Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Thomas, of Pittsburgh, have gone home after a brief stay among relatives in the West End.

Charles Adams, of Sunbury, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Klinebine at Riverside.

C. A. Wolfson, of New Kensington, Pa., was the guest of Mrs. J. H. Brenner, 819 North Sixth street, recently.

MUCH COTTON FOR MUNITIONS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7.—American munition manufacturers used 893,015 equivalent 500-pound bales of cotton fiber, including linters and hull fiber, in 1916, the Census Bureau today announced. This is equivalent to 583,710 bales of bleached cotton fiber, against 244,003 bales consumed in 1915. The loss in preparing linters and hull fiber for gun cotton and other explosives is from 30 to 40 per cent.

AUSTRIA HAS EATEN HARVEST

Amsterdam, Feb. 7.—Austria now is at the end of her supplies from the last harvest, according to a statement published in The Neue Freie Presse, of Vienna, attributed to the Austrian Food Controller, Hefer. The prevailing frost has greatly impeded the potato supply, according to the Controller, but the German government has promised supplies from Rumania in March.

PROFESSOR TATE DIES

Nashville, Tenn., Feb. 7.—Professor William K. Tate, 46, treasurer of the George Peabody College for Teachers and widely known as an educator, died today of pneumonia.

LOCATE DRIFTING STEAMER

Boston, Mass., Feb. 7.—The motor tank steamer Daylite, which broke adrift from the tug Resolute 100 miles south of Cape Sable, N. S., in a storm, Sunday, was located to-day by the coast guard cutter Gresham and will be taken in tow for Boston as soon as the weather moderates. A message from the cutter stated that the crew was aboard, but that it had been impossible to get a line to the vessel because of the heavy seas. The Daylite was built recently at Toledo, Ohio, for the Standard Oil Company and was proceeding in tow from Halifax for New York.

PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN FOR DYSPEPSIA, GAS, OR UPSET STOMACH

Indigestion Goes Instantly! Ends Sourness, Acidity and all Stomach Misery—No Waiting—Get Some!

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down; Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.
Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.
You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.
Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder. Don't be talked into something else "just as good." Get the genuine, no imitation.
