AMUSEMENTS
Despite the severe cold weather, large crowds were on hand at each performance of the majestic Theater yesterday. An excellent lead vocalist, headed Bill ing Paper appearing there, and everyone who witnessed the show went away pleased with what they had seen and heard. The play will be a clever young couple, are proving quite popular, and their comedy singing, talking and dancing act won't do anyone in a good humor. Competing the bill are: Dorothy De Schell and Company, presented an excellent comedy which is titled, "Hearts Are Trump." Huder, Stein and Phillips, a trio of male singers, who furnish splendid harmony, and Will and Kemp, in a novel comedy acrobatic offering.

Kate Douglas Wiggin's latest novel of undoubted popularity, "Mother Carey's Chickens," will be presented at the Orpheum, to-night and to-morrow, matinee and night, under the management of John Cort. The dramatic version is by Mrs.
Wiggin and Rachel Crothers, and is described as a little comedy of "Home." There is at least as much charming sentiment and humor in this play as was found in the same author's previous famous work, "Rebecca of Sunny Brook

The appearance of the New York Symphony Orchestra, Walter Dam-rosch, conductor, Symphony Orchestra with Paul Alto play "America" house, the celebrated tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Company, at the Chestnut Street Auditorium this evening, music lovers in an event of unusual interest. The only orchestra event of the present season, and with so great an artist as a soloist, it has attracted the attention of musical organizations not only in Harrisburg but in the neighboring towns.
At the close of the concert the orchestra will play "America," Mr. Al-house leading in singing the words to the audience. The popular prices prevailing for this concert give all an opportunity to enjoy a rich musical feast at a reasonable price.

The Metro Film Company will present Ethel Barrymore, one of the best known stars on the speaking stage, at the Colonial Theater to-day and to-morrow, in a five-part play of a girl's love and ambition called "The White Raven." A play that is filled with big moments and beautiful scenes. The picture opens in a mining camp in Alaska, where, in the role of a dance-hall girl, she earns her living. In a fit of despondency she gambles herself against enough money to go to New York, where she becomes famous as an entertainer. A powerful climax comes as a big surprise, and brings to a close a picture, it is said, that will be remembered for many days.

MUNITION MEN
OFFER PLANTS
Washington, Feb. 6.—Giant corporations which have waxed at through the manufacture of munitions of war have come forward with patriotic offers to turn their plants over to the United States government at any time and for any purpose, willingly sacrificing the huge profits such as they have enjoyed during the last two years.
Representatives of the Carnegie Steel Company, the Bethlehem Steel Company, the Remington Arms Company, and the Ford Motor Company yesterday called upon Secretary of the Navy and told him they stood ready at a moment's notice to suspend work and turn their entire capacity to the manufacture of munitions for this government.
James B. Bonner, vice-president of the Carnegie Steel Company, told Secretary Daniels that his company would expedite all government work and that the navy could call upon them for anything. The Secretary said:
"I told Mr. Bonner that I appreciated his offer, and all the more because the Carnegie Steel Company has been facilitating and expediting deliveries of government work for months."
Bethlehem Ready to Expedite Shells.
Eugene Grace, president of the Bethlehem Company, made a similar offer. He said his company has now on hand 4,500 shells and is using its best efforts to get them in shape for the Navy Department. He offered all the facilities of the Bethlehem plant at any time.
Henry Ford, the Detroit automobile manufacturer, also was willing to do everything in his power to help. He said:
"I stand with the President, and in the event of war will place our factory at the disposal of the United States government and will operate without one cent of profit. I will also contribute my own time and work harder than ever before." Remington Arms Also in Line A representative of the Remington Arms Company, the big concern that has been turning out munitions for the allies, called at the department to tell Secretary Daniels that all the facilities and equipment of his company were at the disposal of the government.
Besides these offers made personally to the Secretary, many others from large companies and of the same character are coming in my mail. The Department of Justice is engaged in framing a bill giving the President authority in emergencies to commandeer shipyards and munition plants, but it is evident from the spirit shown to date that even if this provision is made a law it will not be necessary to invoke it. Apparently, any private interest in the government want can be made for the asking.
Yacht Owners and Labor Leaders Private yacht owners have come forward with offers of their craft for military purposes. It is stated that every private yacht that could be used in the event of war has been examined.
The American Federation of Labor sent word it would acquiesce in suspending the present law restricting hours of labor on government contracts should the President desire.

Sharon Arms Plants
Offer Their Services Sharon, Pa., Feb. 6.—In event of war two plants in Sharon will immediately begin furnishing munitions for the United States. The Briggs-Searby Ordnance Company has been making shells for the Allies and is now turning out rapid-fire guns for the British government. It employs 1,700 men.
Following the break between the United States and Germany extra policemen have been put on guard at

The Sharon works of the American Steel Foundries has been turning out thousands of steel ingots that are finished at the Montreal, Canada, plant for the Allies.
Between 1,500 and 2,000 foreign-born naturalized citizens of Farrell and Sharon are ready to take up arms for the United States in event of war with Germany, according to the statements of prominent foreign bankers.
Housatonic First Victim of U-Boat in Civil War Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 6.—Confederate naval historians here recalled the fact that the first American vessel sunk by a hostile submarine in warfare bore the same name as the Housatonic, also the first American steamer sunk by a German submarine since the break in diplomatic relations occurred.
The former vessel was the United States steamship Housatonic, sunk in Charleston harbor the night of February 17, 1864, by the Confederate submarine H. L. Hunley. She carried thirteen guns and a crew of 160 men, five of whom were lost.
Everything Is Ripe
For British Big Drive
London, Feb. 6.—The Allies' spring offensive may already have been launched. Following the interlinked trench raids, which have swept from the sea to Switzerland, the west front fighting has centered on the Somme and is rapidly developing into a first-class engagement with the British hammering their way toward Ba-paume both from the south and from the east.
THREE FIRES IN READING
Reading, Pa., Feb. 6.—Three fires within twenty-four hours did $25,000 worth of damage. The most serious fire was at the plant of the Reading Casting Company and was caused by an effort to thaw frozen steam pipes.
The loss amounted to about $15,000.
The earlier fires were at the office building of Merritt Brothers' lumber yards and in a store building on Penn street above Sixth.

PROTECT WILSON FAMILY
Special Precautions Taken to Guard
White House From Intruders Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—Every precaution is being taken at the White House to prevent possible harm to the President and his family and to guard against the intrusion of cranks and others. Major Pullman, superintendent of police, accompanied by Commissioner Brownlow, who has supervision over the department, made a thorough inspection of the arrangements at the Executive Mansion. After a careful examination of all parts of the building they went to the roof covering the executive offices to make sure that it could not be made the hiding place for any person bent upon doing the President bodily harm.
Two extra Secret Service men were detailed for duty at the White House to-day and will remain there indefinitely.
