 505 North Front street.

Charles Segelbaum, a Dickinson College student, has returned to Carlisle after a brief visit at his home, 120 South Second street.

Miss Elizabeth Bernger Hurlock, a student at Bryn Mawr College, is spending the semester vacation with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Spry Hurlock, of 1719 North Front street.

MEETING OF S. S. S. CLUB

The S. S. S. Club of Central High School held its third meeting last evening at the home of Miss Margaret Geisinger, 2228 North Sixth street. Officers were elected and games and refreshments enjoyed by the members, who included Miss Catharine Aiding, Miss Letha Fair, Miss Elizabeth Leak, Miss Naomi Matz, Miss Rebecca Stewart, Miss Martina Moeslein, Miss Nora Lipp, Miss Mildred Goetz, Miss Marie Perry, Miss Gertrude Draybaugh, Miss Frances Dunlap, Miss Catherine Bowers, Miss Margaret Myers and Miss Margaret Geisinger.

Winterdale Dances

Society Colored String Orchestra Thursday evenings. Band and Orchestra Saturday evenings. Regular Orchestra Tuesdays.—adv.

CHARITY BALL IS BRILLIANT SUCCESS

$3,000 Realized For Associated Aid Societies; Beautiful Pageant of "America"; Decorations of Trumpet Flowers and Doves of Peace; All Society in Attendance

The committee in charge of the Charity Ball announces to-day that more than $3,000 was cleared for the Associated Aid Societies by last night's brilliant event. The response of everyone was so hearty in whatever way aid was asked that success was assured from the very first.

Prosala Chestnut Street Auditorium, black and barren under the cool light of day, was transformed into a veritable fairyland last night when Harrisburg turned out en masse for the annual Charity Ball. It was most fitting that a pleasure time, of a people blessed with peace and plenty, should carry the message to each and every one to remember all the world was not so fortunate. White peace doves hung suspended over the heads of the dancers and pure white Easter lilies banked the front of the stage. Festooned from the green girders of the Auditorium hung countless sprays of southern smilax from which peeped by thousands the orange-red bells of crepe paper trumpet flowers. The lights were shaded in the same color while an odd note of contrast appeared in the blue-bells used to decorate the stage. Flags of the nations hung with the smilax half concealed by its profusion.

The Sara Lemer orchestra and the Palm Beach orchestra of Baltimore, held their platforms on opposite sides of the hall and by playing alternately allowed the dancing to keep up continuously. On three sides of the dancing floor were the private boxes draped with white and gaily decorated with smilax and flowers. These were all sold out some days ago and were filled with congenial parties both local and suburban. Back of them and in the gallery the seats were filled to their fullest capacity with spectators.

The evening opened with a short pageant, "America." Across the back wall of the stage hung a huge map of the United States bearing the words in large letters, "Hope Of The World," while a flock of doves hung just overhead. Eight Harrisburg men: Farley Gannett, Theodore Seelye, John C. Hierman, Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., Ehrman, B. Mitchell, F. G. Gould, Henderson Gilbert and Jackson H. Boyd, met America's honor guard composing Miss Suzanne Fleming, Miss Elizabeth Bailey, Miss Frances Bailey, Miss Virginia King, Miss Augusta Hean, Miss Mary Boas, Miss Dora Wickersham Coe and Mrs. Robert McCreath each dressed as Columbus. Through large black and white paper stars stepped our distant colonies: The Philippines represented by Mrs. William S. Bergner; Hawaii, Miss Katharine Elter; Porto Rico, Mrs. Elaine Reily; Alaska, Miss Elizabeth Knisely and the Indians, Miss Myrvinne Leason.

For each of these was a sailor lad in the costume decreed by Uncle Sam but bearing the names of John Comstock, Samuel W. Fleming, Jr., Dr. Geo. R. Moffitt, John Magoun and Wm. McCraith. During their drill, America, herself appeared (Mrs. Roy Cox) radiant in shimmering white satin, a gilt crown topping her flowing hair and bearing an immense flag and shield. Up flared the light which had been subdued as out rang her clear perfect voice in our beloved "Star Spangled Banner." This was followed by our national anthem followed by "America," in which they joined. When Mrs. Cox stepped down the white staircase leading to the stage followed by her guards, her colonels, troops and sailors and the grand march was begun, the signal for the beginning of the ball itself.

Supper was served in the smaller hall adjoining where the color scheme was sky blue and white. Up and down the outer staircase and in every available spot was draped the smilax and brilliant trumpet flowers. Due credit should be given the committee of arrangements for the system with which the immense crowd was handled. An effort was made at the first to have it entirely a black and white ball as far as guests were concerned but the ban was lifted a few days ago and frocks of every style and hue were seen.

Many Handsome Costumes

One of the most interesting of the box parties was that of Mr. and Mrs. William Edgar Bailey who had as guests, the Governor and Mrs. Martin G. Brumbaugh, Miss Violet Oakley, Miss Emily Bailey, Paul and George Bailey. Mrs. Brumbaugh was charming in pink satin and tulle embroidered in silver roses. Miss Oakley wore heavy white satin and Mrs. Bailey, royal blue net with jets. Mrs. Harvey F. Smith, another box hostess wore blue velvet; Mrs. Paul Garfield Smith, blue net and satin; Mrs. Archibald G. Knisely, black net over satin with jets; Miss Elizabeth Knisely, white tulle and satin; Mrs. David Kaufman, black and blue sequins; Mrs. William Friedman, of New York, white satin and cloth of silver; Mrs. David A. Tracy, black net over flesh colored satin with jets; Miss Marie Tracy, of Conshohocken, shrimp pink satin and crystal trimmings; Mrs. Philip T. Meredith, black net with sequins; Mrs. Robert M. Rutherford, black silk net over satin with silver garnitures; Mrs. Frank Payne, American beauty velvet with rhinestone bodice; Mrs. John Kinley Tener, of Philadelphia, black velvet with jet ornaments; Mrs. Walter P. Maguire, black velvet with silver and jet trimmings; Mrs. Quincy Bent, black satin and net with touches of jet and silver; Mrs. James E. Cann, of Philadelphia, white tulle and satin; Mrs. Henderson Gilbert, green chiffon and silk with silver trimmings; Mrs. Marlin E. Olmsted, an artistic creation of black and white satin with touches of brilliant blue; Mrs. Russell Palmer, peachblow veiling frock over taffetas; Mrs. Joshua W. Sharpe, of Chambersburg, amethyst velvet with gold lace trimmings; Mrs. Lane Hart, Jr., pale pink silk lace over blue pink satin embroidered in silver and gold; Mrs. Arthur H. Bailey, black silk net over white satin with iridescent trimmings; Mrs. James Thompson, orchid pink net over black embroidered in silver; Miss Martha Davis Bullitt, pink tulle over pink satin with silver trimmings; Mrs. George Preston Main, black tulle over black satin with bodice of sequins and jets; Mrs. F. Herbert Snow, black Japanese marquisette embroidered in green gold over black satin, with gold fringe; Mrs. H. Boas, black lace over black taffetas; Miss Cora Lee Snyder, black lace gown over white satin with jet trimmings; Miss Cora Lee Snyder, black taffetas, net and jet; Mrs. Samuel C. Todd, green and white crepe over chiffon with brocade velvet and silver lace trimmings; Mrs. Mark Hopkins, of Detroit, white lace over white satin; Mrs. George E. Etter, black shirred bodice; Miss Sarah F. Hastings, white tulle and silver garnitures; Mrs. J. Austin Brandt, blue satin with silver trimmings; Miss Alice Musgrove, black panne velvet gown with jet trimmings; Mrs. Louis F. Eichenlaub, white tulle over satin with iridescent trimmings; Mrs. Charles Rehuck, shell pink satin with net over dress and peplum of velvet; Mrs. Joseph L. Shearer, golden brown net and gold panel; Mrs. Clarence L. Miller, light blue satin with silver embroidered spiderweb panels and bodice of silver net; Mrs. Helen G. Bent, black silk net over silver cloth with long silver beaded bodice; Miss Julia Stamm, yellow tulle over white lace with broad girdle of gold cloth and ostrich garnitures; Miss Caroline Hahn, blue satin with silver trimmings; Miss Mildred Astrich, pale pink satin with long beaded bodice and net over-dress; Miss Caroline Weiss, flame colored panne velvet with gold lace trimmings; Mrs. Helen Astrich, black silk net over black satin with jet trimmings; Mrs. Charles A. Utley, white satin with silver net and garnitures of net and jet; Mrs. Ross A. Hickok, black panne velvet with jet girdle and panel; Miss Helen G. Bent, black tulle over white satin with silver trimmings and shirred bodice; Miss Emily Bailey, white satin with white net over-dress; Mrs. Vera Myers, pink satin with old lace trimmings; Miss Helen Gerdes, turquoise taffetas with silver trimmings; Margaret McLain, white satin with over-dress of blue tulle; Mrs. Cyrus Wood, black tulle over satin with blue tulle draperies and bodice of gold Hershey's frog-tulle over white satin with iridescent bodice; one G. Selzer, black silk net over black tulle; Miss Nancy Shank, white silk net and satin; Miss Anne McCormick, black silk net over black satin with garnitures of velvet; Miss Sue Seller, black net over black satin; Miss Kathleen Westbrook, white silver beaded net over white satin; Mrs. Archibald E. Millar, shrimp pink and tulle; Margaret R. Boas, black silk net over black satin with jet bodice; Mrs. George Kunkel in white, satin and tulle; Mrs. Charles J. Wood, Jr., blue

BURNS FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE!

STARTS TO-MORROW FEBRUARY FIRST

The Greatest Sale of Them All--More Variety-- Lower Prices--Most Liberal Terms--

GREATER! Because we have the largest stock of homefurnishings in Central Pennsylvania to choose from — GREATER! Because we have the lowest prices, and sell more furniture during our February Furniture Sale than any store in Harrisburg — GREATER! Because no cheap, (Sale made) furniture enters our Big Sale — Every article is from our regular stock, and any housewife in this section will tell you that when Burns & Co. cut a price — It's a GENUINE price reduction, and not one that (exists on paper alone) — OUR February Sale is one of the most looked-forward-to furniture selling events of the entire year — For then — and only then, can you get such tremendous price concessions on absolutely reliable furnishings.

10 to 50% SAVINGS

Are offered you during this great February Sale — on matched suites for every room, in oak, mahogany, white or ivory enamel, circassian and American walnut, or Bird's-eye maple — odd rockers and chairs in tapestry or leather, or of solid wood — odd dressers, and chiffoniers in all woods and finishes—Beds of every kind, parlor, living-room, and den sets — Gas and electric lamps in an almost endless variety — And there's a thousand and one other items that we can't enumerate here for lack of space — Come — and come early, is our advice; for many of the best bargains will go out during the early days of the sale, and we won't be able to duplicate them again at anywhere near these Special Sale Prices.

Couples Who Are Going to Have a Home of Their Own

Every couple who plan to keep house this month, or any time this year should buy their furnishings during this sale, for prices are at their lowest level now. Don't wait for another day. Decide to purchase while these prices last for goods of the same quality will be from 20 to 33 1-3 per cent. higher next month.

Furnishings For 4 Rooms $158.00

On Liberal Terms

Select Your Rugs and Furniture Now at February Sale Prices

This Big February Sale makes it possible for every one to save from $10 to $30 on each roomful of furniture selected. Whether you need a single article or a whole houseful, we can save you 10 to 50 per cent. of the price. Young couples can buy the furnishings for their new home and have them stored in our building until wanted.

USE OUR CAPITAL YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

We wish to emphasize "Your Credit Is Good" for one article, or a houseful. Come, and make your selections at the February Sale Prices and have your purchases charged. Pay us as is most convenient. A small amount each week or month. By using our dignified club plan, you can have a beautifully furnished home and never feel the small outlay of cash required.

Furnishings For 3 Rooms

$110.00

On Liberal Terms

"WHERE Your Mother Bought HER Furniture"

net over taffetas with steel trimmings; Miss Mary Jennings, black net with garnitures of silver; Miss Caroline Moffitt, black tulle over white satin; Mrs. Edward Cooper, shell pink silk with lace and sequins; Mrs. James Fry Bullitt, black velvet and net over white satin; Mrs. E. E. Beideman, shell pink satin with silk net over skirt and beaded bodice; Miss Clara Segelbaum, apricot satin with gold trimmings; Mrs. Berne H. Evans, black velvet with silver trimmings; Mrs. Walter H. Gaither, black panne velvet gown with jet overskirt; Mrs. W. Frank Witman, black silk net over silver cloth embroidered in silver; Mrs. Edgar D. Hilleary, black chiffon and lace over white silk with jet trimmings; Mrs. George Bratton, black net over yellow; Mrs. Charles D. Stucker, wistaria messaline with gold trimmings and bodice with gold bandings.

Mrs. David S. Funk, black satin, jets and oriental embroideries; Mrs. Thomas E. Bowman, black chiffon and net; Mrs. Paul Johnston, embroidered white Georgette crepe; Miss Emily Bailey, white tulle skirts with bodice of black and white striped satin; Mrs. Chandler Hale, black tulle and diamond pendant earrings; Miss Alice Wallis, black tulle, soft and fluffy; Mrs. Albert L. Allen, white and black tulle and white tulle and satin with jets; Mrs. J. Allen Donaldson, white satin and silver; Mrs. D. I. Caldwell, black tulle and satin; Mrs. Joseph Goldsmith, black satin and sequins; Mrs. Mercer B. Tate, black satin and net with corsage of violets; Mrs. John C. Herman, white satin brocaded in gold and silver; Mrs. George Douglas Ramsey, pearl gray brocaded satin with old lace; Mrs. William Henderson, turquoise blue satin and lace; Mrs. William Webster Finney, of Churchville, Md., black tulle and jets; Miss Anne McCormick, black tulle and silver; Mrs. Redecker Brinser, white satin and silver lace; Mrs. Herman Astrich, black satin with jets and touches of fur; Mrs. Harry Taylor Neale, pink satin brocaded in silver and gold; Mrs. Mossbacher, of New York, black satin with lace and sequins; Mrs. Thomas Baldwin, white tulle with silver ribbons and silver slippers; Mrs. Edward Singer, black tulle with jetted tulle overdress; Mrs. Brooke Trout, yellow taffetas with net overdress; Mrs. Rudolph K. Spicer, peach colored silk over dress with lace and tulle; Miss Miriam Lovenstein, of Philadelphia, blue satin with silver embroidered; Mrs. John Musser, black and white satin and tulle; Mrs. Farley Gannett, black and white tulle; Miss Gertrude Musser, white chiffon with orchid colored bodice; Miss Cassandra Musser, scarlet chiffon; Mrs. James P. McCullough, black net and jets; Mrs. Frederick E. Downes, black lace net and sequins; Mrs. Stanley G. Jean, black satin and jets.

Wharton Extension School Issues Dance Invitations

The second annual dance of the Harrisburg Wharton Extension School will be held Friday evening, February 2, at Winterdale Hall, and will be attended by about fifty couples, all the men being students of the local school except several invited guests from the Wharton school in Philadelphia.

Music will be furnished by the Updegrave orchestra for a twenty-dance program, with dancing from 9 to 1. There will also be several card tables, at which progressive five hundred will be played. The hall will be decorated with University of Pennsylvania banners and with greens, etc.

BARR-MUSSER WEDDING

Miss Ruth Beatrice Barr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Barr, was married to John Elgin Musser at noon today at the home of her parents, 1131 Mulberry street. The Rev. Dr. Clayton Albert Smucker, Stevens' Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated.

After a wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Musser left for an extensive trip and will be "at home" after February 15 at 271 Muench street.

Other Social News Page 5.

Buehler Bros. CUT RATE MARKETS. 432 Market. Savings of several cents a pound every day on Buehler Brothers meat. Specials For Thursday, February 1st, 1917. Fancy Lean Pot Roast 12 1/2c. Fresh Ground Hamburg Steak 12 1/2c. Pin Bone Steak 18c. Fancy Veal Roast 18c. Stewing Veal 14c. Lincoln Butterine 21c. Sun Kist Coffee 25c. See This Paper Friday For Big Saturday Meat Specials. MARKETS IN PRINCIPAL CITIES OF 14 STATES. MAIN OFFICE PACKING HOUSE CHICAGO, ILL. PEORIA, ILL. IF GOODS ARE NOT SATISFACTORY MONEY CHEERFULLY REFUNDED. DR. B. S. BEHNEY DENTAL SURGEON. has established temporary offices at 317 N. Second St., Harrisburg, Pa. Bell Phone 1202-R.