In Howell's last three bouts he hung the "K. O." sign on his opponents. The first and second preliminaries have not been announced yet. Frankie Ernie of Detroit will be the third man in all the bouts. Seats will be on sale Monday morning at Kochenour's Cigar Store, Third and Market streets.

Pattison, of Pennsylvania, a member of Troop D, Thirtieth United States Cavalry, stationed at Dublin, Mexico, star back of the Thirtieth Cavalry football team during the winter season of 1916-17, has returned to full duty with the troop. He was the main strength of the back field in several exciting contests with the Tenth, Eleventh and Seventh Cavalry teams.

According to Corporal Pattison, gridiron life in Chihuahua is not all touchdowns and glory. The football field of the punitive expedition is supplied with a large number of stones and boulders. In one of the early games Corporal Pattison severely skinned the backs of both hands while making a flying tackle. He is still wearing bandages.

BLUE RIDGE NOW HAS SIX TEAMS

No Sunday Baseball Puts Piedmont and Cumberland Out; Salary Limit

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 3.—After the Blue Ridge League officials refused to sanction Sunday baseball, Cumberland and Piedmont, recently offered franchises, were voted out of the league at a meeting of the moguls held here yesterday. This action means that the circuit will be composed of the same teams as last year. The salary limit was raised from $1,000 a month to $1,100 and the playing season fixed at 98 games for each team. The meeting was stormy and the session heated, when the Sunday baseball question came up, and a vigorous controversy ensued.

Strong Appeal For Sunday
Colonel Nelson Russeler and M. L. Laughlin, representing Cumberland and Piedmont respectively, made an appeal for the playing of Sunday games in those towns. When a vote was reached it stood 4 to 2 against the proposition, Cumberland and Piedmont not voting.

Representatives at the meeting were Martinsburg, L. H. Thompson; Gettysburg, C. J. Kimball; Chambersburg, W. H. Fisher; Hanover, J. M. Smith; Frederick, F. K. Schmidt; Cumberland, Colonel Nelson Russeler; Piedmont, M. Laughlin; Hagerstown, H. J. Crosson.

CENTRAL HOLDS LEAD IN LEAGUE

Put Crimp in Winning Streak of Lebanon Tossers; Girls Land Victory

Lebanon high school's pennant chasing Central Pennsylvania Scholastic League five was tumbled out of first place last night by Central high tossers, 29 to 20.

It was the first defeat for Lebanon's team, after five straight league game victories, and put Central into first place in the league standing.

Both fives played hard and fast, and the game was the best scholastic one seen on Chestnut street floor. Taking the lead during the first five minutes, Central was never headed, although Lebanon tied the score at 23 in the second period. Before the league game and between halves the Central girls walked away from the Lebanon Valley College girls five, winning 24 to 7.

Gregory is Star
Three field goals in the opening minutes by Gregory and one by Martz gave Central's score to 8 before the Central was never headed, although Lebanon players even got started. Central added seven more points while Lebanon was netting five on field goals and a foul by Moore. Many sensational shots were tried by both fives, but one by Hilton and another by Moore were the only ones to go through from difficult angles.

Frequently during the first half and the early part of the second the Lebanon players could not locate the basket despite repeated attempts at close range. At half time Central was leading, 20 to 17, and in the first few minutes of the last period the visitors tied the score at 23, but could not take the lead.

The remainder of the game was hard fought, Lebanon trying to cut down a run lead and fouling frequently during the hard playing. During the last few minutes the Blue and Gray tossers drew away from the visitors and when the whistle blew were out of danger and on the way to another big lead. The summary:

Arrested For Forgery While on Penitentiary Parole
Mechanicsburg, Pa., Feb. 3.—Chief of Police E. S. Cocklin, landed a man in Mechanicsburg yesterday by the name of Daniel Carmichael, who was wanted at the Eastern State Penitentiary, for violating his parole. Carmichael is an old offender of the law, having served time in the banks and been around town for the past three weeks. As soon as his photograph came, Officer Cocklin recognized it, and arrested Carmichael also for forgery. On Thursday afternoon he appeared at each of the three banks in town, in an attempt to have a check for $20 cashed, which was refused. Cashiers of the institutions telephoned the police who arrested Carmichael in the American House, and he admitted his guilt. He is dressed as a laborer and carried a dinner pail when he went into the banks and asked to have the checks cashed immediately as he had to catch the next car, but could not pull it off. He was also refused at the A. S. Jacobson Clothing Store.

Carmichael was committed to the lockup and yesterday afternoon, Robert L. Myers, special officer from the Eastern State Penitentiary, Philadelphia, came for him. He will have two and one-half years to serve for this offense.

Thirteen years ago Carmichael lived here and was regularly employed. Officer Cocklin says he knew him well. Since that time he has served a number of sentences in various prisons, for a list of crimes, chief of which seemed to be forgery and larceny. Had he not violated parole on December 12, 1916, the officer said he would soon have been free.

Elvin Cambell, aged 35, died at his home here of tuberculosis, after a long illness. A wife and child survive.
Mrs. Mary Golden, aged 63, died at her home in Shamokin yesterday of heart disease, after an illness of but a few minutes.
Mrs. Joel Kerstetter, aged 70, died at Mahantongo, of a complication of diseases after a long illness.

STROH HEADS BAR
Charles C. Stroh was elected president of the Dauphin County Bar Association last night at a meeting of the members in courtroom No. 2. Other officers who were elected were John R. Geyer, vice-president; W. Harry Musser, treasurer; J. J. Conklin, secretary; directors, Benjamin F. Umberger, Thomas S. Hoover, Charles H. Bergner, John B. Patrick, William M. Hain; censors, John Fox Welles, Frank E. Ziegler, B. Frank Neid, Harry B. Sausaman and Arthur H. Hull.

WELLY'S CORNER

Harrisburg never goes begging for good basketball. To-night's schedule offers rare attractions. Throughout the week games are played on an average of four each day.

Frank Seiss, secretary of the local New York State League club, looks for a busy season this year. Present activity, according to his report, is very encouraging.

Baseball stars have little trouble in keeping busy. Roy Bumbach and John Locker, of the Middletown five, have joined the Mountville team of the Lancaster County League. They are all-round athletes. Bumbach is a basketball star.

The dropping of Wilmer G. Crowell as athletic director at Lafayette came as a big surprise. He was a former quarterback on the Swarthmore team.

He was paid $2,500 a year. He started as a football coach, but later was given charge of all athletics.

Indications are that the Swedish athletes will not be here next month for the indoor meet. Bolin and Zander sent word that it will be impossible to get away in time to reach America and train for the big event.

Dave Fultz says Jack Enright cannot resign from the Fraternity. He claims that the Yankee star has broken no contract as yet. It may be that Dave Fultz wants the privilege of doing the firing act himself.

At a meeting of the board of governors of the Motor Club of Harrisburg held last night February 15 was fixed as the date for the annual meeting of the club. It will be held at the rooms, 109 South Second street.
